New Member of Law Faculty.

IOWA CITY, Ia., Sept. 4.—(Special)—Mayor Ralph Otto of Iowa City is the newest addition to the faculty of the State University Law College. Mr. Otto has just been chosen by the state board of education to take the major part of the work formerly taught by Prof. Lawrence M. Byers who died early in the summer in London. Mr. Otto will not give up his duties as chief official of Iowa City but will continue to wield the gavel as well as the rod.

Mr. Otto was born and reared in Iowa City and is a graduate of both the college of liberal arts and of law at the university of the latter in 1908. Four years since that time he spent as court reporter in the Johnson-Lewis district under Judge Byington. He was elected mayor last spring on the democratic ticket.

rective, a circus follower and grafter in the city doing the Harman & Bailey show. Thursday managed to relieve a number of persons of small sums. His plan was to threaten minor offenders, and if they refused to give up their money, he would then permit them to go for a small sum. He displayed a star about his person and closely resembled the average Creston cop. Late in the evening, however, he fell by the wayside and was arrested. The city was also rather liberally infested with pickpockets and a number were robbed.

ERICKSON MOVES TO SEATTLE

Crack Jumper May Change Residence to the Coast.

SEATTLE, Wash., Sept. 4.—It was rumored in local athletic circles that Egon Erickson, the crack New York high jumper, who finished so prominently in the annual track and field Amateur Athletic union championships held here a short time ago, will become a member of the Seattle Athletic next year. Erickson, it is said, likes this city better than he does the metropolis, and is anxious to get into business here.

The New Yorker would be a valuable addition to the Blue Diamond organization, as he is considered to be one of the best high jumpers in this country today. Erickson is at present a member of the Mott Haven Athletic club of New York City, and it was under the colors of that club that he competed when he won the senior and junior high jumping events in the recent national championships.
