TRIBUTE TO JUDGE SMITH

Nonpartisan Reception and Banquet Tendered to Congressman.

MANY GREET HIM IN AFTERNOON

Every Seat Taken at Banquet in Grand Hotel in Evening—Speakers All Warmly Entertained His Services.

The citizens of Council Bluffs and many of his constituents from the Ninth Iowa district, paid tribute to Congressman Walter L. Smith by attending the public reception held during the afternoon in Bayliss park and later in the evening, the banquet given in his honor at the grand hotel.

The reception in Bayliss park in the afternoon was strictly a nonpartisan affair, and the speaker was given the opportunity to speak for the people of the district.

Many of the business houses in the immediate vicinity of the park and a number of private residences in that neighborhood displayed flags and decorations in honor of the occasion.

Our city has the reputation of being able to throw aside all party differences, and enter with a sincere spirit into such a celebration as we are enjoying today.

low citizen and congressman has brought honor and credit to our community, and advanced may be becoming a tradition of opportunity to extend to him the right hand of good fellowship.

Turning to Judge Smith, Mr. Wallace is closing said: We come, not as republicans or democrats, but as citizens.

Mr. Wallace then introduced Hon. Horace E. Deemer of Red Oak, judge of the Iowa Supreme court, who from his acquaintance of more than twenty-two years with Judge Smith drew material for an eulogy of the congressman's character as a man, his ability as a lawyer and of his public services, saying in part:

I care not how far Judge Smith may be advanced, but as a citizen, I am proud of him. I care not how far Judge Smith may be advanced, but as a citizen, I am proud of him.

There are many reasons why the people of Council Bluffs should be proud of Judge Smith. In the first place he was born in Council Bluffs and I have no doubt you are proud of it.

I saw him take his place at the bar, I saw him go through the starvation period, before his talents were recognized and he began to make for himself a place in this community.

Many of the business houses in the immediate vicinity of the park and a number of private residences in that neighborhood displayed flags and decorations in honor of the occasion.

Wall of party politics are the sweetest and most fragrant that bloom in the gardens of this world, and we are glad indeed of the opportunity to extend to him the right hand of good fellowship.

At the banquet, which was a delightful informal affair, Hon. Emmet Tierley presided as toastmaster in his usual felicitous manner.

Among the guests from out of town at the banquet were: Judge H. E. Deemer, Red Oak; Hon. L. T. Genung, Glenwood; Hon. John Harriott, Stuart; Judge E. B. Woodruff, Glenwood; Judge W. R. Green, Audubon; Hon. John Y. Stone, Glenwood; Hon. J. P. Conner, Denison; George H. Darrington, Honey Creek; H. H. Huffaker, Sioux City; J. C. Rogers, Adams; J. E. Smith, Stuart; J. G. wish to talk with the man who knows vehicle values

I never was much of a success selling cheap things, so the man who does not, and will not, realize a difference in workmanship, wood, paint, trimming, iron work, etc., will not be astounded at the prices I am quoting during my "Sale of every vehicle in the building."

But the man who fairly drinks in the graceful lines and superb workmanship of a high class vehicle, will go into ecstasies over this selling. He will be pleased as the woman who has just found a $10.00 dress for $4.98 at a bang up bargain sale.

I have a building full of real values in vehicles—but they are high class vehicles, the sort I have always been successful in selling, and the only sort I should continue to sell were I to remain in the vehicle business in place of going deeper into automobiles and repairing.

I am not offering a Stanhope for $25.00, but I am offering a $165.00 Stanhope for $95.00. I am not offering a Runabout for $15.00 but I am offering a $175.00 Runabout for $115.00.
