President Taft up to this time has not permitted himself to be quoted in connection with the tariff struggle. His frame was as much interested in republican suc- ment contained nothing to which any good of mind was indicated in his New Haven speech June 20, however, in which he warned the republican party that if it did not keep its promises and live up to what the people expected of it, it would be relegated to the minority.

The president has been careful heretofore scenery. to let no impression gain ground that he was dictating to congress. He always declared that he hoped a satisfactory bill would be framed in accordance with the party pledges. His reticence in the past has lent more weight than would ordinarily be attached to such a statement as was given out this afternoon.

Asserts His Leadership The president asserts for the first time his authority as titular head of his party. As such he announces his conviction that the party platform meant a revision downward, and that no other interpretation can be placed upon it.

In addition to the suggestion of a veto, which many political observers read into the president's statement, it is taken also promise reached on barley and hops. to mean that if congress does not agree to what he regards as a proper revision downward, there will be a split between the president and the legislative branch of the government as wide as those which marked the experience of Presidents Roosevelt and Cleveland.

SCOTLAND YARD ON HIS TRAIL

Is Recognized by an American Who Knows Him-Stupidity of Policeman Permits Him _ to Escape.

LONDON. July 16 .- According to a report made by a visiting American to the Scotland Yard authorities, Leon Ling, the Chinaman suspected of the murder of Eisle Sigel in New York, on June 9, was seen yesterday outside a jeweler's shop near the Royal exchange. This American, who wishes his name withheld for the present, told the police he knew Ling in New York and that he was confident the Chinaman he saw yesterday was Ling. When the American caught sight of Ling he went up to a policeman standing nearby and said:

"That man is wanted for murder in New York; go and grab him."

Policeman is Suspicious. The policeman, however, appears to have suspected the American of some ulterio motive and while he hesitated the China man got away. Scotland Yard authorities today showed s photograph of Ling to the American, who declared that he undoubtedly was the man he saw. He gave a full description of the European clothes worn by the Chinaman, Photographs of Leon Ling have been sent to all the London police stations and active search for the Chinaman is being

Interest at Washington. WASHINGTON, July 16 .- A cablegram from Ambassador Reid at London stated that the British government would like to know whether any request would be mad for the extradition of Leon Ling, should he be apprehended in England.

It cannot be ascertained that this reques is based on any information as to the whereabouts of Ling. The inference is that the Scotland Yard authorities simply desire to know if any steps in the matter are worth their while in the absence of information as to whether the United States would demand Ling's extradition. It is understood that the telegram was forwarded to the New York authorities.
