

THE OMAHA DAILY BEE
FOUNDED BY EDWARD ROSEWATER
VICTOR ROSEWATER, EDITOR
Entered at Omaha postoffice as second-class matter.

TERMS OF SUBSCRIPTION
Daily Bee (without Sunday) one year, $4.00
Daily Bee and Sunday, one year, $5.00
DELIVERED BY CARRIER.

OFFICES
Omaha—The Bee Building
South Omaha—Twenty-fourth and N.

STATEMENT OF CIRCULATION
For the week ending July 31, 1909, as follows:
1. Total number of copies... 1,899,000

Table with 2 columns: Circulation category and Amount. Includes rows for Total, Return copies, and Daily Average.

Subscribers leaving the city temporarily should have The Bee mailed to them. Address will be changed as requested.

Put it down that Taft day in Omaha will be a big day. The annexation microbe is working around the edges of Omaha slowly but surely.

Rubber prices are said to be advancing by leaps and bounds. Naturally that is the way rubber jumps.

Congressman Norris of Nebraska evidently expects no joy rides in Speaker Cannon's new automobile.

It is announced that King Edward has discarded the high hat, from which we infer that the lid is off in Great Britain.

Anyway, "Bill" Oldham didn't treat the Dahmianites right when he failed to start after they had staked their money on him for place.

A Kansas farm bears the signature, "No hunting aloud." Hunters should take notice and put the new Maxim silencers on their guns.

Who says there is such a thing as retributive justice when lightning kills a base ball catcher and never touches the umpire standing right behind him.

No jokers have yet been discovered in the Wright aeroplane, but then congress and the newspaper correspondents have been too busy with the tariff.

The World-Herald will not hesitate when the occasion demands it to call a spade a spade—World-Herald.

Why wait or hesitate? Are there no democratic spades?

Gloucester, Mass., has been celebrating its 286th birthday. If Gloucester had come west to grow up with the country it might be bigger than it is.

Mrs. Besant asserts that a ghost objected because she sat on it while riding in a cab. After a survey of Mrs. Besant's photo we do not blame the ghost.

When President Taft starts on his summer vacation he should send a message of sympathy to King Alfonso, who has something worse than congress on his hands.

The republic of Colombia has a new president, but until it is discovered how much the former president, who retired to Europe, left in the treasury congratulations will be withheld.

The comet may be forgiven for the hot, muggy weather, but if it is responsible for the many violent crimes committed in various parts of the country of late it is going entirely too far.

The prince of Saxe-Weimar-Eisenach has been fired out of his job because he spent all his money and is a bankrupt. What's the matter with marrying him off to an American heiress?

Koog Edward reminded the czar that he was looking upon the greatest war feet in the world, but hoped there would never be any occasion for calling it into action. Simply another way of saying, "Speak softly, but carry a big stick."

When ex-President Roosevelt and the magazine for which he is writing - at $1 a word to settle up there is room for argument over the question whether did-dig is one word or two.

A wise copy reader could save his salary by a free use of the hyphen.

The Tariff Law. The tariff bill has finally passed the legislative stage and become law by the approving signature of the president.

At least they have been a dead letter. The only quality they have had to recommend them is the fact that they were too old to work.

Helping Workers to Homes. Mrs. Russell Sage is preparing a new departure in helping working people of small incomes to secure homes of their own and also to rent at a reasonable figure.

Members of the Indianapolis city council were mobbed because of an alleged attempt to pack the primary boards with partisans of a nonpartisan combine.

Mayor Buse of Chicago has undertaken to promote his private secretary to the vacancy in the office of chief of police.

Because a Massachusetts woman in her will left $10,000 to care for her two dogs and $3,000 for her husband she should not be misjudged.

Among the last places in the world in which one would expect a great strike, particularly of a semi-political nature, would be Sweden.

Gas Bag Agitation. St. Louis Globe-Democrat. The effect of the Zeppelin balloon on a part of English journalism only proves that even a gasbag can frighten anybody who was born to be scared.

Biggest Fish Get Away. Brooklyn Eagle. Four small boys were arrested the other day for gambling within the very shadow of the Stock exchange.

Something of a Fixture. New York Post. Some optimists conclude that Bryan will not again run for the presidency, as he declares that he means to be "a fixture in Nebraska."

His Shots Count. Cleveland Leader. Theodore Roosevelt is beginning to take part in a good many human activities in Africa, aside from hunting.

Revised Enumeration. Washington Star. John D. Rockefeller says the American people eat too much.

Mistaken Enterprise. Baltimore American. A man from the west went lately to New York and tried to sell a gold brick there.

Further Tests Desirable. New York Tribune. The apparent success of the government's experiments with inoculation against typhoid fever, made on three soldiers at Omaha, will encourage others to adopt the same measure of protection.

Worthy of the Honor. Army and Navy Journal. The menu card of the dinner given at Omaha, Nebraska, to the honor of the city had an excellent likeness of General Charles Frederick Manderson.

Officers of the newly organized corporations subject to the freshly imposed occupation tax are reticent as to what they will do about paying up.

Acton Nat Goodwin was arrested for scorching while hurrying to meet his wife in an automobile. The report should say whether he was in a hurry to beat out another divorce suit or merely in a hurry to keep an engagement.

Major Buse of Chicago has undertaken to promote his private secretary to the vacancy in the office of chief of police.

Because a Massachusetts woman in her will left $10,000 to care for her two dogs and $3,000 for her husband she should not be misjudged.

Among the last places in the world in which one would expect a great strike, particularly of a semi-political nature, would be Sweden.

Gas Bag Agitation. St. Louis Globe-Democrat. The effect of the Zeppelin balloon on a part of English journalism only proves that even a gasbag can frighten anybody who was born to be scared.

Biggest Fish Get Away. Brooklyn Eagle. Four small boys were arrested the other day for gambling within the very shadow of the Stock exchange.

Something of a Fixture. New York Post. Some optimists conclude that Bryan will not again run for the presidency, as he declares that he means to be "a fixture in Nebraska."

His Shots Count. Cleveland Leader. Theodore Roosevelt is beginning to take part in a good many human activities in Africa, aside from hunting.

Revised Enumeration. Washington Star. John D. Rockefeller says the American people eat too much.

Mistaken Enterprise. Baltimore American. A man from the west went lately to New York and tried to sell a gold brick there.

Further Tests Desirable. New York Tribune. The apparent success of the government's experiments with inoculation against typhoid fever, made on three soldiers at Omaha, will encourage others to adopt the same measure of protection.

Worthy of the Honor. Army and Navy Journal. The menu card of the dinner given at Omaha, Nebraska, to the honor of the city had an excellent likeness of General Charles Frederick Manderson.

Population Turning from the Cities to the Land. E. B. Powell in Outing Magazine. The country is gaining on the city steadily, but not fast enough.

Security in Travel. New York World. Chief Stone of the Brotherhood of Locomotive Engineers has written in the World Today Magazine.

A Mild Protest. New York World. If the Indian had to go from the cent piece to the other end of an appropriation called the laboring class.

Officers of the newly organized corporations subject to the freshly imposed occupation tax are reticent as to what they will do about paying up.

Acton Nat Goodwin was arrested for scorching while hurrying to meet his wife in an automobile. The report should say whether he was in a hurry to beat out another divorce suit or merely in a hurry to keep an engagement.

Major Buse of Chicago has undertaken to promote his private secretary to the vacancy in the office of chief of police.

Because a Massachusetts woman in her will left $10,000 to care for her two dogs and $3,000 for her husband she should not be misjudged.

Among the last places in the world in which one would expect a great strike, particularly of a semi-political nature, would be Sweden.

Gas Bag Agitation. St. Louis Globe-Democrat. The effect of the Zeppelin balloon on a part of English journalism only proves that even a gasbag can frighten anybody who was born to be scared.

Biggest Fish Get Away. Brooklyn Eagle. Four small boys were arrested the other day for gambling within the very shadow of the Stock exchange.

Something of a Fixture. New York Post. Some optimists conclude that Bryan will not again run for the presidency, as he declares that he means to be "a fixture in Nebraska."

His Shots Count. Cleveland Leader. Theodore Roosevelt is beginning to take part in a good many human activities in Africa, aside from hunting.

Revised Enumeration. Washington Star. John D. Rockefeller says the American people eat too much.

Mistaken Enterprise. Baltimore American. A man from the west went lately to New York and tried to sell a gold brick there.

Further Tests Desirable. New York Tribune. The apparent success of the government's experiments with inoculation against typhoid fever, made on three soldiers at Omaha, will encourage others to adopt the same measure of protection.

Worthy of the Honor. Army and Navy Journal. The menu card of the dinner given at Omaha, Nebraska, to the honor of the city had an excellent likeness of General Charles Frederick Manderson.

Population Turning from the Cities to the Land. E. B. Powell in Outing Magazine. The country is gaining on the city steadily, but not fast enough.

Security in Travel. New York World. Chief Stone of the Brotherhood of Locomotive Engineers has written in the World Today Magazine.

A Mild Protest. New York World. If the Indian had to go from the cent piece to the other end of an appropriation called the laboring class.

Security in Travel. New York World. Chief Stone of the Brotherhood of Locomotive Engineers has written in the World Today Magazine.

Won't Be Put Out. Deacon Hemphill Offers a Few Prayerful Remarks for the Benefit of Colonel Bryan and Others.

Charleston News and Courier (dem.). In the last number of The Commonwealth, which William J. Bryan, editor and proprietor, he seeks to asperse the democracy of the News and Courier.

Officers of the newly organized corporations subject to the freshly imposed occupation tax are reticent as to what they will do about paying up.

Acton Nat Goodwin was arrested for scorching while hurrying to meet his wife in an automobile. The report should say whether he was in a hurry to beat out another divorce suit or merely in a hurry to keep an engagement.

Major Buse of Chicago has undertaken to promote his private secretary to the vacancy in the office of chief of police.

Because a Massachusetts woman in her will left $10,000 to care for her two dogs and $3,000 for her husband she should not be misjudged.

Among the last places in the world in which one would expect a great strike, particularly of a semi-political nature, would be Sweden.

Gas Bag Agitation. St. Louis Globe-Democrat. The effect of the Zeppelin balloon on a part of English journalism only proves that even a gasbag can frighten anybody who was born to be scared.

Biggest Fish Get Away. Brooklyn Eagle. Four small boys were arrested the other day for gambling within the very shadow of the Stock exchange.

Something of a Fixture. New York Post. Some optimists conclude that Bryan will not again run for the presidency, as he declares that he means to be "a fixture in Nebraska."

His Shots Count. Cleveland Leader. Theodore Roosevelt is beginning to take part in a good many human activities in Africa, aside from hunting.

Revised Enumeration. Washington Star. John D. Rockefeller says the American people eat too much.

Mistaken Enterprise. Baltimore American. A man from the west went lately to New York and tried to sell a gold brick there.

Further Tests Desirable. New York Tribune. The apparent success of the government's experiments with inoculation against typhoid fever, made on three soldiers at Omaha, will encourage others to adopt the same measure of protection.

Worthy of the Honor. Army and Navy Journal. The menu card of the dinner given at Omaha, Nebraska, to the honor of the city had an excellent likeness of General Charles Frederick Manderson.

Population Turning from the Cities to the Land. E. B. Powell in Outing Magazine. The country is gaining on the city steadily, but not fast enough.

Have No Print. Our product and reputation are the best advertisement we can offer.

A. I. Root, Inc., 1210-1212 Howard St., Omaha.

LAW AS AN EXACT SCIENCE. TRIFLES LIGHT AS AIR.

Fictitious Resting on the Absurdities of Legal Assumptions. Kansas City Star.

A court trial in progress was a suit for damages for personal injuries. The lawyer for the plaintiff took from a satchel a glass jar containing a segment of bone that had been removed from his client's injured arm.

Lawyers rest all such fictitious on the absurdities of all legal assumptions, that the law and its administration are an exact science. They would have the vital, flexible thing which the law must be, if it is in accord with life, ossified into algebraic formulas.

Considerable New Business Coming to Artillerists. Philadelphia Record.

Wright made over forty-two miles an hour. Zeppelin's latest voyage was much longer, but at the leisurely gait of twenty-one miles an hour.

PERSONAL NOTES. The New York Hotel Men's association has contributed $100,000 to the Hudson celebration fund.

Wanted Her Letter Published. Minneapolis, Minn.—"I was a great sufferer from female troubles which caused a weakness and broken down condition of the system."

For Benefit of Women who Suffer from Female Ills. Minneapolis, Minn.—"I was a great sufferer from female troubles which caused a weakness and broken down condition of the system."

Wanted Her Letter Published. Minneapolis, Minn.—"I was a great sufferer from female troubles which caused a weakness and broken down condition of the system."

For Benefit of Women who Suffer from Female Ills. Minneapolis, Minn.—"I was a great sufferer from female troubles which caused a weakness and broken down condition of the system."

Wanted Her Letter Published. Minneapolis, Minn.—"I was a great sufferer from female troubles which caused a weakness and broken down condition of the system."

For Benefit of Women who Suffer from Female Ills. Minneapolis, Minn.—"I was a great sufferer from female troubles which caused a weakness and broken down condition of the system."

Wanted Her Letter Published. Minneapolis, Minn.—"I was a great sufferer from female troubles which caused a weakness and broken down condition of the system."

For Benefit of Women who Suffer from Female Ills. Minneapolis, Minn.—"I was a great sufferer from female troubles which caused a weakness and broken down condition of the system."