

There's Only One Best

—and that's the GREAT MAJESTIC—they are the only range made exclusively of Malleable and Cast iron—outlast three ordinary ranges—don't break, crack, or rust. Malleable iron allows absolutely straight joints in a MAJESTIC and these combined with pure asbestos lining, save half your fuel bill and give you a comfortable cooking, a perfect baker—every day.

The MAJESTIC is equipped with a 15-gallon, all-copper reservoir—it touches the red hot fire and heats water in a jiffy.

The Great and Grand MAJESTIC Malleable and Cast Iron RANGE

has an oven door, which when dropped, forms a rigid shelf strong enough to bear any weight—great rack sides on inside, holding everything, so that it happens to be on it, securely. Other attractive MAJESTIC features are the open and ash pan, acting as a shovel and the ash cup under it.

No more danger of fire from red hot ashes with a MAJESTIC.

Each exclusive MAJESTIC feature makes this range more practical, more serviceable, more durable—the best range your money can buy regardless of price. MAJESTIC Ranges are sold in nearly every county in forty states. If your dealer doesn't carry MAJESTIC Ranges, write us for the name of a dealer in your locality who does, and we'll send our booklet "The Story of Majestic Glory."

PEOPLE WANTED AT FAIR

Rainy Weather Puts the Management Up Against a Deficit.

RAILROADS RUN EXCURSIONS

Exhibit the Finest in the History of the State and is Well Worth Spending Time and Money to See.

(From a Staff Correspondent.)

LINCOLN, Sept. 7.—(Special.)—The people of Nebraska are appealed to to save the state fair. The rainy weather has knocked the attendance into a cocked hat and unless the people respond nobly Thursday and Friday the State Board of Agriculture will be up against a deficit.

The railroad of the state have answered the hurry call sent out Wednesday and have promised to put into use all their available equipment to save the day. The Union Pacific was communicated with early in the morning and without hesitation the management announced that it would run excursions from all parts of the state, both Thursday and Friday.

The crowd today was better than had been anticipated and the first gleam of sunlight was the signal for an immense throng which has been housed up in Lincoln to get to the grounds.

The attendance yesterday was 21,649, and on the same day last year it was 42,000. At this late date the fair board is dependent upon Omaha and Lincoln principally to save the day. Should the citizens of Lincoln turn out as they have done so far and support the fair by an excursion from Omaha the board will be able to pay its large premiums offered to secure great attractions and there will be no deficit.

The fair is better than it has ever been before. There are no special features that are being played up more than others, but as a whole it eclipses anything in the fair line ever before attempted in the state.

Many Notables Present.

Many of Nebraska's most prominent citizens were on the grounds today and paid little attention to the mud, but seemed to enjoy themselves. The Hon. Charles Howe was in evidence, as was Senator Burkett, ex-Governor Shreve, Governor and Mrs. Schallenberger, Mayor James C. Dahlman and a delegation from the Dalmatian Democracy, ex-Senator Orlando Tefft and hundreds of others, including C. E. Cameron, president, and J. E. Simpson, secretary of the Iowa state fair, and Joe Morton, secretary of the Sioux City fair.

"It has been twelve years since I have attended a state fair in Nebraska," said Hon. Charles Howe, "and it seems incredible to me the way the fair has grown. I have attended many fairs across the water, but they have never reached the magnitude of this, not even in Canada, where they have splendid exhibitions."

The rain and the mud has proven a boon to the showmen, for every one of them was crowded to the limit this afternoon and scores of people actually stood in the mud and waited for a tent to be emptied so they could get entrance.

Some running races were pulled off in the afternoon and the interest in the track was dry enough for the soon comfortably filled the grandstand.

The republican state headquarters, in charge of Clyde Barnard, secretary of the state committee, was a crowded place a good portion of the day. Secretary Barnard used to handle the horticultural exhibit, but he and some of the old guard of Columbus took charge of the democratic headquarters today, which is located between the republican tent and the Women's Christian Temperance union, which the senator believes ought to hold him for a while.

In Horticultural Hall.

The exhibits of fruit, horticultural hall are fully as good this year as the past. Fruit is noticeably clean, free from food of insects and fungus diseases.

The apple show is particularly attractive and is as large, or larger, than ever before. Saline, Washington and Johnson counties are represented by fine exhibits in the county collective class, premiums being awarded in the order named. Individual collections are large and attractive. First premium being awarded E. F. Stephens of the Crete nurseries, Crete; second and third premiums being awarded Marshall Bros. of the Arlington nurseries, Arlington, and G. S. Christie of Johnson, Neb.

Centrals of special merit are the fifty-five collections of summer and autumn apples, which are located on the center table of the north wing of the building. The varieties are principally Chenango Strawberry, Wealthy and Maiden Blush, which are at their best this year, and many pleasing comments are heard.

An attractive exhibit is made of grapes and plums. More varieties than usual are entered and the quality is especially good. These are on the center table of the west wing of the hall, the different colors of grapes and plums making one of the most pleasing exhibits.

The exhibit of pears this year is larger than in previous years, some twelve or fifteen varieties being entered. Pear growing in Nebraska was an important part of industry a few years ago, but the exhibit this year proves conclusively that pears can be grown in this state, and the prospects are more encouraging.

The floral exhibits are especially good this year, a large number of entries being made. Florists from all over the state have a choice line of pleasing varieties, and the entire space has been taken by C. H. Green of Fremont, L. Henderson of Omaha and Edward Williams of Grand Island were awarded premiums on some of the finest plants ever seen in Nebraska. The Dole Floral company of Beatrice and Simanton & Pence of Falls City also had an unusually fine display. Special mention might be made of the cut flowers and floral designs.

Everything taken into consideration, horticulture in Nebraska has never been represented better than this year at any fair held in the state, due in a large measure to the untiring efforts of the Nebraska State Horticultural society.

One of the most attractive places on the grounds is the fish exhibit, which has been prepared by Commissioner O'Brien and Dan Gellus, deputy game warden. The exhibit this year is bigger and more interesting than ever before. Friday afternoon the little gold fish will be sold, not less than six to a person, at 10 cents each.

Traveler's Pocket Picked.

HASTINGS, Neb., Sept. 8.—(Special Telegram.)—The smooth work of pickpockets relieved Freeman Lull of Aurora, Ill., of his wallet containing $40 in currency and a note for $25 at the Burlington station here this morning. The pickpocket escaped. The affair took place on board No. 1 just as the train was pulling out. Mr. Lull had dismounted from the car and had taken a walk about the station platform during the stop. DEBATE LIQUOR QUESTION

Mayor Dahlman and William B. Price Talk at Fair Grounds.

LARGE CROWD IN ATTENDANCE

Ensign Giffin of Navy Visiting His Home in Lincoln After Having Won Honors in Rifle Competition.

(From a Staff Correspondent.)

LINCOLN, Sept. 7.—(Special.)—Mayor Charles James Dahlman of Omaha and William B. Price of Lincoln spoke to a crowd of more than 400 in the state fair auditorium at the noon hour, under the auspices of the Woman's Christian Temperance union, with Mrs. Nesbit of Pawnee, president of the state association, presiding. The two men discussed the temperance question. Mayor Dahlman took the position that prohibition did not prohibit and that legislation would not change human nature, but that if this state is to become a prohibition state it must be brought about by teaching the child in the cradle of the evils of drink.

Mr. Price argued that prohibition did prohibit and that the elimination of the saloon and the prohibition of liquor was an example of a prohibition city where liquor could not be bought. As an argument in favor of county option, which he said was a step toward prohibition, he pointed to the case of Lincoln, with Havelock at its door, where the Lincoln option was adopted. The mayor quoted statistics to show that in Kansas there are almost as many government licenses issued as in Nebraska, Kansas being a prohibition state.

In answer to this Mr. Price quoted from a letter from the governor of Kansas that prohibition in Kansas was a success. Dahlman said that in the home of the governor there are clubs where members have their locks in which liquor is kept and is sold. This, he said, is true in Lincoln and he demanded to know why the law is not enforced if it could be enforced.

Both speakers were accorded generous applause and when it was over Mr. Price invited the mayor to take dinner with him. Mayor Dahlman was escorted to Lincoln by the following delegation from the Dahlman democracy: J. E. Ragan, P. G. H. Boland, H. V. Hayward, Joseph P. Butler, J. F. Moriarty, Vince Monaghan, R. F. Fyfe, Meyer Klein, J. J. O'Connor and Eugene Hart.

Lincoln Man Medal Winner.

Ensign Robert Carlisle Giffin of the United States navy, son of Dr. E. R. Giffin, arrived in Lincoln Tuesday to await orders. Ensign Giffin is a stalwart youth and has made a good record. He was on board the Virginia, which accompanied the United States fleet around the world. At the recent national shoot at Camp Perry, O., he was a member of the rifle team representing the navy that won first place. He was third in the individual shooting and fourth in long range shooting. He won the distinction of having a perfect score in the skirmish run in the national match, in which his team was the winner. Mr. Giffin was also a member of the team which defeated an Australian rifle team when the United States fleet circled the globe. Three medals were won by him at the recent national match at Camp Perry.

Suit Over Bond Election.

LEXINGTON, Neb., Sept. 8.—(Special Telegram.)—A petition was filed yesterday in the district court of Dawson county by Ira W. Olive, a resident of the city of Lexington, praying for a recount of the vote in the recent election held to vote bonds in the sum of $50,000 for two new school buildings and which carried by four votes over the required two-thirds majority. The petition also asks the court for an order requiring the secretary of the school board to produce the books of the election to enable him to specifically show the illegal votes claimed to have been cast, the secretary of the board having refused to turn over the poll books for inspection. W. D. Oldham of Kearney is attorney for the plaintiff.

Old Settlers at Wauneta.

WAUNETA, Neb., Sept. 8.—(Special.)—The annual old settlers' and fraternal day picnic will be held here September 13 & 14, inclusive. Tuesday will be devoted to the old settlers and Wednesday will be fraternal day. J. L. McBrien will speak with Representative D. J. Kilien of Adams township and on Wednesday Congressman G. W. Norris will be on the program. Many amusements have been provided and this will be a record gathering for Chase county.

Killed by Fall from Train.

FREMONT, Neb., Sept. 8.—(Special.)—The body of an unidentified man was found on the Union Pacific tracks about a mile and a half east of North Bend this morning. He was so fearfully mutilated that there was no possibility of identification.

Blood was found on the track for a distance of 1500 feet west of where he was found, and as it was between the rails it is presumed that he fell from the brake beams or rods and was dragged along the track.

Stolen Property Recovered.

NORFOLK, Neb., Sept. 8.—(Special Telegram.)—Northwestern Detectives Stewart of Omaha and Lawrence of Chicago entered the home of Mrs. Mary Alshire here and found $600 worth of merchandise alleged to have been stolen from Northwestern freight cars. William Alshire, her son, led the detectives upstairs and escaped through a window. He is still at large.

BEATRICE.—H. L. Lewis and Irving Westphal of the Burlington road returned home yesterday on a trip to Kansas and Colorado. At Norton, Kan., they attended the county fair and delivered addresses upon agricultural subjects, and at Atxum, Colo., they spoke at a farmers' institute.

BROKEN BOW.—Judge Hostetler convened the September term of district court this morning. As no juries have been drawn, the term will be devoted almost entirely to civil cases. Among the out-of-town members of the bar attending court are Attorney Abbott of Grand Island and Judge Wall of Loup City.

BUTTE.—The big well for the city water works after going down over thirty feet began to cave in at the bottom, due to not starting the curbing in time and work on it was abandoned this morning and another well begun. This contractor is laying the mains for the system at a rapid rate and the work will now probably be delayed on account of the cave.

BLAIR.—Glenn Edgar Rigby of Thomas, Okla., and Miss Mabel Lenora Clair were united in marriage last evening for the Christian church Sunday, September 5, at the home of the bride's mother, Mrs. Alma H. Clair. The couple left last evening for a trip through the south. They will make their home at Thomas, Okla., where Mr. Rigby is a prominent clothing merchant.

BROKEN BOW.—K. P. Althage, a cook employed at the Grand Central hotel, created a "house" last night by making a "murderous" attack on Proprietor A. J. Elliott with a butcher knife. It appears that Althage was disgruntled because another man, whom he did not favor, had been placed in that part of the house as assistant. Mr. Elliott will prefer serious charges against him.

MORE.—Zac Brown, contract carpenter of this city, who has been working in Odell the last seven summers, says that there is considerable improvement being made in that city in the way of residences. Five new residences have been built by Mr. Brown this summer and he has contracts for several others. A two-story brick business block has been built and will be occupied by a butcher shop and lodge. Mr. Brown accounts for the activity in building lines by the fact that the Odell Lumber company, a farmers' cooperative concern recently organized, is selling lumber very cheaply. He says that a bill of lumber can be purchased in Odell for about three-fourths of what it would cost in neighboring towns.
