OYD'S THEATER

TONIGHT, MONDAY, TUESDAY SPECIAL TUESDAY MATINEE

Mort H. Singer

Bert Baker

WATCH FOR THE LITTLE BEES

What's in a Name? Asks Mabel Taliafero of Public

Popular Actress Asks that in the Future She Be Known as "Nell," and that All the Favor She Has Gained by Mabel Be Transferred to Her Under the New Title by Which She Will Be Known Hereafter.

and busy days of his life to add to the sum of the world's knowledge such modicum as work of two of the most prominent of the has spouted, the singer has voiced his Maybe it might be better to differentiate sweetest notes, the pest has raved, the a little and refer to one as an entertainer painter has smeared, the sculptor has chis- and the other as an actor. It is not tearing eied, the actor has ranted, the doctor has from Billie Burke a single leaf of the searched, the explorer risked his life and laurels she has won to suggest that she denied himself comforts-all sorts and con- is not as yet established as an actor. One ditions of men have given over their lives swallow, you know, doesn't make a sumto the end that after death they should not mer, nor does one part well done make an be forgotten, but their names would live as actor, even in these days of hurry-up, long as grateful humanity could recall when stars are made over night, and plays their services. The Ephesian youth was are written while the audience waits. But not a pyromaniac; he was merely obsessed Billie Burke is an entertainer of much with a most laudable desire to leave his promise, and may some day be entitled to name to the ages, and so he put the torch all the distinction she now aims at. In to the temple. What's in a name, for- "Love Watches" she is all that was prom-wrapped up in a name.

nounce it, and for this very reason chucks it to the winds. It matters not that thousands of her admiring fellow countrymen and women are so familiar with the name off, just like they say "Smith" or "Jones." her a right to take another name, one that has been worn with some grace and not a little dignity by eminent personages on the American stage, and abroad. She asks us to kindly forget that she was born Taliaferro, was christened Mabel and wedded Thompson. We are kindly requested in the future to call her "Nell." Just Nell, No more. It is her middle name, and she has a right to use it. But we are to transfer to Nell all the loyal devotion we have paid to Miss Taliaferro so that "Nell" can start out with a fame already built. Very well; Nell it shall be hereafter. It will not only prevent ferro to Nell, Mr. Thompson writes a birthplace and date of birth; note as follows:

In the future Miss Mabel Taliaferro, the youngest dramatic star on the American stage, will be known simply as Nell. stage, will be known simply as Nell.

In the history of theatricals there is no record of so sudden and complete a change in the name of a player—man or woman—who has enjoyed anything like Miss Taliaferro's popularity and success. Because of this fact she and her management couple with the announcement of the change the reasons for making it.

"Taliaferro" is pronounced correctly in "Taliaferro" is pronounced correctly in Barnabee, Henry Clay, Portsmouth, N. H.

"Taliaferro" is Pronounced correctly in Barnabee, Henry Clay, Portsmouth, N. H.

"Taliaferro" is Philadelphia, Pa.

reasons for making it.
"Tallaferro" is pronounced correctly in two totally different ways and incorrectly in half a dozen others. The name is so in half a dozen others. The name is so foreign and so confusing to playgoers generally that in many theatrical centers it is unfamiliar to the lips of men and women of whose every-day conversation plays and players form a part. It does not suggest to friend or stranger any of the daintiness and girlish charm of the little star. Instead, by its spelling and verbal weight, it has too often indicated the massive spread of a grand opera soprano rather than the siender delicacy of a young American girl. siender delicacy of a young American girl. Nell happens to be the erstwhile Miss Tal-inferro's middle name, and as it is hers by right and as through its very simplicity and sweetness it eliminates in a moment all the difficulties and unfortunate misconceptions of the larger surname it has been chosen by the winsome actress herself as the title by which she wishes to be known in the future. FREDERIC THOMPSON.

in the future.

PREDERIC THOMPSON.

Nell is 22 years of age, has been a star since she was 20 and has been a principal player of leading parts in famous plays ever since she was 24 years old. She is most widely known as the creator of the title role in "Polly of the Circus," the most successful comedy of recent years, but long before she had become a star she was celebrated throughout the United States as Baby Bascome in "Blue Jeans," her first part Subsequently she was a five-year-old principal in "Patent Applied Frank, Boston, Mass. Davis, Fay, Houlton, Me. D'Arville, Camille, Ca

Omaha had the privilege of watching the would ensure him remembrance. The orator entertainers of today during the week. All man's efforts have been ised for her in advance; she shows a de- Brownie dance, done by ten little "broll- ised headed by Joseph Hart's "The Fucided capacity for the expression of cer- ers" of the company. It was arranged turity Winner." and well balanced tain of the commoner emotions, and in and staged by that greatest of all stage throughout by interesting numbers. But here comes Mabel Tallaferro, with that gave evidence of her potential ability producers, Ned Wayburn, and he claims "The Futurity Winner" is from the pen a name so artistocratic that few can pro- when the part she has will ask her to it to be, with the wonderful dancing of of Edmund Day, and is written in two grasp some of the more subtle and less ap- the "brollers," the best feature act he has scenes, the first being in the jockeys' parent things of life. The role of Jaqueline is not one of depth, nor is the comedy in which she is the central figure one if they could say the queer name right of weight, but it has qualities that please by the celebrated magazine writer, O. itself, between three thoroughbreds. In a sister was able to go out last season as a lis general polish. Such comedy is making much headway in America, and that it is cause the trusting public wasn't wise to the fact that there are two of them, and flocked to see the one when they thought they were seeing the other. It doesn't matter that she has actually made the name broad dialogue of the farces of the past known. She is tired of it. Now and the untainted quality of its comedy, and its general polish. Such comedy is making with music by A. Baldwin Sloane, will be a line of light buffoonery and like music which is making then highly like music which is making then highly starting Sunday, under the management of The Harry Askin company. The plot is founded on O. Henry's well remembered to see the one when they thought that she has actually made the name broad dialogue of the farces of the past in Collier's Weekly last fall. Its dramatic and the Hesley Sisters furnish a lot of ter that she has actually made the name broad dialogue of the farces of the past interest and humor have been preserved, and the Healey Sisters furnish a known. She is tired of it. Nor does it is slowly but certainly being supplanted but there have been many aditions made seem to cut any ice with her that when by comedy of a higher and worthier type. to the characters introducted. John E. Brothers have a cycling act pronounced to the characters introducted. John E. Brothers have a cycling act pronounced to the characters introducted. she was wedded the law and custom gave This is not because we are becoming a na- Young heads the cast and his magnetic and off the stage.

Since that dear old lady of his saw him abandon, while O. Henry's pungent wit.

Name and Birthplaces.

Barnabee, Henry Ciay, Portsmouth N. H.

Barrymore, Ethel, Philadelphia, Pa.

Bateman, Isabel, Cincinnati, O.

Bateman, Kate, Baltimore, Md.

Bateman, Kate, Baltimore, Md.

Bateman, Hore, Portland, Ore.

Bell, Digby, Milwaukee, Wis.

Bellew, Kyrle, London.

Bernhardt, Sarah, Paris.

Bingham, Amelia, Hickville, O.

Bispham, David, Philadelphia, Pa.

Booth Agnes, Australia

Bispham, David, Fanadespina, PaBooth, Agnes, Australia.
Bourchier, Arthur, England......
Buchanan, Virginia, Cincinnati, O.
Burgeas, Neil, Boston, Mass.
Burroughs, Marie, San Francisco...
Byron, Oliver Doud, Baltimore, Md.

alve, Emma, Aveyron, France

Campbell, Mrs. Patrick, London

HAT'S in a name? That which we call a rose by any other would smell as sweet?" So mused the fair Capulet, when trying by her sophilatry to reconcile the differences between her house and that of the Montague to whom she has given her heart. What's in a name, indeed. From the very beginning of man's activity it has been the desires of the ambitious to achieve something that would send his name down the ages. This effort has taken all sorts of guises. The world had not the marrior has "piucked the bubble, reputation, even from the cannon's mouth." The writer has striven through the long nights and heart after the fair cannon's mouth." The writer has striven through the long nights and heart after the fair cannon's mouth." The writer has striven through the long nights and heart after the fair cannon's mouth." The world as a five through the long nights and heart and heart at the under the hearts of played the title state of the most difficult and not a man who presents it. Mr. Dixey is achieved the means of the ambitious to achieve something that would send his name down the ages. This effort has taken all sorts of guises. The world has "piucked the bubble, reputation, even from the cannon's mouth." The world have down and here the foundable of the most difficult and the provises of watching the actor's true mission. It is not his fault that the play has about as many weak points as could well be crowded into the actor's true mission. It is not his fault that the play has about as many weak points as could well be crowded into the cannon's mouth." The world have down the ages. This action is so paintenance of the played the title role, and now in a first the will not fix the date, Mr. Dixey deplayed many parts and played in the will deep the militant to the played many parts and played many parts adopted by the "thrillers." His acting and she is now doing.

that of Miss Lackage and the others in

At the Omaha Theaters

Eagles' Week Will Be Given Over to Musical Plays, with "Honeymoon Trail" at the Boyd, "The Beauty Spot at the Burwood, "The Sunny Side of Broadway" at the Krug and a Fine Bill at the Orpheum.

How Old is Your Favorite Actor?

Trail," which will play here delighted laughter. for three nights starting Sunday, with a special matinee on ever placed in any show.

-especially in the delicacy of its humor, Henry, and Franklin P. Adams, the humorist of the New York Evening Mail, Love," the Brothers Permane introduce tion of bloodless exquisites, but because personality, his unctuous humor and well known in Omaha as one of the most more and more of refinement is coming graceful dancing set the piece going at popular monologuists in the business. into the national life, and with it a greater such a rapid gait that it quickly de- Vittoria & Giorgetta are foreign equilibrists degree of elegance in manners, both on veloped into a whiriwind success. The of high caliber who are making their desongs were encored repeatedly, the costumes are magnificent and the thirty-two Mr. Dixey deserves to be called an actor. chorus girls, who incidentally average but

Jones, Henry Arthur, Grandsborough,

S. C. Kidder, Kathryn, Newark. Lackaye, Wilton, Virginia. Langtry, Lily, St. Helens, Jersey, Engiand

Kelcey. England

interesting as well as amus- and the humorous situations and complicaing number in "Honeymoon tions kept the audience in an uproar of more domestic in their living every day," is the verdict of Miss Viola Gillette, a .1842 unfortunate ones who are in immediate .1849 Its answer can be found in nearly every Herbert, H. L., London, rural district where the stage folks are Kellogg, Clara Louise, Sumpterville, summering on their farms, in their punga-kellogg, Clara Louise, Sumpterville, summering on their farms, in their punga-lows or camping out. Everywhere the . 1862 modern actress is at no time more conhold duties of her own home. What care .1876 in palatial hotels all the season, but to her Mantell, Richard, Hengoland, 1857

For Eagle week attraction at the Tuesday at the Boyd is the Orpheum, starting today, a bill is promquarters of the Sheepshead Bay track, New York, just before the Futurity classic "Lo," the new musical comedy written race, the second showing the actual race comedy and dancing, while the Ferrell a wonrer in other cities. Lew Wells is Concert orchestra of fifteen pieces and the kinodrome with its new films top off a most excellent Eagles' week bill. A trip drome.

Mantell, Robert B., Ayrshire, Scotland, 1864
Marlowe, Julia, Caldbeck, England, 1865
Martinot, Sadie, Yonkers, N. Y., 1857
Mason, John, Orange, N. J. 1857 home."

When Arthur Jerome Eddy of Chicago artist, in illustrating the narrative, pictured the central character, John Ganton, he never dreamed that his conception of this man would be reflected upon the stage just as it appeared upon the printed page. Persons who have read this novel and who are familiar with the illustrations will be almost startled at the remarkable manner in which Mr. George Fawcett impersonates the character of John Ganton stepped from between the covers of the book, and yet he appears practically without make-up. It is likely that Mr. Faw-Schrooke, Romas Q., St. vernon, N. Y.

Sembrich, Marcella, Lemberg, Austria, 1858
Shannon, Effic, Cambridge, Mass. 1867
Shaw Mary, Wolfborough, N. H. 1880
Skinner, Cambridgeport, Mass. 1857
Sothern, Edward H. England. 1864
Sousa, John Philip, Washington. 1854
Spong, Hilda, London. 1876
Stanhope, Adelaide, Paris, France. 1858
Stevenson, Charles A., Dublin, Ireland 1850
Stoddart, James H., Yorkshire, England. 1877
Tearle, Osmond, Plymouth, England. 1877
Tempest, Marie, London. cett's great resemblance to this book character suggested to the Messrs. Shubert his selection for the title role in the play. Mr. Fawcett's successes have been many, notably his part of James Phelan, the with building blocks and nursery rhymes, part won for him a distinction in London and J. E. Coughlin add to the amusement

There is something quite different in the chorus. "The Sunny Side of Broadway," which will epen at the Krug this afternoon and in song, picture and story, by 250 of our through the Yukon-Alaskan exposition at Seattle is one of the features of the kino-

"The people of the stage are becoming tented than when superintending the houseshe how humble it is-she may have lived the simple cottage of the vacation period. with herself the mistress, is far more Inviting than any royal suite in a six-dollara-day hostelry. Possibly it is the very contrast that makes it attractive, or, perhaps, it is the sense of proprietorship, who can tell, but the fact remains that contentment such as she has never found in the glamor of the footlight rests in her season. Mr. Bloom is a character actor of The popular Charles Breckenridge Stock she went home for a visit and failed to in this instance is that of Abey Tiredmuch in evidence. Miss Ryan is a sou- the acts. This is expected to be the banshow all of the time. Last season she was with Gus Edward's "School Days." Some of the song hits of the piece are, "Selling of the song hits of the piece are, "Selling of the song hits of the piece are, "Selling of the song hits of the piece are, "Selling of the song hits of the piece are, "Selling of the song hits of the piece are, "Selling of the song hits of the piece are, "Selling of the song hits of the piece are, "Selling of the song hits of the piece are, "Selling of the song hits of the piece are, "Selling of the song hits of the piece are, "Selling of the song hits of the piece are, "Selling of the song hits of the piece are, "Selling of the song hits of the piece are, "Selling of the song hits of the piece are, "Selling of the pi College Days," "What's the Use of Work- companied by Mrs. Fairbanks, arrived ing When the Old Man Runs a Bank," here four days ago from the north and "Every Town Has a Postoffice and a Wise, left today for Manila by way of Nagasaki. Wise Girl." "The Parara Plant." "Beware the Shanghai Times refers editorially to Pike, one of the founders of the Altoona, of the Garden of Lover" "Oh. Mr. Moon, Mr. Fairbanks' visit to China at the prestoure Full Tonight." My New Motor ent time as especially helpful to the Amerilisher of the Cambria Freeman, Ebens-Boat" and "My Heart is Beating Like a can interests. by fear of appendicitie, take Dr. King's Big Bass Drum." A few of the scenic ef-

American stars.

NIGHTS STARTING look and MUSICAL Lyrics by O. HENRY COMEDY F. P. ADAMS JOHN E. A. BALDWIN

AMUSEMENTS.

Coming-September 23 and 24-Matinee 24 EMMET DEVOY in his comedy fantasy

YOUNG

IN DREAMLAND

Walting to hear from President Taft before announcing special MATINEE date.

Matinee Today.

SLOANE

99

EAGLES' WEEK, Starting Matines Today

SONG HITS - COMEDY - GIRLS

WIth MAX BLOOM.

Lyrics and Music by Boyle Woolfolk

Wed, and Sat. Matinees All Seats 25c.

Next Sunday--"The Blind Organist" COMING-"The King of Bigamists."

BY ACCLAMATION, THE EAGLES' CHOICE

PHONES - Bell, Doug. 1506 ; Ind. A-1506

"Every Night -15-EAGLES' NIGHT"

LILLIAN FITCH, Director.

TO-NIGHT MATINEES WED. and SAT. And ALL WEEK

The Season's Merriest Musical Play JEFFERSON DEANGELIS and the original "THE BEAUTY SPOT" Company of Sixty.

By Jos. W. Herbert and Reginald DeKoven.

wrote his great novel, "Ganton & Co.," he had no idea that the book would be seized upon for its dramatic value, and when the Sept. 19, 20, 21, 22, Geo. Fawcett in "The Great John Ganton." Seats ready Thursday. BOYD THEATER SCHOOL OF ACTING

AND SCHOOL OF EXPRESSION Seventh Season Begins September 15th Dramatic Art, Elecution, Dancing, Fencing, Professional Exercise while studying.
Write for catalogue.

W. J. BURGESS, Manager. in the play, "The Great John Ganton," which comes to the Burwood in the near future. The actor looks as if he had 1511 Dodge St. Arlington Block GOODWAL DICKERMAN, Director Training School for Dramatic Operators and Vaudeville Stage. 24 graquates now playing. Acting taught by an actor.

alderman, in "The Man of the Hour," and are some of the surprises offered. Marie Bill in "The Squaw Man." This latter Montrose is the prima donna. Al Harrison theaters that has been obtained by few with their trick horse stunt. Considerable care has been given to the selection of run for the entire week, with Wednesday best local talent, on September 16, 17, at and Saturday matinees. The Krug maaagement looked around for a real classy convention week show and succeeded in booking this attraction, which is replete with song hits, up-to-date comedy and a The Hebrew is played by Max Bloom, years ago under Kountze Memorial Luth-who was with "The Mayor of Tokio" last established reputation. He makes people company which has played a successful return. laugh, and that is his mission. His role engagement several weeks at the Air Gander sued for divorce on the grounds Dome, will figish its engagements in this of desertion, alleging that he did not know heimer, a Hebrew with a trick horse to city on Saturday night. During Eagles the whereabouts of his wife. He obtained is out on parole from a penitentiary sensell. Miss Caroline Ryan enacts the role week the company will change its plays a decree and shortly afterwards was marof Flossie, the sweet young thing who is nightly and introduce specialties between ried again. ner week of the season.

Pairbanks at Shanghai.

Has Two Wives

One from Greenfeld, Ia., Whom He Ten Dollars for Divorced, Has Decree Set Aside After He Remarries.

LEWISTOWN, Mont., Sept. 11-C. E. Gander of Straw, this county, finds himself with two wives, both of whom he legally married. Three years ago he was married at Greenfield, In., and brought his bride to Montana. Shortly afterwards

A short time ago Mrs. Gander No. 1 returned and moved to have the divorce set

WASHINGTON, Sept. 11.-Henry A. Moburg. Pa., is dead at his home in this city

Quick Action for Your Money-You get wound. Guaranteed. Sc. Sold by Beaton aged 77 years.

Oxpheum BOUG 48

ADVANCED VAUDEVILLE Big Eagles' Week Program Btarting MATINEE EVERY DAY, 0:15-

Joseph Hart's "Futurity Winner" Edmund Day's Realistic One-Act Racing Drama, SHOWING AN ACTUAL RACE

Those Eccentric Clowns The Brothers Permane in "Nightingales Making Love."

The Three Leightons 'A One Night Stand in Minstrelsy. Ray Montgomery and the

Healy Sisters In a Novelty Singing and Dancing Skit. Last Appearance in America for Two Years of the

Ferrell Brothers The Smartest of Comedy Cyclists. Return Engagement of the Popular Entertainer, Lew Wells Monologue and Saxophone Eccentricities.

Debut in America of the European Equilibrists,

Vittoria and Giorgetta

KINODROME Always the Newest in Motion Pictures

New Regular Musical Feature Extraordinary,

ORPHEUM CONCERT ORCHESTRA 15-Talented Artists-15

PRICES-10c, 25c and 50c

BASE BALI OMAHA VS WICHITA

SEPT. 11, 12, 12 and 13 Two Games Sunday, Sept. 12. FIRST CALLED 2 P. M. VINTON STREET PARK MONDAY, SEPT. 18-LADIES DAY. Games Called 3:45 P.M.

AIR DOME BRECKEMBIDGE STOCK CO.

REPERTOIRE OF PLAYS The Air Dome has a waterproof roof, Eagles' Week—Change of Play Nightly,

Mary Queen of Scots and JOHN KNOX BOYD'S THEATER

September 16-17 at 8:15 F. M. Reserved Seats at Theatre Box Office. Open on and after Monday Sept. 14. Rev. John P. Clyde

EAGLES' MINSTRELS San Francisco Arie's Famous Troup of 40. Benefit Benson Arie 1802. Tue. Wed. and Thurs. Eve. Admission 50c. Bids out and visit the Prize Boosters of Eagledom. Benson Eagle Auditorium (A $20,000 Hall for an Arie of 300)

Chicago Film Exchange 14th and Douglas St. America's Largest Film Renters See our exclusive Service of Pictures never before seen in Omaha at the new

PRINCESS THEATRE BEAUTIPUL 14th and Douglas Streets. The Borglum Studies Piano Instruction

August M. Borglum, Madam Borglum. Pupils of Wager Swayne. Leschetizky Method. 1810 CAPITOL AVENUE.

Oratory - Elecation - Literature - Physical Culture - Metaphysics - Dramatic Art LYRIC SCHOOL OF EXPRESSION

SHERMAN M. HOYT, B. O., PAUL HERBERT B. Q. Nineteenth and Farnam Streets. Telephone, Douglas 3745 ALFRED TOMSON, Business Manager,

Vernon C. Bennett Organist-Temple Israel.

PIANO ORGAN TREORY -STUDIO-Schmoller & MucHer Bldg.

Tel. Doug. 1825.

1313 Farnam St.

EAGLE CARNIVAL Big State Pair Shows; Free Attractions, Benefit Benson Aerie 1209. Bide out and Visit the Prize Boosters of Eagledom. Event of Convention Week.

KRUG PARK BALL GROUNDS. Heptember 12-19.

Ziebell from Wife

Money is Sent to Old Man When Family Reads His Pitiful Story in The Bee.

The homeless suffering of her husband described in The Boe Friday brought about the first effort that Mrs. August Ziebell has made to help the old man, who tence for killing his own son and who was banished from his home by the court. The story of his efforts to find some occupation and place in the world was read aside on the ground of fraud, alleging that to Mrs. Ziebell by one of his sons Friday her husband knew where she was all the evening and she sent him to find the was overjoyed, as this was the first sign since the tragedy occurred that the mother has shown any eigns of forgiveness for the death of her son. Slashed with a Raror wounded with a gun or pierced by a rusty nail. Bucklen's Armica Salve heals the Stage Negro of Today and Yesterday

CORDING to Frank Doane. who so realistically portrays the character of Chikoree, the negro valet, in "The Beauty Spot," there are a lot of interesting facts concerning the stage negro of today and past years-not the native Africacan of Ethiopian extraction, but the white actor who interprets the character of

The birthplace of minstrelry, which, translated, means negro character acting, was in a humble dwelling at 57 Catherine street. New York City, in the early part of the nineteenth century, closely followed by Dave Reed in 1844. Not until 1843 was the first minstrel troups organized, although, according to some records;

eccentric and grotesque in the ex-

At the present time a man portraythe first black-face comedian, one ing the character of a negro can be just as refined as a straight comedian, witness Willie P. Sweetman's work. Briefly summed up, the object of the old-time interpreter of negro character was to delve into the grotesque, while the modern actor depends upon the trtubfulness with which he depicts the character to win

Herbert, made his first appearance as a burnt corn man as far back as 1815 in Albany. In the older days the negro comedian lacked the more refined elements of his art found in his brothers of the present day. He depended for his laughs on a coarser brand of humor, and his make-up was

> The body was taken to Bertrand, Neb., this afternoon. Although none of the relatives has been here to identify it, they are certain that it is his. Frightened Into Fits > > Drug Co.

LEAVES WIFE AND FAMILY

Charles M. Hart Commits Suicide, While Six Children and Widow Live On. A wife and six children were left without support by the death of Charles M. Hart. who is thought to have sought death when he was run over by a Union Pacific train.

New Life Pills, and away goes bowel facts are the Columbus circle in New York. If you have anything to sell or trade trouble. Guaranteed. Mc. Sold by Beaton, City and the Yale campus. The original and want quick action, advertise it in The dancing Pippus and the six "baby dolls," Be Went Ad columns, that by using The Bes advertising columns, Drug Co.