Attorneys Come Into Court with Argument on New Law.

STATE FAIR COMES OUT WELL

In Spite of Decreased Receipts, Due to Rain, No Deficit is Likely in Treasury as 10 Stands.

(From a Staff Correspondent.) LINCOLN, Sept. 11 .- (Special.)-The brief the state wherein the attorney general is testing the legality of the act passed by the late legislature which created a new state normal board, was filed in the supreme court today, Attorney General Thompson and E. C. Calkins appearing for the state.

The brief contends that the act is unconstitutional because it is contrary to the provisions of the constitution, which provides that no act shall contain more han one subject, which shall be set out in its title. It contends that the subject of the bill is not contained in its title and hat the amendments are not germane to the original act. The amendments even provide that the persons appointed to the poard must be men of standing and education. This provision, the brief said, serves no purpose except to indicate what kind of men the governor might appoint unless restrained. Under the simpler policy Attempt Made the title of American citizenship was a sufficient qualification for any officer. The attorney general discusses the following points: The bill contains more than one subject and neither is expressed in the title. The act in question violates the constitutional provision that no law shall be amended unless the new act contains the ection or sections so amended. The brief argues there is no misjoinder of action and that T. J. Majors is not eligible to serve on the board, even if the act Island train No. 17 just west of Plymouth ays does not seem probable.

brief says, is in violation of that section struck them.
