TART RETORT TO METHODISTS

Mrs. James Huff Denies Her Husband is a Mormon.

THEY ARE LATTER DAY SAINTS

Wife of New Penitentiary Chaplain Says, Though, There Are as Bad People in Methodist Church as Any.

"You may say I am not a Mormon, nor is my husband, either. Further, I think there are just as bad people in the Methodist church as there are in other churches. This was the statement of Mrs. James Huff, 78 North Twelfth street, South Omaha, wife of Rev. James Huff, recently appointed by Governor Shallenberger chaplain of the Nebraska state penitentiary. A reporter for The Bee asked Mrs. Huff in the absence of her husband about his attitude with respect to the resolutions passed by the West Nebraska Methodist conference at Kearney condemning the governor for his appointment of a "Mormon elder" to the place before held by a Methodist, the Rev. P. C. Johnson.

"My husband," said Mrs. Huff, "is a pastor of a congregation of the Reorganized Church of Jesus Christ Latter Day Saints and preaches now every Sunday in Omaha at a church at 1818 North Twenty-first street. I am a member of the same faith as he, though I was brought up a Methodist and a strict Methodist, too. The church cannot be called Mormon. Our faith is not the same as that commonly accepted as Mormonism. We have no belief in polygamy. It is ridiculous to make such a charge."

Chaplain Huff will leave Friday for Lincoln to take up his work in the state prison. The chaplain is by trade a carpenter and has lived in Omaha for twenty years.

AD CLUB URGES RETENTION OF THE BEAUTY SQUAD

Commends Its Good Work and Appearance—Crossing Policeman Lectures J. J. Derlight.

"The beauty squad," alias the crossing policemen directing traffic at the intersections of Sixteenth with Farnam and other streets, has received a handsome bouquet from the Omaha Ad club, which has sent this letter to Chief of Police Donahue: "At a meeting of the executive committee of the club a resolution was unanimously passed complimentary of the neat and attractive appearance of the officers who since the beginning of the Eagles' convention have been so capably handling the crowds and preserving order at the downtown crossings. It is to be hoped that the present arrangement will be made permanent, for it adds much to the good impression which we want our visitors to carry away with them."

One of these traffic regulators gave J. J. Derlight a good lecture. Derlight had whizzed round the corner of Sixteenth and Farnam so fast the day before that the officer could not stop him. The next day he held him up and delivered a little dissertation on rules of the road and speed ordinances.

The child is also healthy, strong and good natured. For full information write to BRADFIELD REGULATOR CO. Atlanta, Ga.

Pretty Autoist Shows Up Officer

Wisp of Girl Cranks Up Machine First Time After Big Policeman Failed Repeatedly.

Officer Wilson, traffic policeman at Sixteenth and Farnam streets, has failed in his duty for the first time. A very pretty young woman driving a big touring car, came up Sixteenth and slackened so promptly at the officers' signal that the machine stopped dead.

"You're blocking the way," said the officer. "Well," was the sweet reply, "crank it up and I'll go on." Officer Wilson seized the crank and gave it a manful tug. Then he laid down his club, spat upon his hands and tugged again. A third pull brought it clear around, but the engine refused to respond. The young woman, smiling angelically, stepped out of the car and, looking like a wisp of a fairy beside the burly officer, seized the crank and at the first turn the engine began to purr. The crowd laughed and she drove on.

"I never had hold of one of them things before," said Wilson.

NO TIME FOR REFORMS NOW

Realty Exchange Does Not Press Matter of Stopping Cars at the "Near" Corners.

The car strike was responsible for a little amusement at the regular meeting of the Real Estate exchange. W. T. Graham, chairman of a special committee, was called upon for a report.

"We were selected," said Mr. Graham, "to see the street car company and find out where it stood on stopping street cars on the near instead of the far side of street crossings. We found a day or two after our appointment that the street cars were already sufficiently stopped and we really did have the nerve to make inquiry along the line suggested while the strike is on."

President Robbins appointed C. C. George, Byron Hastings and F. D. Wend a committee to inspect the building of the court house.

COMBINED HOSPITAL PLAN SUITS REALTY EXCHANGE

Scheme to Erect State and County Building in One Will Be Endorsed.

The Omaha Real Estate Exchange will endorse the plan to erect a combined state and county hospital on the campus of the College of Medicine of the University of Nebraska in Omaha.

The exchange stood ready to declare itself in favor of the proposition at its meeting this week, but it was deemed advisable to refer the matter to a committee for one week. All the members of the committee, W. H. Green, D. C. Patterson and Henry Wyman, are in its favor, but like other members of the exchange, felt that it was better to have considered the matter a few more days, that greater weight will accrue from the endorsement. No dissenting opinion was expressed at the meeting following explanations of the medical college and campus plan by Drs. A. C. Stokes and A. B. Souers.

"Can be depended upon" is an expression we all like to hear, and when it is used in connection with Chamberlain's Colic, Cholera and Diarrhoea Remedy it means that it never fails to cure diarrhoea, dysentery or bowel complaints. It is pleasant to take and equally valuable for children and adults. Sold by all druggists.
