DETWEILER NOT ON THE NOTE

Administrator for John H. Finley and
Only as such Co-Defendant in Suit.
In the matter of the suit brought by Frank H. Parsons against John T. Cathers and others to satisfy a judgment of $3,928.88, the statement that there is a claim against J. O. Detweiler and others for $5,000 as administrator for John H. Finley and it so happened that Mr. Finley was one of the sureties on a note. BUCKET SHOPS RUN AGAIN

Bucket Shop Office is Opened in Office
Where E. G. Beiden Met His Waterloo.
The Omaha bucket shop industry which recently bumped the bumps, many concerns going under, is once more flourishing. The recent slump in Union Pacific, while Harriman lay ill, sent stocks down temporarily and almost every player was wiped out. It is easy enough to "go bust" when playing the bucket shop game. The margin is only one point and it doesn't take much of a fall to cause traders to end prematurely. Practically every local man who dabbles in stocks via the bucket shops

GO EASY WITH RAILROADS

This is File of Commercial Club to the Shippers Pending Negotiations for Peace.
Omaha shippers have been asked by the transportation committee of the Commercial club to be good in the hope that the railroads will reciprocate. The Commercial club has sent out a circular urging the full compliance with rules regarding the marking of packages in less than carload lots, saying:
We are making complaint to the railroads regarding incomplete and sometimes illegible character of expense bills furnished by them and are demanding reform in this particular. We certainly cannot expect this reform to be accomplished unless we do our own part by marking packages plainly and making out shipping tickets in a clear and legible manner. This is an extremely important matter and we trust that our people will so regard it and give it the necessary attention. Should you not be heard from within a reasonable length of time, we will assume that the requirements of rule 27 are satisfactory to you, although we will appreciate affirmative advice if that is so.
