The Writer of This Story Was Awarded Seventh Prize

A DOMESTIC EPISODE AND HOW IT WAS SOLVED.

By Edna Hubbell, Aged 15 Years, 930 Iowa Avenue, York, Neb., Daughter of B. H. Hubbell; Freshman of York High School. English Teacher, Miss Power.

BY YOUNG man in private family. Any kind of work from kitchen to stable or yard. References. Farnam St. Tel. A——.

"John," said Mrs. Bruce in a complaining voice, "you will just have to get another man to take care of the furnace while you are away. Samson never does a thing I tell him to."

"What's the matter with him?" asked Mr. Bruce. "He seems to be all right today."

"Oh, that's just because you are here. Anyway, we can't have him any more, for I dismissed him this morning." She said this with an air of independence.

"Never mind, dear, we will advertise in 'The Daily ——,'" and it will be no time until we have another one."

The advertisement appeared in the paper next morning, but no one came in answer to it.

That morning Mr. Bruce got up at 7 o'clock (an unheard-of thing for him), and started, or tried to start, the furnace.

When his wife awoke about 9 the house was still cold, but there were funny noises in the furnace room. ! ! -o- ! ! * * * * *

Suddenly a quantity of smoke and cinders burst from the register.

Mrs. Bruce arose quickly and shut it. Then she rang for her maid.

"Is Mr. Bruce in the cellar?" she asked.

"Yes, mum."

"That is all; you may go now."

"Yes, mum."

As Mrs. Bruce crawled back into bed she chuckled, an inhuman chuckle. She was trying to imagine Mr. Bruce doing the stable work and rubbing down the horses.

This went on for several weeks; but one day Mrs. Bruce could stand it no longer, so she went over to tell Mrs. Cook about it.

Now Mrs. Cook took "The Omaha Daily Bee," so she promptly advised Mrs. Bruce to. She (Mrs. Cook) said, "They always seem to have advertisedments about just the things you want."

That night Mrs. Bruce told Mr. Bruce, and the next morning he bought a paper. The first thing that caught his eye was the above advertisement. He hurried to his office and 'phoned the young man. Everything was satisfactory, and the young man began work that day.

The furnace has never acted up; the horses have shone like satin, and from that day on the Bruce troubles were a thing of the past.

Moral: Always advertise in The Omaha Daily Bee. You get better results quicker.

YOU WILL NEVER KNOW WHAT A CLEVER STORY YOU CAN WRITE UNTIL YOU TRY.

North Platte Irrigated Lands

have every advantage over irrigated lands in the far west. They are nearer the Missouri river markets—Omaha, St. Joe, Kansas City, Sioux City and are also near Denver. The saving in freight rates over the Colorado districts is enough to pay a good interest on your money. An investment and a home in means that you are not far from the old home and home folks. It means that you are not a pioneer. There is no frontier line in that valley. There are schools, churches, clubs, societies, lecture courses and chautauquas. The new settler begins living as soon as located. Give your boys a chance and the girls an opportunity by an investment that will pay a good revenue every year and will increase in value—yes, double itself every two or five years.

Land Value Is In Big Crops

Look at the figures. They show what the land will produce under good cultivation with an abundance of water. Why not go out and see them harvesting the big crops? We run another

Excursion Tuesday, September 28

The trip will be a revelation to you. It will explain why we have sold nearly $1,250,000 worth of land in a little over four months. It is a big record of land sales—the biggest ever made in Nebraska. If you want an explanation come and go with us.

We leave the Burlington station at 4:10 p. m. From Alliance we have a special engine and complete train, which takes us to the headgates of the Tri-State canal. There you see the finest irrigation system in the west. It is under this system we are selling lands—perfect title, splendid water supply, abundant and inexhaustible.

Call on us, write, telephone or telegraph at once and we will reserve you a place on our next excursion which will be a big one.

KING PROHIBITS LIQUOR AND THUS PREVENTS RIOTS

This, Says Rev. Adolph Hult, is Why the Swedish Strike Had No Violence.

"The great Swedish workingmen's strike, which was lost, as, of course, everybody knows, was remarkable for the absence of violence," said Rev. Adolph Hult, pastor of the Immanuel Lutheran church, who has just returned from a European tour. "This was attributed to the fact that as soon as it became apparent the strike was to come the king issued an order against the sale of liquors. In Europe, unlike some portions of the United States, they enforce the laws. It was decidedly a dry strike. I was in Sweden when it was at its height."

Mr. Hult, accompanied by Mrs. Hult, departed on their trip abroad on May 9. They visited points of historical interest in all of the principal European countries, making a circuit south to Italy from London.

"We found Rome of perhaps the greatest interest," said Mr. Hult. "Rome is a wonderfully modern city, despite all the history and tradition that clings about it. It presents a peculiar combination."

Mr. and Mrs. Hult were met at the depot on their arrival by a party of the officers of the Immanuel church. Mr. Hult will occupy the pulpit again on Sunday.

OMAHA HIGH SCHOOL NOTES

Debating Societies and Foot Ball Get an Early Start, and Register is Issued.

The boys' debating societies of the High school met Friday for the first time. In the Demosthenian society, Mr. Dennison of the Young Men's Christian association spoke to the boys on the value of debating. Fred Fernald and Robert McCague gave a mandolin duet, and the officers of the society each made a short talk.

A regular program was given in the Webster society, as follows: Violin solo, Joe Woolery; current events, Maurice Shellington; debate, affirmative, Dean Davidson and Will Ross, negative, Harold Moon and Robert Strehlow; talk, Prof. E. U. Graff; original story, Winfred Harms; debate, Harold Graham and James Van Avery.

Prof. Woolery and Mr. Orchard organized a new society today. The members are enthusiastic and will begin work immediately.

Alfred Kennedy, a member of the senior class, has been appointed manager of the foot ball team. He will have charge of all arrangements for the games and will accompany the team to make the necessary arrangements on its trips to other cities.

The high school boys and the Creighton college team will meet in a practice scrimmage game on the grounds today.

A subscription was taken at the high school for athletics. All the money is not in, but about $150 is thought to have been collected.

The first copy of the High School Register, the school paper, came out Friday.

DAY OF ATONEMENT OBSERVED

Jewish People Are Keeping the Fast Known as Yom Kippur.

The Day of Atonement of the Jewish people, known as Yom Kippur, began at sundown Friday evening and lasts until sundown Saturday. Services were held at Temple Israel Friday night and continue all day today until sundown. The regular ritual for this tenth day of the Jewish year, which is set apart as a fast day, will be read at the temple for all the services, and Rabbi Cohn will preach, in all, three sermons. Friday night he spoke upon the theme, "Forgiveness and Love." Saturday morning the subject "Social Service," and Saturday afternoon, "Roses of Remembrance."

The ten days following the Jewish new year are called days of repentence. Yom Kippur is a fast, and for twenty-four hours the members of the church eat and drink nothing. The morning services begin at 9 at Temple Israel, and at 8 in the orthodox synagogues. After the morning sermon passages from the Bible are read by members of the congregation. The afternoon is devoted partly to memorial exercises, and Rabbi Cohn's sermon will be upon a memorial theme.

FIND PASSES IN MAIL BOX

Brown's in Town and Probably Had His Pockets Picked While a Visitor Here.

J. D. Brown, ticket agent for some road at Salt Lake City, was in Omaha, accompanied by his wife. Mr. Brown is a railroad man, as is shown by a bunch of railroad passes now in the possession of Postmaster Thomas, bearing Mr. Brown's name.

These passes were found with Mr. Brown's wallet in a mailbox at Fourteenth and Dodge streets by a letter carrier. It is hardly probable Mr. Brown would have undertaken to mail the passes unaddressed to himself, or that he would have deposited them in a mailbox, so the presumption is Mr. Brown had his pockets picked and the thief, finding no practical use for the passes in the passless state of Nebraska, passed them over to the post-office department.

AFFAIRS AT SOUTH OMAHA

Commercial Club Endorses Street Car Extension to West L Street.

RECORD PRICE FOR RANGE BEEF

J. Ed. Burdett of Montana Tops the Market with a Load of Herefords—Barton Farm Tops the Hog List.

The South Omaha Commercial club met yesterday afternoon. The meeting was preceded by a luncheon at Backke's restaurant. The members had their pictures taken before the public library building, where the business session was held. The principal discussion was the street car extension to West L street. It was ascertained that most of the members were in favor of the movement to open up this section of the city. It was thought the proposition to come through the stock yards was better, if anything, than to come across L street. It was thought better to have the line even if the people might on occasion ride through the business section to Omaha. Any loss by this circumstance would be repaid by the better feeling on the part of the residents of the West Side. It was suggested that this route might easily be made the shortest one to the Union station by joining with the Tenth street lines on the boulevard, or perhaps at Castellar, after passing over the Benson line to those points.

Big Price for Range Beef.

J. Ed Burdett of Midland, Mont., topped the range beef market yesterday with a fine load of choice Hereford cattle direct from the ranges. These cattle were bred and fattened in the Long Pine district of Montana and looked as fine and dressy as the best corn-fed cattle. Mr. Burdett's cattle brought $6.40, which is a record price for range beef.

The year's record for hogs was touched again yesterday by Warren Davis, manager of the famous Barton farm near Gilmore. He brought in seventy-seven head, which sold at $8.30. He said the hogs were less than 9 months old. They were Berkshires. He will bring in another load within a few days just as good.

Hillsdale.

Don't miss this opportunity of securing a lot that is sure to increase in value. Bounded on the north by F street, on the west by 44th street, on the south by "I" street, and on the east by 41st street.

125 choice lots from which to make a selection. All on grade and fronting on 50 foot graded streets with 15 foot alleys in the rear.

The city has purchased a Park Site in the very center of this addition. They have already commenced the development of the same.

The School District has purchased a block of ground in this addition, upon which they are making preparations to build an 8-roomed brick school building. West L street is now being paved.

There seems to be no question, but what the Omaha & Council Bluffs Street Railway will extend their lines west on L street immediately.

This property goes on sale Saturday morning, September 25. Remember the day—one price to all. Come out and look over this property. We know you will be a buyer. Our prices are low, ranging from $175 to $325 for the best corners. None higher. Our terms are most liberal. $10 cash makes the first payment—balance in payments of $5.00 per month.
