A FEW years spent in the navy are years of valuable experience. Habits of regularity are formed. Healthy exercise, regular drills, and grewing responsibility, develop quickness and self-reliance. Many large employers prefer men who have had naval training because more capable and efficient. Young men with mechanical knowledge have greater opportunities. They master their trade instead of being mere helpers. Go to a recruiting office and learn about the fine chances in the different branches of the service to save money, the hours of duty, cruises, sports, promotion, etc. You are not urged to entist. Individuality will be developed, not suppressed, in the navy. Ask anyone in the service about it.
