NEW ESTIMATE OF TH

Number Killed at Barcelona
Riots is Now Placed at Two and Wounded at Two Five Hundred.

LONDON, Aug. 4.—The Daily Telegraph's correspondent, who has just arrived in Barcelona, sends to his paper a dispatch giving a curious picture of the indifference or ignorance the Spanish people evinced throughout his journey from the frontier, even in Madrid, to the events in Barcelona.

"The tranquillity and gaiety of the populace of Madrid," the correspondent says, "seems to me incongruous and absurd. Barcelona is not much loved in the rest of Spain, and the old, deep hatred between Catalonia and Madrid is aroused on every occasion. The cannonades in Barcelona disturbed Madrid about as much as if they had occurred in a foreign country."

Even in approaching Barcelona the correspondent observed few indications of the recent bloody events there. The railways were running and work and amusements were being resumed. Entering Barcelona at night little out of the ordinary was noticeable, except the blackened and burned churches and convents. The streets and cafes were gay, noisy and brilliant. There was nothing to recall the revolt, except an occasional military fanfare.

"Somewhat surprised and disillusioned," the correspondent continues, "I made a tour of observation. Everything surprised me. One seen that the interruption of normal life has been slight. The revolution must have been superficial, for it has not even upset the good humor of the town."

Pretender is Interviewed.

LONDON, Aug. 3.—Don Jaime, the pretender to the Spanish throne, was interviewed here yesterday that he had no intention of interfering in the present crisis of Spain and that his retirement to Frohsdorf in lower Austria, far from the Spanish frontier, was proof of his peaceful purposes.

"The Carlists party is a party of order," said Don Jaime. "I never will take upon myself to bring an entire people into danger for my own ends. Never will I lead Spaniards against Spaniards. Should I return to Spain at the head of an army, it would be only to restore order. This might happen should the revolutionaries drive out King Alfonso, or the welfare of the country require it. The popularity of King Alfonso is declining through no fault of his own, and Queen Victoria is certainly less liked than the king. Spaniards dread foreign influence; Victoria has remained a stranger too long, and the people never will forgive her."

Don Jaime is of the opinion that the war in Morocco was unavoidable, and he fears it will last a long time.

Spain is Tranquil.

MADRID, Aug. 4.—Spain is now reigned throughout Spain, except in certain isolated localities of Catalonia, according to an announcement made early today by the minister of the interior.

A column of troops composed of artillery, cavalry and infantry is today marching on Sabadell, ten miles from Barcelona, where the insurgents are still holding out.

The general strike at Madrid and Bilbao, announced for yesterday, failed owing to the precautionary measures taken by the authorities.

General Marins, the Spanish military commander in Morocco, is awaiting reinforcements. As soon as the necessary troops arrive the advanced Spanish positions at Mount Atalayou and Sidlamet will be strengthened preparatory to an advance upon Zeilan, the Spanish objective.

The Red Cross and other organizations are working ceaselessly to care for the sick and wounded both at Melilla and at Spanish ports.

The bank of Spain has contributed $10,000 to the queen's fund.

Moors are Repulsed.

Official dispatches received from Melilla today say that the Moors last night attacked a blockhouse in course of construction. They were repulsed by the Spaniards, who lost one officer killed and fourteen men wounded.

A report received this afternoon from General Marina related a successful Spanish maneuver. The Spanish commander set a trap for the Moors, who were in the foothills of Mount Guruga late yesterday afternoon. While he maneuvered several battalions in front of the Moorish position the battleship Numancia moved down the coast to be in a position to take the enemy in the rear.

The Moors took the bait, moved forward and at once fell under the concentrated fire of the fort and the Numancia. They broke and retreated in disorder, leaving many dead on the field.

New Estimate of Dead.

HENDAYE, Aug. 3.—A copy of El Mondo, a newspaper of Madrid, received here today, places the number of killed at Barcelona during the rioting of last week at 2,000 and the wounded at 3,500.

Some Clearences Shown.

LONDON, Aug. 4.—Telegraphing from Madrid the correspondent of the Times says that the release of Senor Iglesias, editor of the revolutionary El Progreso, and other persons arrested for being implicated in the insurrection, and the sudden relaxing of the censorship, proves that the government is convinced that the trouble is ended. The last members of the riot in Catalonia were stamped out at Sabadell yesterday.

Hinshaw Tells Why He Voted for the Report

Says the President's Bill is Vast Improvement on Both the Payne and Aldrich Bills.

(From a Staff Correspondent.)
WASHINGTON, Aug. 3.—(Special Telegram.)—Representative Hinshaw today made the following statement as to his vote on the tariff conference report:

"The tariff conference report as adopted by the house is a vast improvement over the original house bill. It is, in its main features, revision downward. It should be called the Taft bill. The president won a notable triumph in his fight against the high protectionists. The fight made by the insurgents in both house and senate helped to bring about this result. To have recommended the bill or defeated the conference report would at this stage of the proceedings have been calamitous. The bill as passed reduces the duty on nails, lumber, wood pulp, print paper, oil, coal, hides, leather, harness, sugar, agricultural implements, boots and shoes, varnishes, white lead, iron ore, pig and scrap iron, all structural steels except highly manufactured forms, steel rails and barb wire. The expressed fear that the imposition of a maximum tariff of 35 per cent ad valorem increase over the rates named in the bill will add materially to tariff rates is not well founded. Canada does not impose on pulp wood, wood pulp or lumber any export duty which discriminates against the United States in favor of any other nation. Therefore the maximum rate could not be imposed.

"The president was exceedingly anxious that the conference report be adopted, because he believed it a substantial reduction downward, and that to defeat it would result in continued tariff agitation to the detriment of business and probably to the prevention of any tariff legislation. Some of the opponents of the bill hoped that there would be no bill as they preferred the Dingley rates. It is impossible that all sections of our vast country can ever be fully satisfied with a tariff measure. This is an nearly perfect a measure as can be devised under present conditions."

Senators Gamble and Crawford of South Dakota took breakfast this morning with President Taft and afterwards Senator Crawford declared his intention to vote for the conference report on the tariff bill.

C. J. Dueman of Lomon, S. D., is in Washington to confer with officials of the interior department to urge that Lomon be designated as a registration place when the surplus land of the Cheyenne and Standing Rock Indian reservations are thrown open to white settlement. Mr. Dueman has filed claims of his town for recognition with Secretary Ballinger, accompanying the same with maps and other data to show its accessibility as to railroad facilities and its ability to support a large family and feed large crowds. The department has under advisement the bid of Lomon, as well as other towns contiguous to the reservation soon to be opened to settlement.

Voters Turn Down Tom Johnson Plan

Franchise Ordinance, Backed by His Administration, Beaten at Polls.

CLEVELAND, Aug. 3.—The Schmidt ordinance providing for the granting of a franchise to Herman Schmidt and insuring three cent fares on a part of the city street car lines was defeated in a referendum election here today by a majority of 8,982. The total vote was 50,844 to 34,852. The Schmidt ordinance was fostered by Mayor Tom L. Johnson.

The campaign, which has waged for the last two months has been particularly bitter. Mayor Johnson, municipal officeholders and others held hundreds of tent meetings. A committee of 100 businessmen opposed it. Thousands of people crowded the streets tonight to hear the returns. When the result was announced automobile horns tooted, cowbells were rung, whistles were blown and throngs of people paraded the streets. Mayor Johnson received the returns at his office, guarded by several policemen.

An attempt will now be made to secure the passage of an ordinance for the settlement of the car fight along the line proposed by Federal Judge Taylor. His plan provides for a revaluation of the entire street car property by a committee of unbiased citizens. He would then put into force a 3-cent fare plan, charging one cent for a transfer. In case this plan failed to pay a 4 per cent dividend on the valuation set by the committee, the price of the fare might be raised to seven tickets for 25 cents.

Prior to the passage of the Schmidt ordinance by the city council an attempt was made to pass the Taylor ordinance, but it failed.

BUST OF J. J. HILL UNVEILED

Minnesota day at Seattle Exposition is Celebrated with Ceremony, Governor Being Orator of Occasion.

SEATTLE, Wash., Aug. 3.—"It is time that the west throw off the shackles of the east. If would prevail, no sectional divisions and no sectional strifes; but Minnesota and Washington and the states between them with those to the south of us should arise in their might and claim for themselves that fair share of influence in the halls of congress and in the administration of national affairs to which they are entitled by their status of common sense as well as of political economy."

This was the declaration of Governor John A. Johnson in his address at the Minnesota day celebration at the Seattle exposition today.

"We as an integral part of the American people should cast influence and our votes not only to advance the material interest of our own particular section, but we should be broad enough and big enough to labor for the common good of our country," said the governor.

Hold Balance of Powers.

"We have in the states west of the Mississippi the undoubted balance of power no matter under what name the national administration at Washington exists. In the years that have passed our population and our material wealth have not enjoyed that representation to which they are entitled, and furthermore our leaders have been content to follow in no small measure the leadership of men who represent relatively smaller constituencies and smaller commonwealths."

The speaker declared that the call of the west among other things is the call for patriotism and progress for emancipation from every form of old world and new world caste and privilege from the tyranny of wealth and birth and alike from the dominion of the trust and political machine.

West as Natural Factor.

"Not only in foreign commerce, but in the progress of American shipping, the west is a prime factor in national development," said he incidentally, "fifty years of national folly in the enactment of laws and high protective tariffs have crippled American shipping until over 50 per cent of our Atlantic commerce is carried in foreign bottoms. Notwithstanding the half century of maritime shame, the United States flag floats today over a merchant marine of about 4,000,000 registered steam tonnage, which carries to the markets of the world 300,000,000 tons of American products. But on what waters float the colors of this merchant marine and what freight do these American ships carry? One-half of this vessel tonnage is on the Great Lakes, while the Pacific coast, the Great Lakes and the Mississippi combined boat nearly 20 per cent of the total. And the freight which it carries consists of the great staple products of the west on their way to the great eastern markets—the products of that great army of western yeomen demand no fostering hand of government and ask only for that justice and freedom to which they are entitled by natural right under the guaranty of our constitution and our flag."

Unveil Bust of Hill.

Minnesota celebrated her day at the Alaska-Yukon-Pacific exposition by unveiling a bronze bust of her most distinguished citizen, James J. Hill, the railroad builder. Governor Johnson led the cord that bound the flags of Japan, Great Britain and the United States about the monument.

TAFT WILL VISIT OMAHA

President Will Spend September 20 as Guest of City.

HOMAGE TO KING AK-SAR-BEN

Chief Executive Will Go from Dinner Party to Den and Thence to Special Train at Station—Penfold Gets Word.

President William H. Taft will visit Omaha Monday, September 20, arriving at 4:30 in the afternoon and remaining until 11 o'clock that evening.

This word came to Omaha yesterday in telegrams from Senators Burkett and Brown, who had taken breakfast with the president, and to whom he announced his intention of paying Omaha one more visit. The invitation was originally presented to President Taft last December, when Victor Rosewater, on behalf of the Omaha Commercial club, asked the then president-elect to include Omaha as one of his stopping places in event of his making a western tour this summer. Since then the matter has been placed before the president on several occasions. While in Washington several President C. H. Pickens of AK-Sar-Ben and Colonel Penfold, secretary of the order, personally presented to the president an invitation to visit the city of the king.

Colonel Penfold has been corresponding with the Nebraska senator for several weeks trying to induce the president to come here. He wanted him to spend several hours in Omaha and wanted him to come on a Monday during AK-Sar-Ben carnival week, if possible. For a while it was doubted whether he would be able to stop here at all, but the president finally consented yesterday to give this city several hours of his time on September 20.

On the occasion of his visit here next month the president will be entertained at a dinner and later in the evening will be taken to the den to see many special features that will be arranged for his benefit. From the den the president will be escorted directly to his train which will be in awaiting at the Union station.

Mr. Penfold announced yesterday evening that a special program will soon be arranged for entertaining President Taft. This will be given out later, probably within a week or two.

Foster, was so badly injured that he died soon after. Both men were negro mess hands on the ship.

The warrant charged Williams with manslaughter. Admiral Schroeder said that he did not deny the jurisdiction of the state, but that the government had instituted an inquiry and he preferred to wait until that investigation had been concluded before acting further.

Schaaf Buys Nebraska Central at Auction Sale

Lincoln Man Hopes to Be Able to Reorganize Company and Build the Road.

F. E. Schaaf of Lincoln yesterday bought at auction all the tangible assets of the Omaha & Nebraska Central railroad company, except the unpaid stock subscription list. Mr. Schaaf said he wanted nothing to do with this. He paid, or proposes to pay $100 for the right-of-way, survey-completed grade and other things that go to make up this material property of the defunct company.

T. E. Brady, formerly general counsel for the company, bought the stock subscriptions, having a face value of $5,000 for $115.

The sale was conducted by H. H. Bowes, attorney for C. T. Dickinson, the receiver, on the east steps of the court house. It was the subject of some comment and not a little fun was poked at the proposition. One offer of $50 was made for the tangible property of the company, but this was not taken into consideration.

Mr. Schaaf will wait until the court has passed on the sale and if it is confirmed he will try to put the breath of life anew into the enterprise. The Omaha & Nebraska Central was projected several years ago, and considerable stock was disposed of. Right-of-way along the route from Omaha to Hastings was looked up, several miles was purchased, and about four miles of the road was actually graded. A complete survey of the line is a portion of the assets that has passed to Mr. Schaaf. He hopes to be able to interest eastern capital in the venture, believing that the electric line will be a successful out of Omaha as it is in other parts of the west. He says he has much encouragement from the people he is dealing with. If he can make the proper showing, the reorganization of the company on a sound financial footing is assured. It will be several weeks yet before this can be determined upon.

JEWELERS HEAR PRESIDENT

Archibald Delivers Annual Address to Convention Delegates.

PLEADS FOR FIXED PRICE LIST

Rate Cutting and Fraudulent Advertising Denounced by Pennsylvania — Delegates Seek Open Air When Evening Comes.

"The slogan of the last year has been the fixed selling price. We desire such a fixed price on certain articles of standard makes in silverware, watch movements and gold filled watch cases. This is a weapon which will get our business back in legitimate channels and this convention should go on record in favor of a living profit, fixed selling price."

President J. P. Archibald of the Retail Jewelers' association was vigorously applauded for his remarks yesterday afternoon favoring the standardizing of the jewelry business in the respect indicated and for his denunciation of cutthroat tendencies rampant alike to manufacturer, jobber and retailer.

President Archibald told the assembled jewelers that their association has been growing rapidly. "During the last year," said he, "the states of Texas, Wisconsin, New Jersey, Delaware, Colorado and New York and the District of Columbia came into the fold. The first year we had 575 members, the next 1,780, and now the roll shows 2,500."

Attacks Fraudulent Advertising.

Another part of his address called for action with regard to fraudulent advertising, and the speaker intimated that a good deal of mail order jewelry advertising was of this nature.

His address was followed by five papers given as follows:

"Trials and Tribulations of a Country Jeweler," Senator Henry Zilliken (Jeweler), Wellsburg, W. Va.

"The Retail Jeweler as an Advertiser," R. D. Worell, Missouri.

"The Social Life of the Retail Jeweler," A. F. Jahnke, Richmond, Va.

"The Financial Advantages of Local Jewelry Clubs," John C. Pierick, Springfield, Ill.

"The Value of Horological Education and Horological Laws," T. L. Combs.

This concluded the afternoon session. In the evening a technical address was given in the auditorium of the Rome by C. F. Higginbotham, consulting expert of the South Bend Watch company.

Some of the delegates and their wives were guests at the midweek hop at the Hillyard Hollow club. Others went to Manawa, where the Boat club had been thrown open to them.

Delegates Shed Coats.

President Archibald opened the convention yesterday morning with the following injunction to take things easy:

"The convention will come to order. Delegates may remove their coats and smoke up if they like. The weather is pretty warm and we won't stand much on ceremony."

An invocation was pronounced by Rev. R. Scott Hyde, and then the presiding officer introduced Mayor Dahlgren, who delivered the address of welcome. This was (Continued on Second Page.)

VOTE ON TARIFF BILL TOMORROW

Range Senators Are Not Entirely Satisfied, but Will Favor Conference Report.

LONG STRUGGLE NEARLY OVER

Senators Agree Unanimously to End it Thursday.

CLAPP STILL AN INSURGENT

Minnesota Man Will Oppose Measure to Last.

DOLLIVER COUNTED FOR IT

Town's Senior Senator, it is Said, Will Vote with Republican Majority—Senate Adjourns After Short Session.

WASHINGTON, Aug. 3.—The complete collapse of all important objection to the conference bill was evidenced today when the senate agreed to vote on that measure at 2 o'clock next Thursday.

Half an hour after unanimous consent had been given for the adoption of that course a general disinclination on the part of senators to speak brought an early adjournment until noon tomorrow.

When the senate met today the lack of interest in the proceedings was very evident. This had been caused by an agreement on the part of western senators to vote on the conference report and to correct the hide and leather schedule by means of a concurrent resolution to be acted upon separately.

The form of the concurrent resolution was agreed upon at an informal conference today in Senator Aldrich's committee room.

Change in Leather Schedule.

Instructions are given by this ruling to enrolling clerks of the senate and the house to change the language of the proviso reducing duties on boots and shoes and harness. The change will make dutiable at 10 per cent boots and shoes, the upper leather of which is made wholly or in chief value from the hides or skins of cattle, including calf skins. A similar change will be made in relation to harness, saddles and saddlebags.

The effect of the amendment is to make the reduced duties on boots and shoes and harness and saddlery apply to such articles as are composed of leather from the hides and skins of cattle and calf skins, instead of confining the reductions to articles made from hides, which have hitherto been dutiable. The range of the reduction is greatly increased.

The suggestion for an agreement to vote was made in the senate by Mr. Bailey representing the minority and at once concurred in by the chairman of the finance committee, the Texas senator intimating that there might be considerable debate on the concurrent resolution, but it is not believed that the discussion can be continued many hours.

Cotton Backing Again.

Senator Chamberlain gave notice that he would seek to amend the concurrent resolution by placing cotton bagging on the free list, that article having been placed there by the senate and received by the committee.

Resolutions by Senator Newlands in debate on the conference debate called forth a statement from Mr. Aldrich to the effect that he believed the conference provision giving the president authority to gather information relating to the enforcement of the maximum and minimum clause was broader and would be found to be more effective than contemplative than the provisions originally adopted by the senate. It would be thought authoritative the collection of statistics of cost of production at home and abroad.

Announcing that he could not vote for the conference report Senator Clapp spoke at length in denunciation of the pending measure and Senator McCumber spoke briefly in its support.

Working Insurgents.

Many of the senate leaders are seeking to modify the republican plan against the adoption of the conference reports as small as possible.

President Taft, it is said, has joined in this campaign. Today he invited Senators Borah, Brown and Doolittle and Dolliver to have luncheon with him at the White House. It was rumored about the capitol that all of the senators would be asked to vote for the conference report.

Messrs. Borah and Brown have already decided that they will vote for the report, and it is generally believed Mr. Dooliver will do likewise.

LABOR WAR BECOMES SERIOUS

Trouble Threatens to Engulf Stockholm in Miniature Revolution.

STOCKHOLM, Aug. 3.—A labor war throughout Sweden that is scheduled to begin tomorrow threatens to develop in Stockholm into something approaching a miniature revolution. The trouble will be enormously aggravated by the present general strike and lockout.

The members of the Youngs Socialist party are striving to give the movement a revolutionary character and the government at the same time has taken steps to nip the expected disorders in the bud. The authorities have decided at the first signs of the insurrection to declare Stockholm in a state of siege.

Soldiers are being quartered in different sections of the city and suburbs and the entire standing army of Sweden is ready for eventualities.

King Gustave has summoned the members of Parliament to Stockholm and a special session of the Riksdag is expected.

STRIKERS ASK RIGHT TO DRILL

Demand that Mayor Allow Them to Prepare to Resist Attacks of Police.

PITTSBURG, Pa., Aug. 3.—A strike of street laborers which has been of small proportions for some days has become widespread and gangs of the men are parading the streets. Steps, it is said, have been taken to form an organization among the 15,000 Italian workmen of Allegheny county.

A letter received by Mayor William Magee today demands that the strikers be allowed to drill preparatory to resisting police attacks.
