

DELEGATES TO CONVENTIONS

Both Parties May Call Committee Meetings for July 24.

TOM FLYNN NOT YET DECIDED

Crawford Thinks County Committee is Empowered to Select Delegates to the State Convention Three Days Later.

County committees of the republican and democratic parties probably will be called together on Saturday, July 24, to select delegates to the state conventions to be held on Tuesday, July 27.

The state convention will be held for the purpose of framing party platforms, the amended primary law providing for making the platforms prior to the primaries instead of afterwards, as under the old law.

"I have not talked it over with party leaders, but I think I will call the committee together on Saturday of next week," said Chairman Frank Crawford of the republican county committee. "I will probably issue the call next Wednesday.

"As I understand it, the county committee is empowered to select the delegates to the state convention. If the state convention were to nominate candidates it might be different, but all it will have to do will be to formulate the party platform."

Thomas J. Flynn, the democratic county chairman, has not fully decided on the date for the meeting of his party's committee, but says it will probably be on July 24. The Dahlgren Democracy club will meet tonight and the chairman will there consult with leaders and determine the date.

The democratic state convention will be held on the same date as the republican—July 27. This is fixed by law. The place of the state meeting is left to the discretion of the state committees, but both have selected Lincoln.

Number of Delegates. Douglas county will be entitled to ninety-five delegates to the republican convention, and fifty-four to the democratic convention.

There will be 938 delegates in the republican state convention and 453 in the democratic state convention.

County Chairman Crawford says he is well pleased with the way the republicans are filing for county offices. Forty-two republicans have so far filed, and candidates are up for every important office. The last republicans to file are Ernest Stunt for county commissioner from the First district and Ed F. Moriarty for police judge.

Seventeen democrats have so far filed for county office, most of these being for minor positions, such as justices of the peace, constables and road overseers. The Democrats expect to frame up a ticket in the meeting tonight of the Dahlgren Democracy club, and file a complete ticket tomorrow.

For the important offices George Rogers gives out the following slate for the democratic: Treasurer, Otto Bauman; sheriff, Leo Hoffman; clerk, Al Tousain; register of deeds, Ed. L. Lawler; coroner, P. C. Heafey; surveyor, George Crick; judge, John H. Grossman; commissioner from the First district, Arthur Pew. Heafey and Pew have already filed.

Idaho Officer Says One Bandit is of Good Family

Deputy Sheriff Dyer Recognizes Grigware as Son of Spokane Fruit Merchant.

Deputy Sheriff C. W. Dyer of Twin Falls, Idaho, on a visit to the county jail, recognized Woods, Torgenson and Grigware (Gordon), alleged robbers of the Overland Limited train, as notorious crooks of Spokane and vicinity. They have a bad record in Washington and Idaho and have been operating there off and on for a number of years, he says.

Grigware comes of a good family at Spokane, but Sheriff Dyer is of opinion Grigware's father will not make much of an effort to help his son out of trouble. The elder Grigware is in the fruit business in Spokane and is worth considerable money. He has already put up a small fortune helping his boy out of difficulty and is not disposed to take much further interest in him.

Lillian Stephenson who is still detained here as a witness against Shelton and the other alleged bandits, does not claim to know Bill Matthews, the latest addition to the group, though she had heard of him indirectly through Shelton.

With the arrest of Matthews (Marvin), additional evidence is piling up against the accused men and it begins to look as if the government is going to be able to put up a strong case against them.

Deputy Sheriff Dyer and Deputy Marshal E. W. Heemer have returned to their homes in Idaho. They will return to Omaha in September to be present at the trial.

"I won't be shaved," declares Marvin in decided tones. "I wear a short beard ordinarily and intend to keep it. I don't have to be shaved and I refuse to be," he says. The question arose almost as soon as he was safely lodged in the county jail. Marshal Warner and Sheriff Bralley want to have Marvin's picture taken for the rogues' gallery and wish to show his features without any beard.

BUILDING OF OLD FORT RENO

Captain Palmer Recalls Fact that He Helped Establish it Forty-Four Years Ago.

"The departure of E. A. Parmelee for old Fort Reno to locate the old cemetery there," said Captain Henry E. Palmer, "recalls the fact that I happened to be one of the builders of the old fort in the summer of 1865.

"I was then quartermaster of the General Connor expedition to that country, and had general charge of the building of the old stockade and block houses. We obtained the timber from down in the Powder river bottoms. The fort was virtually built under fire of the Indians. Major Frank North, with his Pawnee scouts, was there with us and it was in August of that year that we had a lively brush with the Northern Cheyennes on the plateau near the fort. It was the farthest western post in the northwestern country at the time and was always the scene of Indian fighting."
