

SOCIETY FEELS THE STRIKE

Interrupted Car Service Puts End to Things Planned for Week.

FIELD CLUB'S CLOSE UNEVENTFUL

Dinner Parties Will Be Few and Unusually Small—Calendar for Ak-Sar-Ben Begins to Look Promising.

Straight Up.

The one piece of straight up and down news is that the Ak-Sar-Ben dinner parties will be few and unusually small. The calendar for the week is as follows:

—Houston Post.

Social Calendar.

MONDAY—Mr. and Mrs. F. W. Thorne, an informal evening for Mr. and Mrs. Clyde C. Rissel of Kansas City.

TUESDAY—Mr. R. J. Dinning, a luncheon at Happy Hollow; Mrs. F. J. Jurgensen, a luncheon at Happy Hollow; Mrs. J. Jurgensen, a luncheon at Happy Hollow.

SUNDAY—A luncheon and table d'hôte at Happy Hollow; Mrs. Arthur Hoover, a luncheon at Happy Hollow; Mrs. Arthur Hoover, a luncheon at Happy Hollow.

The social calendar is decidedly affected by the street car strike and the closing of the clubs is scarcely noticed. Usually the closing night at the clubs is marked by one of the largest dinner parties of the season. Last evening, which was the last week-end dance for this season at the Field club, very few dinner parties were given and the guest lists for these were small. At Happy Hollow, the larger dinner parties were postponed indefinitely owing to the car service. There has been less entertaining during the week than at any time this year excepting during the hottest weather in the summer.

During the present lull in society, many are planning for a gay Ak-Sar-Ben week. There will be the usual number of out-of-town guests and the affairs given for them and then there will be a larger number of army people present than have ever before attended an Ak-Sar-Ben ball. The visiting army officers as well as those from Fort Crook and Fort Omaha will help to make the ball a brilliant affair.

Saturday afternoon following the ball, there will be the children's fête, which is to be a Japanese tea this year, and considerable interest is taken in it especially by the parents and friends of the children. Another large social affair will be given by General and Mrs. Charles Morton in honor of the visiting officers and their wives. This will probably be a large business reception at the Field club.

As the visiting officers remain long enough, other affairs will be given for them.

There is a saying that "all good Americans go to Paris, when they die." Perhaps that is because they would feel at home there. During the summer many Omaha people have spent considerable time in Paris, and by spending a short time at the Avenue de l'Opera, one may find all the English speaking people they wish, as so many Americans and English get their mail and also get their money changed there. Among the Omaha people in Paris this summer were Mr. and Mrs. Howard Baldrige, Mrs. Grace Gules, Mrs. Hinebaugh, Mr. and Mrs. W. J. Burgess, Mr. W. C. Sunderland, Mr. and Mrs. Thomas J. Kelly, Dr. and Mrs. O. S. Hoffman, Mr. and Mrs. H. P. Whitmore, and Miss Whitmore, Mr. and Mrs. G. M. Hitebeck, Miss Crouse and a number of others.

At the Field Club.

Mr. and Mrs. Fred Hamilton gave one of the dinner parties last evening at the Field club. Covers were placed for Miss Mattie Robertson, Mr. and Mrs. Frank Hamilton, Mr. Earl Gannett and Mr. and Mrs. Fred Hamilton.

One of the parties at the Field club last evening included: Misses Fay, Thorne, Bertha Hettfeld and Beatrice Cole; Messrs. Leroy Gillespie, Dr. Lieber and Carl Cott.

Other dinner parties Saturday evening at the club were given by Messrs. Henry Kruger, who had covers for eight guests; E. B. Carrigan, four; C. A. Pratt, six; A. I. Root, seven; J. F. Dale, six; W. L. Cook, six; A. B. Pratt, five, and Dr. Cott, four.

At Happy Hollow.

The week-end dance at Happy Hollow last evening was postponed, and also the larger number of dinner parties, owing to the street car strike.

Mr. and Mrs. I. S. Sibley gave the largest dinner party last evening at Happy Hollow. Covers were placed for: Judge and Mrs. J. J. Sullivan, Mr. and Mrs.
