Mrs. Harriett Ann Yarwood, aged 89 years, died yesterday morning at St. Bernard's hospital from the infirmities attendant on old age. Old Man Escapes from Hospital. Attired only in a bath robe and hatless, but with felt slippers on his sockless feet, an elderly man attracted considerable attention on Broadway yesterday. The old man, who looked as if he had just left his bathroom, succeeded in reaching the corner of Main street without encountering a policeman when Dr. Donald Macrae happened out of his office in the City National bank building.

Dr. Macrae at once recognized the old man as a patient at the Jennie Edmondson hospital. "Here, where are you going?" asked the doctor. "I'm out looking for more clothes," replied the old man.

"Well, just come along with me," insisted Dr. Macrae, as he took the aged wanderer by the arm and gently led him to the elevator entrance and from there to his office. A few minutes later Dr. Macrae took the aged patient back to the hospital in his automobile. It was learned later that the old man had succeeded in leaving the hospital by the porch entrance at the west end of the hospital while the nurses were at dinner.

CONFER ON STREET RAILWAY

Attorney General and City Attorney Seek to Unravel Franchise Puzzle.

CASE IS A COMPLICATED ONE

Expect to Have a Report Ready to Submit to the City Council on Friday, When Another Conference Will Be Held.

That there will be something doing in the near future in the street railway franchise matter was strongly hinted by Attorney General Byers, who spent yesterday in Council Bluffs, part of the time being occupied with a conference with City Solicitor Kimball. Mr. Byers declined to give out any definite information for publication and from Mr. Kimball it was learned that the attorney general planned to come here again next Friday for a further conference on the franchise matter.

The attorney general is presumably satisfied with the moral atmosphere of Council Bluffs, as he stated that his visit yesterday had nothing to do with saloons or law enforcement. He and County Attorney Hess conferred during the afternoon in Mr. Byers' room in the Grand hotel but neither was willing to say what was discussed at the meeting. Mr. Byers said he expected to return early this morning to Des Moines and consequently would not be able to remain over for the reception and banquet to Congressman Smith. "The weather is too hot for enthusiasm anyhow," declared the attorney general.

Mr. Kimball was a little more communicative than the attorney general, although not willing to show his hand in the street car charter matter at this time. He stated, however, that he and Mr. Byers appeared to be of one opinion in the matter and that following the conference to be held next Friday they expected to formulate a report which would be submitted to the city council at an early date for such action as that body deemed advisable.

City Solicitor Kimball said that the question of the rights of the street railway company under the several franchises which have been granted to different corporations was a most intricate one and the work of investigation had necessarily been long and tedious. Mr. Kimball declined to express an opinion as to which of the several charters the Omaha & Council Bluffs Street Railway company professed to be operating the lines in Council Bluffs. He is, however, believed to be of the opinion that the street railway company should be allowed to operate under the charter granted to the Omaha & Council Bluffs Street Railway company, which was a most intricate one and the work of investigation had necessarily been long and tedious. Mr. Kimball declined to express an opinion as to which of the several charters the Omaha & Council Bluffs Street Railway company professed to be operating the lines in Council Bluffs.

DEPENDENT MAN KILLS HIMSELF

Out of Work and ill Health, Life Has No Charm.

Dependent over the loss of his wife, who died last spring, of employment and suffering from disease, Everett E. Sewell committed suicide at an early hour yesterday morning by shooting himself at his home, 3422 Eighth avenue.

No one witnessed the shooting. About 9:30 o'clock Sewell's three daughters, who lived with him, were awakened by the report of the shot. They hastened to their home, hastening to the room occupied by their father, and failing to find him there they went into the back yard and there discovered him lying in a pool of blood and a revolver on the ground beside him. Neighbors who had been aroused by the shot and the screams of the frightened girls arrived on the scene and after carrying the unconscious man into the house summoned Dr. T. B. Lacey.

Dr. Lacey, on reaching the house, discovered the dying man and it was apparent that Sewell had but a short while to live. He died shortly after 8 o'clock without regaining consciousness.

Mr. Sewell had been a resident of Council Bluffs for twenty-five years, coming here from Vermont. For a number of years he worked at the freight house at the transfer and more recently at the Transmississippi elevator at the transfer. He had been out of employment for about two months, owing to ill health. He is survived by four daughters, Mrs. Fred Norman, living at 1529 Fifth avenue; Grace, Ruth and Ethel Sewell. The three unmarried daughters lived with their father.

COURTLAND BEACH LITIGATION

Trustees Seek to Have Receiver Clark Ousted.

Another chapter in the litigation over the management of the Courtland Beach resort was begun yesterday and a second attempt will be made by Trustees Thomas and Co. to oust Clark of his position as receiver. The Courtland Beach amusement company yesterday filed an answer to the claim of W. R. Gourley, president of the company and former manager of the resort, on whose application, Clark was appointed receiver by Judge Snyder of the superior court Wednesday.

The company makes a general denial of Gourley's claim, asks that the order appointing Clark receiver be vacated and that Gourley be enjoined from further litigation in the matter, in equity now pending before the court. The court is asked further to reinstate the trustees, Alfred Thomas and W. D. Coad in the management of the resort, of which they have had full charge since about July 1.

In securing the appointment of Clark as receiver, Gourley set up a claim for $2,500 under a note executed to him last May by H. A. LaFisch, secretary of the company and for $145 alleged to be due him for services. In his answer the company asserts that the note held by Gourley is void, because executed by the secretary, who, it is alleged, had no authority to make the note, and because the note was issued, it is alleged for services in promoting the organization of the amusement company.

Superintendent J. H. Beveridge of the city schools announced yesterday that all pupils who desire to take tests for the purpose of making up work either in the high school or grades can take such examination at the high school building on Wednesday, next, commencing at 8 a. m.

The teachers of the high school and principals of the grade schools will be present to assist in conducting the examination. Principal C. E. Reed of the high school will be in the office daily from 9:30 a. m. to 12 m., and from 1:30 to 3 p. m., for consultation. The new school year will open Tuesday, September 7.

WEDDING DAY IS POSTPONED

Prospective Bridegroom and Girl Placed Under Arrest.

The wedding of Anton Peterson of 522 Curtis street in this city, and Miss Dollie Moore of Ottumwa, which was planned for tomorrow, will, from present appearances, have to be postponed, if not entirely abandoned. Peterson, who is 24 years of age, and Miss Moore, who is said by her father to be not yet 18 years old, were taken into custody at an early hour yesterday morning at the Peterson family home.

The spotting of the romance and the arrest of the couple was brought about by the girl's irate father, John M. Moore, who arrived here from Ottumwa shortly after midnight Wednesday, accompanied by Constable J. M. Huffman of that city. Officer Huffman had with him warrants for the arrest of the young man and the girl, for the former on the charge of enticing Miss Moore from her home, and for the latter on the charge of theft of clothing and other articles, belonging to Peterson, from his home town and the other in Sweden, Ottumwa by the girl's father and Constable Huffman.

The members of Peterson's family denied yesterday that he enticed Miss Moore from her home. Miss Moore, however, the man came acquainted over two years ago, when the Peterson family lived in Ottumwa. They have corresponded for the last two years and Peterson, it is said, went to Ottumwa last Sunday at the girl's urgent request and brought her to his home in this city. Active inquiries were made and Peterson's mother and sisters were busy at work getting Miss Moore's trousseau ready. The girl, they declared, was 16 years of age. None of the property which the girl was charged with stealing from her sister was found at the Peterson home.

Evangelical Association in Camp.

WATERLOO, Ia., Aug. 26.—(Special.)—The seventeenth annual conference of the Iowa Evangelical association is being held in the Chautauqua park and great interest and enthusiasm are being shown both in the numbers attending and in the quality of the program which is being presented. A sacred concert preceded the formal opening of the conference. Among the prominent men of the denomination who are present is Rev. H. L. Seager, D. D., of Cleveland, O., editor of one of the leading English churches in the world, and manager of the English literature of the church Sunday schools. On Saturday afternoon he will give his temperance lecture before the Women's Christian Temperance union at the park. Ames Graduates as Farm Managers.

AMES, Ia., Aug. 26.—(Special.)—Notwithstanding the fact that the animal husbandry department of the Iowa State college graduated the largest class in its history this year, every man is now located in an excellent position in the college authorities are anxiously turning requests for men to fill remunerative positions along these lines. A very gratifying feature about the positions filled during the last few years is the fact that 86 per cent of these young men are engaged as managers of farms and ranches. This is a record, as there seems to be no limit to the demand for such men. Several of this year's class started at $1,200 to $1,500, while numbers of last year's class are now drawing in some instances better than $2,000 per year.

GATHERING OF POSTAL MEN

Resolutions Likely to Favor Postal Banks and Parcels Post.

HAS EARMARKS OF SWINDLE

State Interested in Settlement of Estate on Account of Inheritance Tax—Mrs. Reynolds Bound Over.

(From a Staff Correspondent.) DES MOINES, Aug. 26.—(Special Telegram.)—Postmasters of the third and fourth classes assembled in Des Moines today for their annual convention. They probably will pass resolutions favoring the parcels post, postal savings banks and bonding of postal employes by the government. Nothing was done today aside from the address of the president. The resolutions, which have been drawn, will be adopted tomorrow. Senator Cummins and Congressman Hull will attend.

Looks Like Fraud. Though it is admitted that the state treasurer's office that what looks like fraud in the settling of an estate has been uncovered, the names of the persons and the location will not be disclosed. It is learned that in a town in northern Iowa a Swedish man died, leaving but two sisters, one in his home town and the other in Sweden. It is asserted at the funeral the mayor of the town induced the resident sister to sign a paper which asked his appointment as administrator. The farm was appraised at $50,000 and sold at auction. The condition of affairs today affords a most striking exemplification of the slowness with which civilized nations are learning to appreciate the lessons of science.

Dr. Armstrong declared his faith in the progress of chemistry toward solving the problems of life and sex. He found fault with present conditions of society, which, he said, placed no hindrance in the way of the unfit. "Those who presumably are the fittest," he said, "are failing to contribute in proper proportion to the perpetuation of the race. The condition of affairs today affords a most striking exemplification of the slowness with which civilized nations are learning to appreciate the lessons of science.

The problem can compare in importance with that of the future of our race. Not only do we encourage deterioration at the lower end of the scale of intelligence, but we now are, through our system of education, courting failure at the upper end. It has been stated that in the United States of America the higher education of girls has been proved to sterilize them."

Grief Induces Suicide.

Joseph Stuekes, 283 East Fifth street, attempted suicide today at the McBride undertaking parlors because of his grief over the death of his little son, Jon, aged 5, his only child. Bystanders prevented him.

Mrs. Reynolds Bound Over.

Mrs. Nellie Reynolds, an ex-actress, charged with stealing many hundred dollars' worth of diamonds in Des Moines, Omaha and other cities, was bound over to the Polk county grand jury in Justice Ross's court today.

No Relief in Train Service.

No relief is in sight for the people of Burlington and towns south of that on the Burlington thus far from the "misconnections" with the Rock Island at Indianola. The Des Moines Commercial club took the matter up with the railroad company and it got P. B. Eustis of the Burlington into correspondence with John Sebastian of the Rock Island in an effort to get train schedules so arranged that people in the southern part of the state on the Burlington could get to and from Des Moines in the afternoon. It is said that the railroad commission today and in it he says it will be impossible for the Burlington to change its schedule out of Indianola to the college in November. The main line with No. 3 westbound and No. 12 eastbound. The only relief must be in the Rock Island going back to its old schedule on the branch to Indianola.

Engineering Shop.

The contract for the erection of the engineering shop at the State university will be let by C. W. Ennis of Toledo, Ia. Five bids were opened. The Toledo man was lowest with a bid of $15,732.

Divides the State.

The Iowa Corn Growers' association has divided the state into districts for the purpose of the corn exposition to be held at Keosauqua in November. The state is divided into four sections, the two northern tiers of counties being the northern section, the next two tiers the central, and the fifth and sixth tiers the southern section. Each section is divided into three districts making twelve districts in the state. Prizes will be awarded for the best corn grown in a district and finally for the sweepstakes prizes of the state.

In the northern section the counties west of Keosauqua comprise district No. 1, those east of Mitchell and Floyd district No. 2 and those in between district No. 3. In the third and fourth tiers of counties all west of Humboldt and Webster are district No. 4, all east of that line are district No. 5 and those in between, No. 6. In the fifth and sixth tiers those counties west of Green and Dallas are district No. 7, those east of Tara and Powshehek, including Muscatine and Scott are No. 8 and those in between are No. 9. In the southern section, those counties west of Madison, Ringgold and Union are district No. 10, all east of Mahaska, Monroe and Appanoose are No. 11 and those between are No. 11.

A $200 silver cup is to be given for the best bushel of eighty ears and $100 for the best ear to be given for the best five yellow ears.

Sees Danger in Claim of Woman to Man's Sphere

Prof. Armstrong Discusses Social Side of Sex Question at Meeting of Scientists.

WINNIPEG, Manitoba, Aug. 26.—The most disquieting feature of the times is the revolt of women against their womanhood and their claim to be on an equality with men in every way.

This statement was one of the salient features in the address made by Prof. M. E. Armstrong, Ph. D., LL. D., F. R. S., president of the chemical section of the British Association for the Advancement of Science, which began its sessions here today.

Prof. Armstrong expressed regret that what he called the growing tendency toward premature announcement of incidental or alleged scientific discoveries. "We have been living in a time of sensational discovery," he said, "in a period when advertisement is favored and the desire for notoriety rampant. Unhappily that caution which appears to be regarded as a priceless prerogative of the scientific worker in the earlier part of the last century is no longer our recognized watchword."

Dr. Armstrong declared his faith in the progress of chemistry toward solving the problems of life and sex. He found fault with present conditions of society, which, he said, placed no hindrance in the way of the unfit. "Those who presumably are the fittest," he said, "are failing to contribute in proper proportion to the perpetuation of the race. SUTTON BODY NOT EXHUMED FOR HOLY RITES OF CHURCH

Undue Publicity Given by Quartermaster is Reason for Refusing Mother's Request.

WASHINGTON, Aug. 26.—The quartermaster's department of the army decided today to refuse the request of Mrs. James N. Sutton, widow of a lieutenant in the army, to have the body of her son exhumed for the purpose of performing the holy rites of the Catholic church. The body of the young man was buried in the cemetery at Fort Myer, Va., and the mother's request was refused because of the undue publicity given her by the newspapers.

Such was the explanation given her over the telephone, says Mrs. Sutton, who departed for her home in the afternoon, and that the holy rites of the Catholic church might be performed, the ground consecrated and the body returned to its resting place.

All arrangements had been made by Mrs. Sutton and her daughter to proceed to the cemetery yesterday afternoon, it is said. A Catholic priest, empowered by Cardinal Gibbons to consecrate the ground, was to be with the party, as was a civil physician and a surgeon of the medical branch of the army.

It is not believed the refusal to permit the exhumation of the body means that the mother's cherished purpose is never to be gained. Officials of the rank, even the secretary of war himself, may take up the case and extend the desired permission.

Right-of-Way for New Road.

HURON, S. D., Aug. 26.—(Special.)—It is the intention of the state of South Dakota to definitely stand here that the examination of titles to land for the right-of-way for what is termed the Hitchcock and Onida branch of the Chicago & Northwestern railroad will begin about September 1. The proposed line is from Hitchcock, in the northern part of Deade county, to Onida, in the eastern part of Sully county, this being the first road to build into that county. Three hundred thousand ties, together with immense quantities of bridge timber and other line building material, is stored in the yards here for use in the construction of the proposed branch, work upon which will begin soon as the title to right-of-way is secured. The county through which the new road will pass is one of the richest agricultural and stock districts in this portion of the state and is rapidly being peopled with an energetic, enterprising and thrifty class of settlers.
