There has been a long string of moving vehicles today carrying the effects of nany people who are speking residences on ground high enough to avoid any possibility of overflow. This is especially true of he American families, many of whom reside at the down town hotels, situated along the plazas Zaragosa and Hidalgo. Many of these families have removed to remote sections of the city, although the

The first ten persons sending the neatest, correct and artistic answers will be given the above prises. Every person sending a correct answer will be entitled to share in the distribution of cash-value prizes good on our merchandise in the Piano department, amount to $75 each. All correct answers will receive one beautiful art picture.

One of the reasons for this offer is that we have been allowed the amount of money (this amount to be used in this contest) that is usually spent by the manufacturers in their general advertising campaign in magazines and castern periodicals. We also wish to determine the real value of our home newspapers, and we will ask you to use the Desk Number given below, as each newspaper has a different Desk Number; the number you give will tell us in which paper you have seen this advertisement.

Take any number from 3 to 14, inclusive, and place in eight circles (or balloons) and one in the center square so when it is figured horizontally or perpendicularly it will make 27. The same number cannot be used more than twice. All answers must be mailed or brought into our store on of before September 10, 1909. Send your solution on this or a separate sheet, but do not use more than one sheet of paper. Write your name and address plainly. Every person sending an arrwer will be notified by mail. > parade rest and motionless. 'Having fireworks on your person. Get on your clothes." By this time Manley was turning white around his gills and the officer had not said a word. Finally the officer broke the silence; 'Say, have you fellows got one of them white hats for the man on the beat here,' he said. "It was 2 o'clock in the morning and the officer got the hat. "Staying at the hotel to guard the headquarters and five sheep-bells which the Omahans had saved out, Will A. Campbell was asleep at the switch when he heard a key in his door. Awakening suddenly he received an apology from Julius Scelbach, proprietor of the famous hotel, for disturbing him, and saw the owner of the finest hotel in the south disappearing with three of the sheep belis."
