

Old Methods Discarded by the Austro-American Doctors The New Method Specialists

The Austro-American Doctors use the "New Method" in treating all of their cases. This consists in locating and removing the cause, rather than treating the effect. You will readily see that this is the logical way to treat chronic ailments. No crude drugs are used—only the purest alkaloids. The unvarying success of the Austro-American Doctors in treating and curing all cases which they accept, has created numerous imitators. However, the fact that the Austro-American Doctors are permanently located in Omaha and have been curing many cases where all other methods of treatment failed to make the people slow to experiment with other methods. The people know that the Austro-American Doctors cure all cases which they accept. Following are a few letters, picked at random, from people who have been benefited by our new method of treatment:

Dear Sirs—For the past two years I have been troubled with paralysis. It showed first in my right hand and later affected my entire left side. I tried several local doctors but was unable to get relief—they didn't seem to know just where the trouble lay. I have been taking the Austro-American treatment for about six weeks, and am glad to say that I am a hundred per cent better, and feel that I will be entirely cured.

Improvement in me. You remember when I came to you how crippled up I was—I could not even write a letter; my arms were so bad, I had to step both feet on one step. I wanted to go upstairs and my body was much enlarged from dropsy, yes, and the muscles of my head were swollen from pain. I remember you told me I was in bad condition and could not expect the medicine to do me much good for two or three months; well, you have done more for me than you agreed to. It is just seven weeks since I began to doctor with you. The pain has left my head and I can remember so much better. This week I helped to do the ironing for six of our other folks—in fact, I do not limp at all, and the dropsy has gone so I can put my clothes on neat as they should be. I must tell you I asked a goldsmith on the street to direct me to another doctor. I guess he misunderstood me, for he sent me to you. I really believe God intended it that way. Another thing I like about you, you take just as much interest in my case as I can afford to pay you more. Many sufferers find their way to you.

Broken Bow, Neb., July 1, 1909.
To the Austro-American Doctors,
Omaha, Neb.
Gentlemen—I feel just fine and think that I am on the road to full recovery. At present am working as hard as I ever have—you know this is the busy time on the farm. Now I think it advisable for me to continue the treatment for one month more so as to make sure of a permanent cure. So please send me some more medicine. Yours truly,
C. C. BIGGERSTAFF,
Broken Bow, Neb.

DR. THEODORE MILEN
Dr. Milen, the physician in charge, is an eminent diagnostician of 30 years experience in nervous and chronic diseases. He sees all patients personally and outlines their treatment, asking no questions at all of the patient.

Dr. Milen, the Austro-American Doctor:
I wrote you some time ago, telling you how nicely I was improving of my stomach trouble, bronchial trouble and my headache. I feel almost well now. You remember when I came to you I was scarcely able to get around because of the terrible pain in my head and the pain in my chest. You remember I vomited up nearly everything I ate, but now I feel strong and almost in perfect health. I will be pleased to tell anyone of your kindness and the great benefit you have done me, and can say truthfully that you have kept your word in every particular. People who knew me a year ago and see me now hardly recognize me. I tell them, when they ask me what has caused this great improvement that I went to the Austro-American Doctors. I am saying a good word for you whenever I can, as you certainly deserve it. I am saying: Wishing you continued success, I am, yours truly,

Dear Sirs—It gives me pleasure to tell you how much my condition has improved since I have been treating with you. One of those who have suffered with it know the terrible pain and sickness that goes with ulceration of the stomach. For three years life was a burden to me—I was unable to eat scarcely anything and was continually harassed with vomiting spells, throwing up blood, matter, etc. I tried a number of doctors, and gaining no relief, finally had to sell out my tailor shop in South Omaha and quit business, as I was unable to do even the lightest work. I have been taking the Austro-American treatment a little over two months now, and my improvement is what I could not have gained in weight, am feeling fine, have

KENNARD DIES IN CHICAGO

County Commissioner Goes Soon After Word of Hope Comes.

SPECIALIST SAID HE WOULD LIVE

Mrs. Kennard Writes Letter of Cheer and This is Scarcely Read Before She Telegraphs He is Dead.

Milton J. Kennard, former chairman of the Board of County Commissioners and member for the First district for the present term died suddenly this morning in a Chicago hospital. Death came immediately after a pronouncement by the specialist in charge that Mr. Kennard's malady was curable and less serious than at first supposed.

A telegram from Mrs. Kennard, containing word of her husband's death, came to E. J. Woods, a family friend a few minutes after a letter she had written, which told joyfully of the physician's declaration that Mr. Kennard's life could be saved.

Only a few hours previously to this Mr. Kennard's friends had been arranging details of a campaign to re-elect him to the county board, where his service had been of noteworthy efficiency.

At the office of the county clerk word had been received of his intention to run again and it was said that his filing for the primary nomination would be received before the day was over.

The news of his death caused more than usual regret in court house circles, where he had not an enemy, although he was a man of vigorous and pronounced activity.

Mr. Kennard was born in Indiana, near Knightstown, and would have been 61 in August. He came to Omaha in 1878 and engaged in the real estate and insurance business, which he prosecuted successfully until he was elected county commissioner. He has just been completing his second term in that office and was chairman of the board for the first two years.

8-Inch Tension Shears 19c

The shears that sharpen themselves
Special For Saturday Only

This special offer consists of what is one of the most useful articles ever invented—a first-class 8-inch pair of Shears, equipped with a new and simple attachment that keeps them always sharp and enables the user to cut anything from wet tissue paper to the heaviest cloth. The illustration shows the tension spring, the device which doubles the usefulness of the Shears and keeps them always sharp. The Shears offered here are made from the carbon steel from a new process which insures strength and a good, keen cutting edge. The tension spring attachment does away with re-sharpening entirely, and enables the user to set the tension on the rivet so that any kind of material intended to be cut with shears may be cut with perfect ease, without tiring the hand. The tension spring takes up all the wear on the rivet, making the shears practically indestructible, with no wear-out to them. A simple turn of the little thumb-screw shown in the engraving tightens up the blades as closely as may be desired. Any woman who has had the exasperating experience of trying to use a dull pair of shears can readily appreciate the value of the new invention, which keeps this pair of Shears always sharp and in perfect cutting condition. These shears are 8 inches in length, perfectly finished and heavily nickel plated.
