Money Order Division, Which is Showing Increasing Deficit Each Year, Should Be Self-Sustaining.

BEVERLY, Mass., Sept. 1.-Postmaster General Hitchcock had an important conference with President Taft this afternoon regarding the plans he had formulated for cutting down expense in the postal establishment. He told the president that socording to the latest estimates the Postoffice department will show a deficit for the fiscal year ended June 30, last, of more than $20,000,000. This is the largest deficit the postal service ever has known and Mr. Hitchcock informed the president that it was his purpose and his ambition to show a material decrease in the amount every year that he has control of the department. The deficit for the fiscal year ending June 30, 1998, was about $16,006,000. The increase as nearly as can be ascertained was due in part to extensions of the service, to the business depression during the first part of the fiscal year and to cumbersome and expensive methods of handling the mail and in other departments of postal work. The postmaster general has now at work in Washington a commission of some forty Omaha Restaurant Man Dies of Asphyxiation at His Rooming House in New York.

News Wired to Family by Samuel Edgar, Who Knew Him.

Family Not Willing to Admit Death Was by His Own Hand, Since They Have Advice to the Contrary.

This message comes by Associated Press: NEW YORK, Sept. 1.-Tolf Hanson, who until last winter operated two restaurants in Omaha, and who went into bankruptcy there, committed suicide here today by inhaling illuminating gas in a lodging house, Samuel Edgar, a dry goods merchant, said Hanson came here from Omaha in July after he had failed in business.

"He wrote me that he could not stay in Omaha and face his creditors any longer, so he came to New York," said Mr. Edgar Tolf Hanson, for years one of the leading restaurant men of Omaha who falled business early in July, died by inhaling illuminating gas at his rooming house in New York Wednesday morning. The news was transmitted to Sid Swanson, his brother-in-law, in Omaha, in a telegram sent by Samuel Edgar, an old friend of the family in New York.

"Mr. Edgar's telegram did not say it was suicide," said Mr. Swanson, "and we have advices that it was unintentional asphyxiation. We are endeavoring to get all the details." Mr. Swanson has telegraphed to Mr.

Edgar to have the body sent to Omaha for burlal. To his venerable mother, over 80 years of age, and his wife, the message was a severe shock. He had been in New York since July 4, going then, he said, to straighten out his entangled business

The life of Tolf Hanson is the story of an ambitious, sensitive, idealist; a man who aspired to the best, of deep sympathies, generous and honest.

Mr. Hanson was born June 12, 1863, in Sweden. He married Jennie Swanson. They had no children. Coming to the United States in his youth, he found employment in Omaha as a mere workman in a restaurant, and from that he rose, by dint of perseverance and honest toll until he commanded, it is said, something like $160,000 in his own name, and Mills County German bank at Mineola, Ia., this achievement he wrought in the comparatively brief period of loss th grade cafe bearing his name, and in the establishing of the Hanson he thought he

Death in Nine Months. In less than nine months after he opened the beautiful cafe he died. He assumed an undertaking which many friends believed at the time was and which proved to be ure in one of the most impressive cere- too great. He was satisfied only with the mosies known to the Roman Catholic best equipment. He got it, but at an enormous price, as events have shown. The lease on the building which Hanson secured from G. E. Shukert is regarded as a monumental mistake. This lease was to run ten years and called for an Diomede Falconio, apostolic delegate to the annual rental of $10,000. At the end of that period the building and all improvements were to revert to Mr. Shukert. When Hanson took the lease on the build-ng he had to remake the building for the restaurant that he thought Omaha would support. To equip this as he wanted to with the best of restaurant fixtures and the latest designs from the east cost him After fitting up the building and placing in shape for use he had to buy tableware which cost him $1,500. The total expense of getting the cafe ready to open for business cost nearly $175,000. The place never was a paying proposition -there was not a day that the receipts equalled the expenditures. The total receints for the lunch room and the upper floors were less than $1,000 on big days. The average receipts for the lunch room were $200. For the two upper floors the re-
