

Omaha Defeats the Lincoln Bunch; Cubs and Pirates Both Win; Low Scores at Flossmoor

SCHIPKE'S HOMER WINS GAME

Skipper puts one over fence in ninth and ends tie. Fitchers in pretty contest.

Sanders and Jones in Battle Royal

Until fatal wallow by Schipke. Captain Frank out of game.

Omaha, 2; Lincoln, 1.

Schipke did it with his little bat. Skipper Bill Schipke hit the ball over the left field fence and won the game.

Warfield Sanders and Schoolmaster Jones engaged in a pretty pitchers' duel as the one wished to see. Both used the same tactics and each was about equally successful until that ninth, when the skipper happened to land on one.

Foxy Fox Stuns Two.

For six innings Sanders did not allow a prohibitionist to make a hit, but kept them all hitting little popups and rollers into the diamond.

Champions Win from Des Moines.

Loosing Tom makes nine errors. SIOUX CITY, July 29.—Bierdorfer and McGreggor pitched a ball game today.

CHIP OFF THE OLD BLOCK

Young Benyon wins first race here. Drives on Grand Circuit.

WALTER W WINS 2:15 PACE

Geers' Entry Breaks Badly, but Finally Settles and Takes Second, Third and Fourth Heats.

DETROIT, Mich., July 29.—James E. Benyon, the 18-year-old son of Ed Benyon, made his debut as a grand circuit driver this afternoon when in the 2:17 trot he piloted Fair Margaret home first in three heats.

Either Benyon was favorite in the 2:17 trot on her Springfield victory, selling 2 to 1 against the other seven. This mare led into the stretch, the first time everybody going wide on account of the soft track next to the fence.
