BOARD OF HEALTH MEETING

Special Session Tonight Will Discuss Dairy Ordinance.

RULES FOR ITS ENFORCEMENT

Committee Prepares Number of Regulations Regarding Care of Milk and Cows and Testing of Animals.

A special meeting of the Board of Health has been called by Mayor Maloney for next Monday evening to take action upon the rules and regulations which have been prepared by a special committee of the board to carry out the provisions of the recently enacted pure milk ordinance.

In addition to those providing for the regulation of pasteurization of milk and for keeping of barns, dairies and all equipment used in the sale of milk in a clean and sanitary condition, the following are the principal rules as prepared by the committee:

When Asiatic cholera, epidemic cerebro spinal meningitis, scarlet fever, diphtheria, including membranous croup, scarlet fever, typhoid fever, measles or tuberculosis exists in any house or dwelling occupied by a dealer or seller of milk or other dairy products, or in any other place where such products are prepared, or to creameries or butter factories, and such milk or dairy products shall not be removed from the infected or quarantined premises until a written permit is granted in writing by the mayor or township clerk, and countersigned by the health officer.

When any person who attends cows, or does the milking, or who has care of milk vessels, or who manufactures or handles butter or other dairy products, or has for sale or distribution, butter, milk, or other dairy products, shall be permitted to enter a premises therein existing any of the diseases named herein, nor shall he come in contact either directly or indirectly with any person who is suffering with any of the diseases named herein, or with any animal which is suffering with any of the diseases named herein, or with any animal which is suffering with any of the diseases named herein, or with any animal which is suffering with any of the diseases named herein.

When any animal is found to be suffering with any of the diseases named herein, the owner thereof shall be held responsible for the same, and shall be held liable for the cost of the treatment thereof, and for the cost of the disposal thereof, and for the cost of the disinfection of the premises where the same was found, and for the cost of the disinfection of the premises where the same was found.

DISTRICT COURT CALENDAR

Trial of Charles M. Sanford is set for today.

The trial of Charles M. Sanford on a charge of assault with intent to commit murder is set for today in the district court. This was assigned by Judge Woodruff for the first jury case for the term.

The next criminal case on the calendar is that of Charles White charged with the theft of $44 from Joe Sorntich, a retail section hand, while Sorntich was asleep in the Rock Island depot at Underwood.

Judge Wheeler is expected to hear, this morning, the motion on the part of the plaintiff for a rehearing of the case of C. B. Nash company of Omaha against the city of Council Bluffs to compel the city council to correct its records relating to the action ordering a special election at which the proposition to issue $200,000 water works bonds carried.
