

THE OMAHA SUNDAY BEE

BIG TASK FOR 'KING' COLE

Has Only Three Weeks to Train Team for Gophers.

MUST DO BETTER THAN IN 1908

Corinthians, with Many Veterans, Failed to Get Into Form Early Enough and Coach Has Profited by That.

Two weeks from Tuesday will see the Cornhusker foot ball warriors at practice on the new Nebraska field in preparation for one of the most promising seasons they have faced since the days of good old 'Bumpy' Booth...

Here is just what 'King' Cole has to do: With practice beginning on September 21, he will have just twenty-six days, Sundays included, to get his men in shape for the hardest game on the Nebraska schedule...

South Dakota and Knox. If the Cornhuskers show up no better in the South Dakota and Knox games than they did in the first two games of last season...

The country is getting rather tired of this T. Cobb nuisance. And the first thing the smart young man from Georgia knows is that he will have an opportunity of leading the National game...

President O'Neill and the team owners of the Western league are about to do a handsome thing by the widow of Frank G. Seale in playing benefit games for her at Omaha, Sioux City and Des Moines...

Task for Three Weeks. If the Cornhuskers last season with that bunch of veterans could not get into shape within six weeks to meet the Gophers...

'King' Cole, of course, realizes what he is up against, and he will start in on the jump to put his men in the best shape possible...

At Lincoln 'King' Cole will probably have a lighter team to work with than was the case last fall. Three of our line men have been lost...

Never in the history of organized baseball has as many drafts been made by major league clubs as this year.

INDIANS DON THEIR WAR PAINT. Foot Ball Season Will Open in Two Weeks at Carlisle.

NEW YORK, Sept. 4.—Two weeks from today the foot ball season will be opened in the first lineup of the Carlisle Indian team against the East End Athletic club of Steulton, Pa.

ENGLAND WAITING FOR PACKY. CHICAGO, Sept. 4.—According to reports from London, English sportsmen will be the opportunity of seeing Packy McFarland, the local light-weight, in action.

DETROIT does not look any more like a world beater this year than it did in 1907. The Detroit team has been chosen because of faculty wishes and an unusually long spring practice...

Never in the history of organized baseball has as many drafts been made by major league clubs as this year.

KANE BEST OMAHA BATTER

Jumps Into Lead by Terrific Onslaught on Western Trip.

FISHER AND KING COME NEXT

Miller of Pueblo Continues to Lead the Regulars of the League, with Old Babe Towne Close.

Jim Kane, by his terrific onslaught on the last western trip, has jumped into the lead of Omaha batters. He, Fisher and King, in the order named, are the three Omaha .300 hitters now. Welch is down to .21.

GRIDIRON BATTLES AT ITHACA. Practice Season Will Soon Open at Cornell.

ITHACA, N. Y., Sept. 4.—With the approach of the foot ball season and the opening of the college year at Cornell university, the coaches and managers of the Cornellians are already beginning to lay plans for the foot ball campaign.

Among the men who have not come back since the new system was inaugurated, but who have announced that they will be at the field this fall is Bill Sheppard, '98, who was a crack halfback in his day.

It is announced that Henry Schoelkopf, jr., will be back to coach and hopes to spend some time in Ithaca. Schoelkopf is remembered for his brilliancy as a half-back.

Coach John G. Orth of the Hawkeye team hopes to have his men back to the city with two weeks from today.
