PAYNE QUARRELS WITH CONFEREEES

but, nevertheless, none of the subjects likely to provoke a reopening of hostilities were broached.

Although a number of minor amendments which had been passed over in former considerations of the bill were taken up and settled amicably, it is reported that all of the conferees acted as if they feared a volcanic eruption. Soon after noon someone suggested that an adjournment would be advisable, and no objection was raised.

When asked why an early adjournment for the day was taken, Mr. Aldrich and other conferees said it was to give all of them an opportunity to consult with colleagues and constituents about proposals for the settlement of numerous amendments. They declared that time would be saved by having no afternoon or evening sessions. Then it was that Messrs. Aldrich and Cannon hurried to the White House.

Payne is With Taft.

It is declared by Mr. Payne's friends that his unswerving attitude on the low rates is the house bill is dictated solely by a desire to see President Taft successful in his convention for downward revision of the tariff.

The twenty-three republicans of the house who called upon President Taft recently to plead with him to recede from his position on raw material were considerably alarmed today when they learned of Chairman Payne's action. It was said that their number was increased through the support of Representative Hughes of West Virginia, who was not in the party that visited the White House.

The possible attitude of the house democrat was one in which they took great interest. It was said that in the event that President Taft and Representative Payne were successful in obtaining a conference report carrying out the free raw material program, a large number of the minority would be found supporting the twenty-four republicans if they decide to vote against this conference report.

MAYOR JIM WAKES THEM UP

His Platform Doctrine Starts Lincoln Democrats Talking.

LIQUOR QUESTION AND OTHERS

Charles W. Bryan Favors County Option, Senator Miller S-O'Clock Closing and Tremore Cone the Initiative.

(From a Staff Correspondent.)

LINCOLN, Neb., July 20.—(Special)—The indications are now that the democratic state convention, to be held here next Tuesday, will be the occasion of one of the warmest fights pulled off in Nebraska politics in many years. The fight will be over the platform.

No sooner had Mayor Dahlman defied Lincoln this morning in The Bee than his challenge was accepted and the forces began to line up for battle.

While the big leaders of the party agree with Mayor Dahlman that the liquor question should be side-stepped if possible, if any one starts anything, no less a person than Charles W. Bryan himself will take issue with the Omaha mayor. Mr. Bryan is in favor of county option, and if the liquor question is ever mentioned in the state convention next Tuesday he will insist that that be the subject of the planks. If the matter comes to a show-down J. E. Miller will be for county option.

Where Governor Shallenberger will line up when these big forces begin to grind is problematical. When asked for a statement today regarding the platform, the governor replied: "I have given the platform my thought, but it should contain good democratic principles."

Senator Miller's Stand.

Senator J. E. Miller of Lancaster county will take issue with the Omaha mayor, for he is in favor of endorsing the 8 o'clock closing law, though he believes the convention can with perfect propriety leave out any mention of county option, because that is not an issue this fall. Personally, however, the senator favors county option, and he would have no objection to having it in the platform.

Senator Miller said: "I can agree with Mayor Dahlman that it is not necessary for the convention to take a stand on county option, but I am in favor of endorsing the 8 o'clock closing law. The first democratic state convention following the legislature should endorse that law. Should the convention desire to include county option in the platform, I have no objection, because personally I favor county option."

"I would certainly insist that the platform endorse the initiative and referendum. By all means this should be done. In addition to the compensation judiciary and the enforcement of the income tax amendment, I sincerely would endorse a plank on the tariff. A good, strong plank. This may have no connection with the present campaign, but we should insert it in our platform just the same."

O. E. Bowers of Gregory, and A. D. Sheppard of Dallas, S. D., were in Washington for a brief visit en route to the Atlantic seacoast resorts.

O. C. Anderson, West Point, and W. T. Diddicks and wife of Watertown are in Washington today. Mr. Diddicks has business before the Indian bureau in reference to Indian lands in Edenton county.

Mine Strangely Flooded.

BOONE, Ia., July 20.—(Special Telegram.)

—The mine of the Boone Coal company is flooded with water, the trouble occurring under peculiar circumstances. In a hole down several hundred feet the miners used three blasts.

The triple explosion seemed to loosen a body of water located near the bed of the mine and the inflow came with a rush. Pumps have been wired for and it is hoped to stop the flow in a few days.

Farmer Killed at Newton.

NEWTON, Ia., July 20.—(Special Telegram.)

—N. L. Parsons, a wealthy farmer living three miles east of here, was instantly killed today by being jerked from a load of hay when the double-tree of the wagon broke. The horses pulled him to the ground, which he struck with his head, his neck being broken. Parsons was a brother of George W. Parsons, inventor of Parsons's band cutter and self feeder.
