

APPOINT AFTER PRIMARIES

Leslie Says They Will Then Name Man for Kennard's Place.

WISE TO CHOOSE SHORT-TERMER

Want to Avoid Necessity of Another Change—Boss Flynn Says Democrats Are After the Long Term Job Only.

The republican nominee for the unexpired term of county commissioner from the First district to fill the vacancy caused by the death of M. J. Kennard, will doubtless be appointed to fill out the term between the time of the primary and election day next November.

This is the opinion of County Judge Leslie, one of the three officials empowered to make the appointment. The other two appointing officials are County Clerk Haverly and County Treasurer Furry.

The three officials are republicans and therefore the appointee will be a republican, especially because the late incumbent of the office was a republican. Judge Leslie believes it would be the wise thing to appoint the nominee for the short term so as not to necessitate another change after election for the two months intervening before the regularly elected officials go into office in January of next year.

The democrats have no candidate for the short commissioner term and Tom Flynn, boss of the party locally, says that his party does not expect to secure the appointment from a democrat and, further, will not ask for it.

"I have not talked to Mr. Haverly or Mr. Furry about the matter said Judge Leslie, but since it has gone as long as it has I think we will postpone the appointment another week until the primaries are held. It is then more probable that the republican nominee will be appointed. We would not think of appointing one of the candidates for the long term, as that would show partiality. Neither do I think it advisable to appoint a man not a candidate for the short term for the reason that he would just about get accustomed to the office and be in a position to give the county valuable service when the man elected in November would displace him."

County Clerk Haverly and County Treasurer Furry declined to express themselves as to the probable appointee.

"We are after the long term offices and will not bother with this short term," said Boss Flynn. "It would take as much energy to elect a man for the two months of the short term as to elect him for the three years of the long term, and the game is not worth the candle."

John Grant and N. P. Dodge, Jr., are the republican candidates for the short commissioner term, with Grant picked for the lead.

JUDGE TROUP DENIES PLEA TO RESTORE DINUZZO LICENSE

Rejects Application to Set Aside Order of Revocation Till Supreme Court Acts.

The application of Frank Dinuzzo's attorneys to have the revoking of his license set aside until an appeal can be heard was denied by Judge Troup.

The request was made on the ground that the action of the Board of Fire and Police Commissioners was contrary to the state constitution in punishing a man before an appeal could be heard. A supersedeas was asked overruling the board and Mr. Giller cited the case of H. C. Rann, a saloon keeper whose license was revoked in 1908 for selling on Sunday. In that case a supersedeas was granted and the saloonkeeper was allowed to continue in his business until the appeal could be heard. Judge Troup declined to follow the precedent.

A motion for a new trial has been filed in the criminal case against Dinuzzo. Although he pleaded guilty, his attorneys assert in the motion that the facts which he admitted do not properly constitute an offense under the law and for that reason hold the court in error.

The papers for the appeal to the supreme court on this case were to be filed Friday, and as it will be advanced out of its turn because of its urgent nature it may get a hearing in October.

Nix on the Car With Thirteen Men Friday, 13th

Such a Combination is Too Much for This Drummer to Tackle.

Would he ride on a street car with eleven passengers, a conductor and a motorman on Friday the thirteenth? Oh, no; not this traveling man. He would rather walk than ride under those circumstances.

It was at the corner of Twenty-fourth and Dodge streets that he boarded a Harney car. His two sample grips he dropped on the rear platform and kicked them up against the back of the car. From his pocket he drew forth a morning paper and leaned against the rail to read. About the first thing his eyes lit on was the date line, "Friday, August 13."

"Gee, this is the thirteenth," he ejaculated with a glance at the conductor. "You bet it is," replied the fare collector, who had been keeping track of the passengers who boarded the car, "and you make the thirteenth person on this car."

"What?" This in the most astonished tone. "Well, here's where your 'Uncle Billy' gets off this car. I don't think I'm superstitious, but I don't want to ride with anything that has thirteen around it. Just stop the car."

By that time Twentieth and Dodge was reached and the traveling man climbed off with both his grips. Just as he went to cross the street to take a Dodge car for the rest of his journey a big automobile, whose driver had not seen the drummer, whizzed by and barely missed hitting one of his grips. As the drummer glanced around to look at the car he observed its number. It was 1248.

"This surely seems to be my fatal day," he remarked to a shortee who was on the curb waiting for a car. "I just feel that I'm going to be bothered all day by this strange combination of Friday and thirteen. I kind of wish I hadn't started out on my trip today. Bet you I don't repeat this stunt. No more of it for little Willie."

A Dodge car, crowded full, came along then and the drummer had to stand on the steps of the rear platform and place his knees against his grips to keep them from falling off the car.

ENGLISH DOES NOT KNOW THAT BUCKET SHOPS EXIST

"Some One Ought to Bring Matter to Our Office and Let us Prosecute," He Says.

The sudden demise of several "bucket shop" concerns has brought attention to the fact that contrary to the law this kind of speculation is going on in Omaha.

"I understand there is some sort of a statute against what they call 'bucket shops,'" says County Attorney English. "If they exist it seems strange that some one does not start a prosecution against them. If evidence could be collected and a complaint filed I believe some of them could be driven out."

"I have no official knowledge that they are operating. Some one of their victims ought to bring it into my office and ask us to proceed against them. They ought to be brought to trial and punished like other breakers of the law."

BIG BARBECUE FOR EAGLES

Real Old Southern Feast is Planned for Delegates to the Convention.

Loaves and fishes, with willow twigs for forks for toothpicks, will be the features of a caiffish bake on a mammoth scale, to be brought off on one day during the Eagles' convention in September.

A noted chef has been secured to handle a big barbecue at Cut-Off lake, which will include oxen and sheep, with all proper accompaniments, as well as several thousand caiffish served redhot on willow twigs.

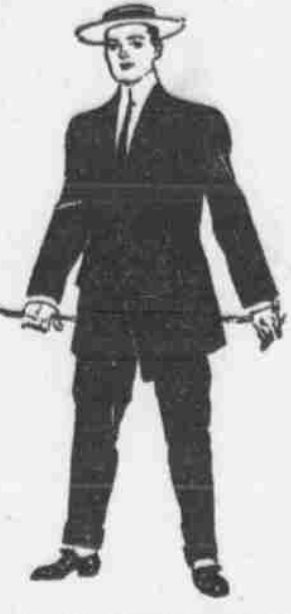

Chairman W. J. Jardine of the entertainment committee, with the assistance of George F. West, will have the blessing of this unique stunt that they have planned. A real barbecue, in true southern style, is always a winner with picnicers of all ages, and it is planned to make this Eagle barbecue memorable in local annals. A side feature, not yet fully developed, is a series of fish stories by noted anglers from many parts of the country.
