DOBBINS CASE TO GO OVER

Attorney for the Alleged Swindler is Said to Be Sick.

ACCUSED IS KEEPING SHADY

Intimation He Will Keep Out of Sight If He Can Until He is Able to Secure Bail in Case in the Federal Court.

Indications now are that John R. Dob bins, alleged "steerer" for the Mabray gang in the case of T. W. Ballew, the banker of Princeton, Mo. who was bumped for $30,000, will not be tried at the present term of district court. Two weeks ago Judge Woodruff, after consulting with County Attorney Hess, set Dobbins' trial for Monday, October 4. The case, however, has not been included in the assignment for next week, made yeaterday by Judge Woodruff, as the court was informed that Attorney F. H. Mabray Returns to Des Moines. John C. Maybray, alleged head of the 'swindling syndicate" whose detailed system of bookkeeping furnished the government officials with the information leading to the discovery of the army of 'Mikes' and extensive operations of the gang, left Council Bluffs yesterday afternoon for Des Moines, where, until brought back here for trial in December, he will again sojourn in the Polk county jail. The jail here did not appeal to the fastidious tastes of Mabray, who during his support of herself and the children. operations in high finance had been ac customed to the best that money could procure and he was greatly pleased when Post. ED BARTON KILLED BY TRAIN

Steps from One Track to Avoid Train and is Struck by Another.

Edward Barton of Vall, Ia., a bridge car penter in the employ of the Chicago & Northwestern railway, was run down and instantly killed about 8:30 o'clock yesterday morning by Train No. 9, the Northwestern's west-bound fast mail, a mile north of Council Bluffs.

Barton was walking along the tracks towards the city and stepped from the east-bound track to avoid an approaching freight train. He evidently did not notice the fast mail train, which was close to him, and running at a high rate of speed. The pilot struck him in the right side of the back, breaking the spine and crushing the body, which was thrown some distance from the track, to almost a pulp.

Engineer Sutton stopped his train as ruickly as possible and backed to the place where Barton's body lay. It was taken aboard and brought to the city and, on orders from Coroner Treynor, turned over to Davenport had to undergo an operation Undertaker Cutter.
