SOUTHERN FRUITS TO SHOW

Texas Citrus Growers Write They Will Make a Big Exhibit.

FLORIDA ALSO GETS IN LINE

Secretary of Fruit Growers' Association Publishes Letter Pointing Out the Value of the National Fruit Show.

A big exhibit of fruit, vegetables and other products from southern Texas promises to be one of the most interesting features of the National Horticultural congress fruit show this year. This exhibit will be made under the auspices of the Texas Citrus Growers' association, which has its headquarters at Houston.

Fred L. Reed, general superintendent of the fruit show, is in receipt of the following letter from J. W. Canada, secretary of the association:

Freeman L. Reed, Council Bluffs, Ia.—Dear Sir: Yesterday at a meeting of the directors of the association and of representative land men it was decided that we should make the finest exhibit possible at the congress. To this end we appointed a finance committee to raise the necessary funds and appointed a practical horticulturist to collect and make ready the exhibit. I cannot say yet how much space we shall want, but we shall certainly need not less than a carload of fruit, vegetables and other products of southern Texas. We shall also carry on a vigorous campaign of advertising in connection with this exhibit. I have already begun this by sending to a number of papers in your state and adjoining states the story of the exhibit that Texas will make at the congress and from this end I shall do all possible to stir up interest among the people there and get the largest attendance possible at the congress. One distinct thing we will do is to send the largest and finest satsuma orange tree we can find, taking it up by the roots with fruit on it. As soon as our committee has had time to go over the price list carefully and I have taken the matter up with the manager of the exhibit I shall write you any suggestion I may have taken in regard to the list.

We shall work as rapidly as possible in collecting fruits necessary for making ready our exhibit and we expect to make it so as it will in itself repay anyone who comes to the congress.

Florida to Exhibit.

"This is the most important meeting of horticulturists and agriculturists held in the United States. This is one of Florida's finest opportunities," says James McComb of Tampa, commissioner for Florida to secure an exhibit from the state speaking of the National Horticultural congress fruit show in an article in the Tampa Weekly Tribune of recent date; Commissioner McComb's article, in part is as follows:

Florida can and should make the most interesting exhibit. What will the visitors to the exhibition think of a fine display of green beans, peas, lettuce, tomatoes, peppers, egg plant, etc., such as only Florida can show at that time of the year?

Florida will have California, Texas and Louisiana as competitors for the citrus fruit prizes, but as we claim to have the finest grape fruit, oranges and tangerines in the world our growers should not feel anxious about winning from all competitors "in a walk" particularly as we can show better colored fruit at that time than California can show.

Real estate men, colonization promoters, boards of trade, county commissioners and town or city officials should take action at once to have their locality, town or city represented. Space must be applied for, funds provided and a plan of campaign adopted and followed out. All this takes money. If you do not care to make an exhibit you can do your part by contributing to the general fund. It will take several thousand dollars to defray necessary expenses.

The contract for furnishing the county court house and the poor farm at McClelland with coal was awarded to the Carbon Coal company. There were four other bidders.

The purchase of an electric clock for the court house was approved, but the proposition to purchase a "chronograph" for use in the different offices was turned down by the board.

After disposing of a considerable list of routine business the board adjourned until next Tuesday.

ANOTHER MOVE IN DOBBINS CASE

Attorney Asks for Commission to Take Testimony.

Counsel for John R. Dobbins, alleged "steerer" for the Mabray gang, whose trial in the district court on charges in the connection with the alleged fleeing of T. W. Ballew, a banker of Princeton, Mo., has been set for October 4, served notice yesterday on County Attorney Hess and Attorney General Byers, who has signified his intention of assisting in the prosecution of the case on behalf of the state that a commission would be sworn out on September 25, to take the deposition of sixteen witnesses, living in Norton, Kan., Alma, Mich. and Omaha.

Dobbins' attorneys also filed yesterday in the district court a motion asking that Deputy United States Marshal W. A. Groneweg file in the office of the clerk of the district court all the papers and letters taken from James C. Mabray and his associates at the time of their arrest.

The attorney make this request in order, as they state, that the papers may be at the disposal of all parties interested. They also state that these papers include many which it is intended to use as evidence.

The witnesses in Omaha whose depositions the defense desires to take are F. H. Davis, Charles T. Kountze, Luther Drake, Frank T. Hamilton, R. H. Milay, Walter Martin, James T. Wilson, A. B. Currie and J. M. Cook.

"I have not been advised when Mabray will be brought to Council Bluffs from Des Moines" said George S. Wright, attorney for the alleged head of the gang of "big store" swindlers on his return to the city yesterday after an absence of several days in Shenandoah, where he was engaged in the trial of a railroad case. "I do not think that Mabray will be brought here before Monday, as United States Marshal Clarke and the other officers of the federal court will come here that day to be in readiness for the opening of the term of court on Tuesday. I expect Marshal Clarke and one of his deputies will bring Mabray with them then."

Mr. Wright stated that it was his intention as soon as Mabray was arraigned to file demurrers to the two indictments against him. He expressed confidence in being able to quash the indictment on demurrer.

Judge Woodruff is hearing in the district court the suit brought by Jay P. Matthews of Washington township, Pottawattamie county against Bert E. Nash and others of Chicago to recover $2,000 paid on a land contract and two cancel notes amounting to $2,000 more. The case involves a rather peculiar question. Viola S. Matthews, sister of Jay Matthews, who made the contract in July, 1907, was adjudged insane by the commissioners in Council Bluffs a short time later and was committed to the asylum. Matthews asks for cancellation of the contract on the grounds that his sister was insane at the time it was made, he also charges misrepresentation, alleging that the property was worth much less than claimed by the defendants.
