The policy of this store has been to dispose of all merchandise purchased for one season, at its close.

To accomplish our purpose we are making still greater sacrifices each day. All odd lots, all broken lines and discontinued patterns together with special purchases made for this month of August will be offered on sale for the following eight shopping days at specially reduced prices. Space doesn't permit detailed descriptions. We cannot say much about each item, but the reductions in price speak for themselves. Sale is in force in every department from the basement to the sixth floor, inclusive.
