BEDE PRAISES UNCLE JOE

BEDE PRAISES UNCLE JOE

Former Humorist of House Says Cannon is Bulwark of Legislation.

SAVES PEOPLE FROM BAD LAWS

Declares Tariff Law is All Right and Gives the Public the Long End of the Argument.

Ex-Congressman J. Adam Bede of Pine City, Minn., the former humorist of congress and the Adonis of the house, who is in Omaha to address the Nebraska Bankers' association, looks with kindly eyes upon the tariff bill passed by the last congress and thinks President Taft did the best he could in trying to get a lower tariff schedule.

"I believe the people got the best bill they could in one chunk. The schedules will suit the conditions for the present time."

"The people and papers who have been kicking about Aldrich and Cannon don't know what they are talking about. Those two representatives of the people are business men and they know what is best for this country and they were doing what is best when they were making that tariff bill."

"If the people of the west could understand those two men they would not be rate them, but, on the contrary, would praise them. "Do you know if all the money that Rockefeller and Morgan have been dumped into the United States treasury it could not prevent as much useless legislation for this country as Uncle Joe Cannon has? He has been working for the best interests of the country."

Heads Off Useless Bills. "Some of the men who were removed from committees by him were not taken off because they had not supported him. They were ditched because they were not capable. In one instance, I think, a certain western chairman was taken off a committee at the suggestion of President Taft because that congressman had been chairman of that same committee for six years and had not been able to get any satisfactory legislation through congress."

"President Taft will certainly make good with the people. The president is coming west and he is going to show the people that he is right. He will more than make good during the next three years and will be re-nominated without opposition. "Taft never gets cold feet; he has all kinds of sand. He never runs away from any issue. Before the four years are up he will get legislation that will control the corporations and will show the country that he is a great president."

CATHERS AND OTHERS SUED FOR OVER EIGHT THOUSAND

Former's Property is Tied Up to Secure It Till the Case is Settled.

Frank H. Parsons has brought suit against John T. Catthers and a number of other defendants to satisfy a judgment which he holds against Catthers for $2,328.88 and a restraining order was issued to prevent a transfer of property.

According to the petition Parsons bought from the defunct McCasre Savings bank a claim against J. C. Detweiler and John W. Croft for $2,000, and Catthers was the surety. Suit was brought in district court and a judgment for $2,328.88 secured in August, 1909. This judgment was rendered after litigation which had begun in 1904. No execution of this judgment could be satisfied against property belonging to Croft or Detweiler and Catthers is now sued to make it good.

Other defendants are brought into the action in the effort to get control over Catthers' assets. It is asserted that his property at Twentieth and Locust streets was fraudulently transferred first to Detweiler and then to Mrs. Catthers and the petition asks that this deed be declared null so that the property can be levied upon. For this action Mrs. Louisa Catthers is made a defendant.

The Nebraska Loan and Building association, which is said to have a mortgage on a part of this real estate, is to be prevented from advancing this as a prior claim.

Mrs. Rhoda Gilliland and Miss Anna Robinson, each of whom has a claim against the city of which Catthers is part owner, are enjoined from collecting these claims so that Catthers may get control of that part of his assets and the city is enjoined from paying them. Miss Anna Robinson has a claim for $1,640, and Miss Gilliland one for $1,600, and Catthers has a right to half of these two amounts as attorney's share.

Mrs. Catthers also has a claim of $125 property damages against the city and the injunction prevents the collection of that. The injunction which was granted by Judge Trout has the effect of tying up the Catthers property until the claim of $2,328.88 can be satisfied or dismissed.

TAFT DINNER LIST IN FULL

One Hundred and Fifty Will Dine with the President.

PLANS FOR EVENT NOW COMPLETE

All Arrangements for Entertaining Chief Executive of Nation Are Made by the Board of Ak-Sar-Ben.

The board of Ak-Sar-Ben has completed its labor in arranging for the Taft banquet at the Omaha club September 20, and the guest list is now complete, subject to a few invitations to be sent out to keep the number at the banquet board up to 150. The price of the cover remains at 25c, the menu prepared by Stewart Perkins has been approved and the menu cards are in the hands of the printer.

Eleven whose names were on the tentative list were found to be out of the city, or will be out of the city at the time of the banquet, or to have failed to qualify as members of Ak-Sar-Ben. The demand for seats is so great that the board had to fix a firm rule that none would be invited who was not a member of the order.

The menu souvenirs will be quite elaborate, costing $2 apiece, and will reproduce a half-tone of Mr. Taft from a photograph taken when in Omaha last spring.

Following is the list as it now stands: Allen, Edgar; Allison, C. C.; Anderson, E. M.; Austin, A. T.; Black, C. E.; Bell, W. B. T.; Benson, A. G.; Barker, Joseph; Beaton, C. D.; Beaton, A. "Arnold's Underwear" the "comfy" kind for Children and Infants, is to be had here only.

"Arnold's" Knit Night Drawers
With or Without Feet

YOUR children's health is too important a matter to trifle with. During the hours of sleep that are so precious to their growth, changes in temperature, or dampness is so great that the average mother is constantly in fear of colds, which come so suddenly, or of chills resulting in colds and sickness.

YOU will be spared many an anxious hour and your children will sleep more peacefully, in better health, if they are clothed in "Arnold's" Knit Night Drawers. These are the most serviceable, healthful, comfortable hygienic covering a child can have in sleep. The cloth is covered from "head to foot." These garments are made with or without feet with a soft, fine and downy knit fabric. Very absorbent to take up excretions of the skin, and porous to allow the circulation to pass off. An ideal garment.

50c and upwards for these Dreamland Coaxers and Health Retainers, in sizes one to ten years.

EAGLE POLITICS WARMS UP

Grady and Parry Fight it Out for Grand Worthy Vice.

EAST FITTED AGAINST THE WEST

John J. Ryder May Be Pushed Into the Arena Against Secretary

It is the west against the east in the contest for grand worthy vice president of the Eagles, the highest elective office in that organization. The states of the east are lining up behind Senator Thomas P. Grady of New York and the west is giving support to John S. Parry of San Francisco.

MEAT IS LIKELY TO RISE

Prices Disposed to Advance Because of the Scarcity of Corn-fed Cattle.

Retail meat dealers have not advanced the price of meat in Omaha, but they are likely to do so very soon.

Scarcity of corn-fed cattle with a higher wholesale price is the cause of the increase to be expected. Chicago and other cities have already felt the effect, prices going up sharply.

"We are paying 1 1/2 cents for native cattle," said a dealer, "and there is little profit for us at this price. So much of the beef we buy is waste or is sold for soup stock. Loin stock is only 15 per cent of the whole."

Pork has come up during the week and housewives are paying 17 1/2 cents for loin cuts and 20 cents a pound for pork chops.

NEW UNIVERSITY IS READY

Omaha Institution Will Begin Class Room Work Tuesday with Faculty Nearly Complete.

The University of Omaha will open for the first time next Tuesday morning. A full corps of instructors has been secured with the exception of an instructor for the chair of English. The trustees are in communication with several educators and it is expected that this one vacancy will be filled before the university opens. Full college courses will be given at the new university.

Gratifying reports as to the probable attendance have been received, but the trustees of the new educational institution are as yet unable to announce what the probable enrollment of students will be.

If you have anything to sell or trade and want quick action, advertise in The Bee Want Ad columns.
