leading off first the ball went wide and Foxy Fox was soon perching on third. Waldron drew a pass and Fox scored on Thomas' single. Holly had several close calls for some more scores, but that was all which the Prohibitionists could cash in. They had twelve men left on bases, two on three different occasions and three in the eighth, but Holly got stingy and would not let them have any more.

For three innings Farthing pitched great ball, but in the fourth he was a trifle wild, and the Rourkes took advantage of it. King was first up, and waited for four wide ones. Welch popped out in trying to sacrifice and Kane was hit. Schipke scored them both with a drive to center

Those prohibitionists from Lincoln were forced to take their medicine in the open-ing game of the series with the Rourkes, and because Des Moines also lost, Omaha went back into the second place, which was taken away Monday.

Captain Fox had chosen Farthing, the Westeyan university southpaw, to pitch the opening game, and he started as though he was going to try to repeat the dose which Biersdorfer had handed out the day before, when Omaha was shut out. Lincoln made one in the opening round, but Omaha could not connect right until the third inning, and from that time on quite a comfortable lead was accumulated.

Lincoln scored its only run by a series of circumstances, With one out, Fox singled, and when Holly threw to catch him leading off first the ball went wide and Poxy Fox was soon perceing on third.

A passed ball put Catfish on second and Pendry drove one past Jack Thomas, on which Fisher scored. Pendry stole second, and after King had walked, he and King negotiated a double steal. Gagnier muffed the throw to second and Pendry came on home.

The fourth cinched the game for Omaha, and four runs were made after two were down. Cadman walked and Holly hit safe. Fisher and Pendry followed with doubles, and Pendry went to third on the throw to second.

HASTINGS, Neb., July 77.—(Special.)—
The local base ball management has received a notice from the Superior manager cancelling the six games arranged for the two teams. The action is a result of a disagreement over the decision of the umpire in the game at Superior Satruday. The Hastings men left the field and the automobile and other liverymen of Superior declined to take the team to Fairfield so they could catch a train for Hastings. Weigardt, formerly of Denver's Western league team, was released by Manager Harms because he refused to return to the grounds and resume playing. Superior Cancels Game.
