We appeal for good business methods in advertising-such as you apply outside. Employ salesmen-in-print on just the same basis as you employ salesmen-in-person.

Accept no unproved boasts. Sign no contracts. Put it up to the men to make good. That is the only way to place men on their mettle-to keep them at constant white heat. Cling to them as long as no other men can outsell them. But always leave room to give Advertising has not been largely done on that basis.

The contract was blindly made-made before the agent had started to show results.

Then, if the agent fell down, the advertiser found himself tied to a failure. There was nothing to do but quit. We have abandoned contracts.

No client of ours binds himself to remain with us. None states how much he will spend. We abide by results. If any agent can prove the power to outsell

But we urge the demanding of actual proofs. Any agent who can outsell another can prove it beyond any question.
