KING CHASED BY THE UMPIRE

Sings in Game Just Long Enough to Make a Home Run-Reeley Hit Hard, but Has Gilt-Edged

WICHITA, Aug. 25.-Young Mr. Potts St. Lopis. wen today's game for Omaha with a pinch Boston dewn and two strikes on the batter with men on second and third and the scored both, making the count 5 to 2 as it remained for the balance of the game. Brennan had the better of the pitching except in that inning, when he silowed the opposition to bunch three singles on him, but Keeley received the better support. Both teams played snappy ball and fought hard every inch of the way. There was much wrappilis and the star and the star and took undisposed the better support. Both teams played snappy ball and fought hard every inch of the way. There was much wrangling with the umpire; Hughes and King were chased carly in the game for kicking on decisions. Omaha cerror.

Gagnier was given first in the sixth in the sixth in any way in the scoring. In the third inning Barry game for kicking on decisions. Omaha scored in the first, when King hit the Scored in the first, when King hit the ball over the fence. Two more came in gave Denver a run in the sixth. Two hits the third on two base hits by Fox and its four runs in the eighth. Score: Fisher, and Fedor's error. Singles by Welch, Pendry and Potts; with a stolen when Weaver hit and was forced at second, Brennan reaching first on the play. Fedor walked and Middleton singled, filling the bases. to qualify in one or the other of the flights. There were three flights of thirty-two each and first ninety-six starters, so that each man was able to get a place.

Libdeau, Gaines, Foye and Sprague Abbott are looked upon as the strong contest are for the big prime event. W. H. Chambers is playing a strong game. The first pair was away at 7:30 and after that the first tee had players waiting for their chance to get away until it o'clock.

The first pair was away at 7:30 and after Miller park course with a borrowed set of clubs, made a 80 on the outside and then braced up and made the inside in 44. The course was in splendid condition, alplayers will qualify for one or the other of the different flights and will be able to play each forenoon and afternoon during the tournament.

Jerome Magee and J. B. Porter were the last away and both declared at starting that they had not seen a club for over a month. Each had been in the mountains for a month.

Sprague Abbott and W. N. Chambers made the best record as a team and the long boy from the Omaha Country club turned in the low score of the morning.
