CITY HALL FOR BILLBOARD

Irrelevant Jims Advertise Picnic in Most Unseemly Way.

INDIGNATION AMONG OFFICIALS

Chief of Police and Members of City Council Seek for Party Who Posted Stickers on the Marble Walls.

Small stickers about two inches square pasted on the floors, the marble steps, door casings, elevators and elevator shafts and furniture of the city hall and advertising the Jim picnic to be held at Seymour Lark park on August 7, have aroused the ire of the chief of police and members of the city council. Many of the Jims have stickers stowed away in their pockets, but officials have been unable to ascertain who is responsible for "desecrating" the city's building. If the responsible person could be found some of the officials say an example ought to be made of him, as they contend that the posting is against the city ordinance. The city hall is not specifically men-

TWO MILLIONS IN JEWELRY

Big Display Will Be Made at the Jewelers' Convention Here Next Month.

More than $2,000,000 worth of jewelry will be on public exhibition in Omaha during the coming convention of the American National Retail Jewelers' association. One firm alone will bring $500,000 worth of precious stones, gold and silverware, forming a veritable exposition in itself. The jewelry will be publicly exhibited with a swarm of detectives on guard—the night of August 6. The jewelers come here August 3 and will wait the den the first night. Attendance at the convention will be increased by the bare and one-half rate granted to everyone in the western states by the railroads. Those coming from east of the Missouri will be able to get the same rate by the 1,000 certificate plan. A Life Sentence of suffering with throat and lung trouble is quickly commuted by Dr. King's New Discovery. 50c and $1.00. Sold by Beaton Drug Co.

MINNEAPOLIS WANTS THE HOTEL MEN NEXT YEAR

Mill City Will Come to Omaha to Secure the Convention for 1910.

"Minneapolis in 1909" will be the motto of the hotel men from the Minnesota metropolis who come to the annual meeting of the Northwestern Hotel Men's association in this city August 16 to 18. The Minneapolis men desire to advise the their new hotels and they believe the best way to accomplish this will be by showing them to the other proprietors of western hostleries. Omaha hotel men will favor Minneapolis as the next convention city and will use their influence to help out their brothers from the milling city.

CAR OF ELKS COMES MONDAY

Party Returning from Grand Lodge Meeting by Way of Yellowstone Park. One car filled with Elks from Newark, N. J., will arrive in Omaha Monday evening at 6 o'clock on the Union Pacific and leave at 6 o'clock over the Rock Island. The balance of the party in a special train will arrive in Omaha August 1 at 4:30 p. m., and after spending an hour in Omaha, will journey east over the Rock Island. This party has been making a trip over the northwest and through Yellowstone park since the annual convention of the Elks at Los Angeles.
