said the mayor, and my instructions to the police will be to disarm everybody found with guns on their persons.

The committee also complained the street car company had had some two automobile loads of clubs which they were distributing at the car barns. The mayor said he could not prevent this, as every man had a right to carry a club.

ACHEZ THREW PLASTER AT CAR

Haris Beckett on Passengers and Is Caught by Will A. Campbell.

John Achez, bartender in a North Sixteenth street saloon, was arrested yesterday afternoon for throwing plaster on passengers on a North Twenty-fourth street car and will have a hearing on the charge of rioting, as that is the charge preferred against him.

A southbound car was passing on Sixteenth street between Webster and California yesterday afternoon during the rain when Achez, with his white apron on, ran out from the saloon and dashed a bucket of plaster at the passengers. Some of it was smeared over women and men and some hit a little girl and a woman in the face. Passengers fled from the car in some instances, in one instance in particular. And the sequel of this is Achez's arrest.

Will A. Campbell, manager of the public bureau of the Commercial club, was on the car. The moment he saw what had been done he got a swab of the plaster— he started after Achez, but the latter fled upstairs over the saloon and Campbell stood on the pavement in the rain, meantime turning in a call for the police.

In a very few minutes two plain clothes officers were on hand. Campbell met them and in a minute down the stairs came Achez. He had changed his clothing, but Campbell pointed him out as the culprit and he was taken to jail, mad as a hornet. Achez was a young man, tall, and if he was known there. In fact when the call was received Captain Mostyn told the de-achez used to run a saloon at Fourteenth and Douglas streets, but one day the Board of Fire and Police Commissioners omitted to return him a license.

AUTO MAN CHARGES FOR RIDES

Lets Passengers Think They Are Riding Free of Charge.

"Hey, going down town?" asked a Caldwell street resident of the driver of a big empty automobile moving leisurely down Twenty-fourth street.

"Yes, jump in."

The automobile moved slowly down the street for another block and three more men, rather than patronize the strike breakers, availed themselves of the opportunity to ride in the machine. A block further on a young woman, a partial cripple, was invited to get aboard.

The party was driven down as far as the postoffice and, as a matter of courtesy, the passengers asked the chauffeur what they owed him for the ride.

"Oh, I guess about 50 cents apiece will be about right."

"Well, we couldn't kick," said Bert Miller, "and so we coughed up."

BETTER LET THE MAILS ALONE

People Are Warned by Uncle Sam, Who Issues Warrants for Some.

Some of the street railway strike sympathizers are liable to get into trouble with the federal authorities because of their interference with the operation of the street cars carrying the United States mails. Warrants have been issued for the arrest of one or two parties suspected of cutting the trolley ropes of cars carrying the mails. The names have been furnished federal authorities by the street car company, but will not be given out until the arrests are made.

There is a probability that mails will cease to be carried on the street cars until the strike troubles are adjusted. This has been recommended by postoffice inspectors now on the ground.

TEN DOLLARS FOR CAR FARE

That's What a Stonecutter Who Rides Will Cost.

It will cost a member of the Stone Cutters' union $10 to ride on a street car during the strike, if he is caught at it. The union met Thursday noon and voted this amount as a fine for patronizing the strikebreakers. The money collected will

RECEPTION FOR DR. COOK

Discoverer of North Pole is Guest of Arctic Club of Am.

ADMIRAL SCHLEY PRESIDES

Explorer, in Address, Says His Report is as Complete as Other Preliminary Reports of Arctic Investigations.

NEW YORK, Sept. 23.—Cheered by 1,000 men and women as he entered the banquet hall on the arm of Rear Admiral Winfield Scott Schley, U. S. N. (retired), Dr. Frederick A. Cook told his hosts tonight before the most brilliant audience that he has addressed since he left the court of Denmark. The banquet was given by the Arctic Club of America, of which Dr. Cook is a member, in recognition of his last polar venture, which culminated in his announcement that he had reached the North pole. While there was no official representative from either state or nation, the assemblage was cosmopolitan and enthusiastic. Crowded in the great hall room of the Waldorf-Astoria they listened to the explorer's report and listened attentively to his recital in the form of an after-dinner address.

Among those at the tables were explorers, some of whom knew the dangers and suffering of the Arctic zone almost as well as Dr. Cook himself.

Cook Reviews Trip.

"Men of science were there also, but the explorer addressed them primarily to the great majority of his hearers, whose interest in polar conquest has but lately been aroused by the clamor of the world over the two reported achievements. The address was not technical. He expressed thanks for the honor accorded him, reviewed the history of his quest, and then to attain the pole, paid tribute to the loyalty of John R. Bradley, the man whose money enabled him to undertake the expedition, answered briefly a few charges that have been made against him, and reiterated that he unfurled the flag at the pole on April 21, 1908. Commander Peary's name he did not mention except at the end of his speech, when he said: "There is glory enough for all." Then it was that Peary's name mingled with those of other explorers to whom he referred with reverence.

Dr. Cook appealed to his hearers to accept his narrative of his journey to the pole as he has seen fit to give it so far. "It is complete as the preliminary reports of any previous explorers," he said. "Heretofore such evidence has been taken with faith, and the complete record was not expected to appear for years."

Many Distinguished Guests.

Patrick R. McGowan, president of the Board of Aldermen, sat next to Rear Admiral Schley and in the chair at Mr. McGowan's right sat Bird S. Coler, president of the Borough of Brooklyn, Dr. Cook's home town. Mrs. Cook did not attend the dinner proper, but occupied a balcony box during the latter part of the evening.

Among the other prominent guests present were J. C. M. Danish consul general in New York; Magnus Clark, the Swedish consul; and Christopher Ravn, the Norwegian consul. John R. Bradley was present, but did not speak.

The speakers in addition to Dr. Cook who spoke last were Rear Admiral Schley, Mr. McGowan, Bird S. Coler, Count Moltke, William Brewster, honorary president of the Arctic club, Representative W. S. Bennett of New York, Job Hedges, a prominent local republican and Charles Wake of the Explorers' club.

PEARY REACHES PORTLAND

Commander Given Ovation All Way Across Maine.

PORTLAND, Me., Sept. 23.—Portland, the city of his adoption, laid full claim to Commander Robert E. Peary tonight and from the time of the completion of his triumphant journey through Maine at 7 o'clock this evening until a late hour he was in the hands of his fellow citizens, reinforced by the governor of the state and the president of Bowdoin college, his alma mater.

When Commander Peary and party arrived on the Harbor-New York express a great assemblage, headed by Mayor Leighton of this city and Mayor Hamilton of South Portland, gave the explorer a royal welcome.

Escorted by four companies of the Maine National Guard, a band and a procession of citizens burning red fire, the commander was taken in a carriage to the Auditorium where he was tendered a public reception. Many hundreds passed in line to grasp the explorer by the hand and congratulate him on the latest of his achievements.

On the way to the Auditorium thousands joined in the cheering.

After the reception Commander Peary was banqueted by the cities of Portland and South Portland. At this function he was welcomed by the governor of the state and complimented by half a dozen speakers, including Governor Fernald and President William Hyde of Bowdoin college.

At Vancorbora, the first stop the train made after the train crossed the border, Commander Peary acknowledged the wel-

Thus Far Thirty-Five Counties in the State Have Complied with the Request of King Ak-Sar-Ben.

King Ak-Sar-Ben has tried a new scheme this evening, the out-of-town maids of honor for his court, and has asked the county commissioners of the ninety counties of Nebraska to name the maids to represent their counties. The young women will appear at the coronation ball as guests of the king. The ball this year promises to eclipse any previous effort of the Knights of Ak-Sar-Ben, if such a thing is possible, for the merry monarch has had some splendid fetes in the last fifteen years.

The king has been beautifully decorated in honor of the visit of President Taft, and Gus Rense has some additional surprises for the ball. The Japanese Tea Party will be held at the same place Saturday afternoon of carnival week and again will the big den be gorgeously decorated.

not serious wound. The street was blocked in this vicinity and many missiles were thrown. The sheriff's force, several policemen and a number of special officers were clearing out the mob when the mail car bound to Omaha from South Omaha passed through. The switch on Vinton and Sixteenth street was found to be blocked with stone and brick. The car was forced to stop until the obstruction was removed and a few missiles were thrown at the car. William Kennedy, a pharmacist, employed in a drug store in this vicinity, was seen by Sheriff Bralley to throw a brick at the car and was arrested. Kennedy resisted arrest and the sheriff was forced to club him before he would submit. He was placed in jail without bond and a charge of attempting to obstruct the United States mail will probably be charged against him.

Robert McClurg, Arthur Peterson, Joe Waechter, Joseph Mick, Charles Hannishan, J. E. Hattman, Theodore Greening, A. Mauser, John Sholinsky, Peter Fargo, Chris Nelson, Anton Klinkoff, Guy Porter, Al Burro, Kasim Plimski, William Kennedy, Dollie Snyder and George Kupka are under arrest charged with rioting.

Hartman and Porter were found to have revolvers in their pockets when arrested.

POSTAL MEN MUST KEEP OUT

Warned by Postmaster Thomas Not to Dabble in Strike.

Postmaster Thomas says he will discipline any of the postoffice carriers who take part in any of the street demonstrations arising out of the strike of the street railway men. It is the determination of the postoffice department to remain absolutely neutral in the matter and any public demonstrations of sympathy for or against the strikers is strictly prohibited on the part of postoffice employees.

ALLEGED RIOTER OUT ON BOND

William Lynch Gives Bail of $25 and Has Hearing Later.

The case of William Lynch, who was charged with inciting the street car riots at Twenty-sixth and Leavenworth streets, Tuesday night, came up for preliminary hearing Thursday morning, and was set over until October 4, when it will be tried in connection with other cases of the same nature. His bond was fixed at $25.

Three Children Die in One Day

Two Fatally Bitten by Rattlesnake and Third Drowns After Falling in Well.

MITCHELL, S. D., Sept. 23.—(Special.)—Three deaths are chronicled in the family of John Henderson, who lives on the western border of this state, two of which were caused by the bite of a rattlesnake. Mrs. Henderson went to the well near the claim shanty to draw some water and carried an infant child in her arms, leaving two small children near the house. She heard the children screaming at the house and hurried to their assistance, placing the baby on the ground near the well in her excitement. When she reached the house Mrs. Henderson found that a rattlesnake had bitten both of her children and the reptile was just making way. She looked up toward the well to see if the baby was all right, but could see nothing of it. Hurrying out there the fear that had entered her heart was confirmed when she saw the little infant lying in the shallow water at the bottom of the well. She rescued it in a short time, but life was extinct. Within an hour the two children that had been bitten by the rattlesnake died.

One Dead When Taken Out and Three Others Injured and Taken to Hospital.

PIERRE, S. D., Sept. 23.—(Special Telegram.)—Four men were buried in the caving in of a sewer trench here today. Three of them were taken out alive and taken to the hospital. J. B. Wilson, who recently came here from Carmi, Ill., was dead when he was reached by a force digging for the victims of the accident.

Knox Farmer Leaves Family.

YANKTON, S. D., Sept. 23.—(Special.)—Orville Avenall, a well known young farmer who resides near Aten, Neb., has stirred up a sensation in his neighborhood by eloping with Mrs. Mask of Crofton. Mrs. Avenall this week discovered a lot of letters from Mrs. Mask in the barn. Avenall then made his plans, threatened his wife if she disclosed what she had found out and then forced her to drive him to Yankton, where all trace of him has been lost. Mrs. Mask also left Crofton and both are now fugitives. Mrs. Avenall is the daughter of E. A. Sage of Knox county, one of the best known men in the county. She married Avenall eight years ago and is left with two children almost without means, as her husband has spent his revenue from the farm and realized all he could before his departure on mortgages.
