GRAIN AND PRODUCE MARKET

Decided Dullness Marks All Classes of Trade Last Day.

CHANGES IN VALUES ARE SLOW

Cash Prices Hold Firm, but There Are Some Signs of Freer Selling from Stations in the Country.

OMAHA, Oct. 1, 1909. There was a decided duliness in all grains today and the changes in the market grains today and the changes in the market values were slow and ranged very nurrow. Cash prices held fairly firm, but there are signs of freer selling from country sta-tions and a less active demand, especially from millers and local consumers. While prices have been on the decline for some time, expressed opinions favor the bear side still.

time, expressed opinions favor the bear side still.

Wheat was very narrow and changed very little during the day. Traders are not disposed to favor the long side of the market and with receipts likely to improve from now on the cash situation looks some weaker as the milling demand is slacking.

Corn was dull during the daily trading owing to lack of demand. Receipts are fairly liberal and country seiling is much freer. Some buying by weak shorts at the close started a small advance.

Primary wheat receipts were 1,700,000 bushels, and shipments were 622,000 bushels, spainst receipts last year of 2,047,000 bushels and shipments were 831,000 bushels, against receipts last year of 215,000 bushels and shipments were 448,000 bushels, against receipts last year of 215,000 bushels and shipments of 216,000 bushels.

Clearances were 4,000 bushels.

and shipments of 216,000 bushels.
Clearances were 4,000 bushels of corn, 550 bushels of oats and wheat and flour
equal to 551,000 bushels.
Liverpool closed 1/4d higher to 1/4d lower on wheat and 1/4d to 1/4d lower on corn.

able kinds have met with very ready sale at good, firm prices. On the other hand common and inferior shorted cauth have been rather weak. The buik of the beef suppired have shown comparatively little change, being now just about where they were a week ago. Inferior kinds, as a matter of course, are a little weak and duil on some days, but the market, as a whole, has been in a good, healthy condition throughout the week.

Cows and helfers have been good sellers all the week, and prices are now about the same as a week ago. In fact, there has not been enough change in the market to talk about.
