MULLEN WANTS REHEARING

Tells Supreme Court in a Brief Where it Was Mistaken.

BUILDING BIDS ARE TOO HIGH

Complete Official Returns from the Primary Show Fawcett is Nominated Supreme Judge Over Hamer.

(From a Staff Correspondent.)
LINCOLN, Sept. 1.—(Special.)—Arthur Mullen, state oil inspector, has filed, in the supreme court, his brief in support of his motion for a rehearing in the non-partisan judicial case. The oil inspector, who helped push the bill through the late democratic legislature, argues that the opinion filed by the court does not conform to the memorandum opinion filed some time ago and he holds further that the court did not confine itself to the points raised in the arguments raised by the attorneys in the case. He holds also that the court erred in knocking out the entire law because some parts of it are repugnant to the constitution.

Brands Women as Importers.
Upon learning Tuesday that two women, representing themselves to be Catholic sisters, were soliciting funds under guise of their church's character, Father Bradley, rector of St. Theresa's pro-cathedral, issued a warning against them. The women began to solicit funds from Lincoln merchants Tuesday morning. Father Bradley's notice follows:
The public is warned that persons wearing the garb of sisters and pretending to collect for charitable or religious purposes were taken in on O street between Eighth and Ninth by Officer Lawlor and taken to the station. As no definite charge was lodged against them they were allowed to go upon promise that they leave town.

Bids for State Buildings.
The State Board of Public Lands and Buildings this afternoon opened bids for the construction of two buildings at Beatrice and one at Hastings and rejected all bids because they were too high compared with the appropriations. At Hastings the bids ranged from $20,000 to $28,000, while the appropriation was only $20,000. At Beatrice, where two buildings are to be erected at a cost of $70,000, the bids were for $34,840 to $42,000 for each building.

Two years ago the board let the contract for a larger building at Beatrice than is now contemplated at Hastings for $60,000, but the contractors today said prices of iron and stone are going up so fast that it is impossible to erect the building within the appropriations. New bids will be called for and it is probable at Hastings the board will let a contract for a building which can be completed later.

Inspectors of Hotels.
R. D. McPadden of Hastings has been appointed chief inspector of hotels by Governor Shallenberger. Mr. McPadden will appoint eighteen other traveling men to act with him under the direction of the labor commissioner. He will be paid by the various organizations of the traveling men of the state, though the state made no appropriation for this purpose. The election returns from Deuel county

Compromise Telephone Rate.
Railway Commissioner Cowgill has again demonstrated that he is somewhat of an arbitrator. He went out to Bloomington, where a number of citizens were protesting the rates proposed by the State Railway commission for the Republican Valley Telephone company, and though the telephone people and the citizens interested had worked themselves up into a bad frame of mind, he secured a compromise which provided for an increase to the company on its regular rates and a decrease for the people over the rates proposed by the commission.

More Telephone Stock.
The Plattsmouth Telephone company has received permission from the railway commission to issue stock to the amount of $25,000, in addition to its present stock of $100,000, for the purpose of paying off $25,000 of debt and improving its plants at Weeping Water, Loupville and other places.

Boldenow Cleared of Murder Charge
County Judge Refuses to Hold Man Accused of Killing His Daughter.

CENTER, Neb., Sept. 1.—(Special Telegram.)—H. F. Boldenow, who was arrested near Bloomfield on the charge of murdering his daughter, Ellen, last May, was discharged after the preliminary hearing, which was held here this morning before County Judge Keller. This leaves the case embroiled in as deep a mystery as ever. Boldenow was arrested by an Omaha detective who came out to work on the case after a reward of $500 had been offered by the county board.

Judge Keller after hearing the evidence decided it was not sufficient to justify him in holding Boldenow to the district court. Detective A. J. Adams of Omaha, who caused his arrest, claims to be in possession of the confession of a member of the family, but it was not introduced at the trial. No evidence differing from that introduced at the coroner's inquest was presented.

RAINS GENERAL OVER THE STATE
Will Materially Help Corn and Fall Pastures.
FAIRBURY, Neb., Sept. 1.—(Special Telegram.)—A splendid rain fell throughout this section all afternoon and continues tonight. The precipitation was slow and steady, every bit of the water soaking into the ground. Corn will be benefited and pastures will be revived. The ground will also be in prime shape for fall plowing. This is the first rain of any consequence in four weeks.

ANSLEY, Neb., Sept. 1.—(Special.)—The wind is blowing from the northwest and a slow, gentle rain has been falling for the last two hours with favorable prospects to continue all day. It is the kind of rain needed.

BEATRICE, Neb., Sept. 1.—(Special Telegram.)—A steady rain has been falling here this afternoon. The moisture will save some of the corn and put the ground in fine condition for fall plowing.

Nebraska

were received by the secretary of state this afternoon. This was the last county to report. The official vote of Judge Fawcett is 12,121 and for Judge Hamer 11,134, giving the nomination to Judge Fawcett by 987 votes. The state canvassing board will meet tomorrow to canvass the returns.

Price-Thompson.
In the presence of Governor Shallenberger and most of the other state officers and a large number of relatives and friends Miss Vivian Thompson, eldest daughter of Attorney General and Mrs. W. T. Thompson, was married at 2:30 this afternoon to Mr. Donald Price, chief clerk in the office of the state engineer. The wedding occurred at the home of the attorney general, 230 Garfield street. After the ceremony light refreshments were served and the newly married couple left for a honeymoon trip to California. They will be at home after October 1 on Washington street.

Mrs. Guy Watt.
Mrs. Cora E. Watt, wife of Guy Watt, son of the deputy secretary of state, died this morning at the home of her sister, Mrs. Frey, 1311 South Twenty-seventh street. She leaves a husband and three children, the eldest 18 years. The funeral will be held at Palmira, the home of Guy Watt, tomorrow. Mrs. Watt was 36 years of age and had suffered for more than a year with tuberculosis.

Mail Service at State Fair.
During the state fair, to be held from September 3 to 19, inclusive, Postmaster Sizer has secured authority to furnish special delivery and collection of mail to the state fair grounds. There will be three deliveries and collections made at the grounds daily and the State Fair association will receive and distribute the mail after receipt at the grounds, no any parties desiring to receive mail at the fair grounds during the fair should have same addressed "Care State Fair Grounds," and it will receive prompt and proper attention. This special delivery of mail will be advantageous to the state fair management and the many exhibitors on the grounds who desire to receive their mail on the grounds.

After the Milk Dealers.
State Food Commissioner Maine has sent out his deputies into the byways of the city of Lincoln and today they gathered in thirty-four samples of milk from various milk dealers, and the samples will be tested. Some of the buyers of milk in this city have an idea they are not getting the pure article, hence the activity of the food commissioner.

Object to Lowering Rates.
At Lyons the Home Telephone company concluded to reduce its rates and proposed that the State Railway commission grant the authority. Before the commission got busy, however, the Lyons Independent Telephone company, which has not yet started business, appealed to the commission to permit it to show cause why these rates should not be reduced, so a hearing has been set for September 16.

Bishop Talks Agriculture.
State Superintendent Bishop is one of the judges of the agricultural exhibit at the Iowa State fair, and on Tuesday he addressed the boys' and girls' agricultural clubs, which are organized along the lines of the Nebraska club.

Rebate on Car of Freight.
Henry Karaspek, through the State Railway commission, secured a rebate, or a come-back, from the Burlington railroad of $1, which was the amount he alleged had been overcharged him. Karaspek, who had been charged a grain rate for a carload of immigrants' goods, which consisted partly of grain and feedstuff. Such goods take a lower rate than the grain rate.

Check on Automobile Drivers.
Fremont Council Considers Restrictive Ordinance.
FREMONT, Neb., Sept. 1.—(Special.)—A stringent automobile ordinance was given a first reading and will undoubtedly pass. It is modeled after the Lincoln ordinance, requires cars turning corners to keep to the proper side of the street, limits speed to ten miles an hour and also requires a signal to be given by whistle or horn at corners and before passing another car or team. The more conservative of the car owners here are in favor of the ordinance. There have been a great many complaints against reckless automobile driving here this season, but no arrests have been made. The ordinance will be strictly enforced and no favors shown.

Greek Laborer Slabbed.
EDGAR, Neb., Sept. 1.—A fight was started last evening between two Greek laborers on the Grand Island section here. In the course of the quarrel, one struck the other on the head with a heavy dinner pail, cutting a deep gash over the forehead.

City National Bank Building Company Files Incorporation Articles—Lincoln Man Drops Dead.

(From a Staff Correspondent.)
LINCOLN, Neb., Sept. 1.—(Special Telegram.)—The City National Bank Building company, organized to construct the new bank building in Omaha, has filed articles of incorporation with the secretary of state. The company is incorporated for $1,500,000, the stock consisting of equal amounts of preferred and common stock. The preferred stock, if it is provided, shall bear 7 per cent interest. The incorporators are John R. Webster, J. E. Baum, C. E.

Grover, J. A. Sunderland, D. A. Baum, I. E. George, J. F. Flack, A. J. Beaton, C. E. Smith, Isaac T. Cook and A. L. Shultz. Harry Fletcher, employed by Jacob North & Co., printers, walked into the office of the city engineer this morning and dropped dead. The elevator was not running and it is supposed the effort of climbing the stairs brought on an attack of heart disease.

Nebraska News Notes.
PLATTSMOUTH—Leo J. Mayfield has purchased the Louisville Courier and will continue its publication.
PLATTSMOUTH—While Albert Woltsch, a Cass county farmer, was using a hay loader attached to a wagon, it caught fire. The team, the loader and the front wheels of the wagon were saved, but the rear wheels, the rack and the load of hay were very soon reduced to ashes.
PLATTSMOUTH—J. M. Jensen, a Cass county stock dealer, shipped a carload of stock to South Omaha recently and failed to return home, which suggested a possibility that he had met with foul play. A search has been made by his friends and the police, but at the present time no trace of the missing man has been found. His financial condition was supposed to be good, but an investigation of his affairs developed the fact, it is said, that he is owing several bills.
