President at Des Moines Tells What He Will Recommend.

INTERSTATE COMMERCE COURT

Proposes Law to Prevent Watering Stock and One Line from Controlling the Competing Road.

DES MOINES, Ia., Sept. 20 .- President Taft spent a little more than four hours in Des Moines today, and during that time breakfasted with United States Senator Cummins, one of the "insurgent" leaders congress, reviewed an imposing parade of nearly 5,000 federal troops engaged in a military tournament here, and made an open-air address to an immense crowd gathered from all the surrounding country, in which he discussed in detail the changes he will recommend to congress in the interstate commerce and anti-trust laws. The president announced that he would argo the establishment of an interstate commerce court of five members to consider appeals from rates fixed by the Interstate Commerce commission. He also will recommend legislation to prevent interstate railroad companies from owning stock in a competing line and compelling roads thus owning stock to dispose of their holdings within a given time.
