Some disagreeable person did a cute thing when he or she wrote a letter to Mrs. Slandt, Twelfth and Pacific streets, telling her that Mr. Slandt was to commit suicide at Riverview park and signing the husband's name.

Surprised to Hear He Was to Kill Himself

Man is Also Surprised When His Wife Finds Him with Another Woman.

Some disagreeable person did a cute thing when he or she wrote a letter to Mrs. Slandt, Twelfth and Pacific streets, telling her that Mr. Slandt was to commit suicide at Riverview park and signing the husband's name.

Startled and dismayed when she received the letter, Mrs. Slandt notified the police and, in company with Officer Reigman, sent out from the station, her daughter and a number of friends, hastened to the park in question, only to discover her husband alive and well, but in the company of another woman.

The frightened wife fell upon him, begging him not to carry out his threat, and the officer stood close by to see that he did not do so.

But that the story she told was news to him was written all over his face. The other woman hastened away and, arm in arm, husband and wife, escorted by the grinding officer, went back with their daughter to their home.

Now all is well. Slandt denies having had any intention of committing suicide, and is at a loss to know whence the note originated. He agreed to meet this woman at the hour stated in the park, but that was all, and he says he is now content to let the matter drop.

It will be some time before she forgets that scare the mysterious letter gave her, and the police fear it will be longer before the identity of his writer is revealed.

Not a minute should be lost when a child shows symptoms of croup. Chamberlain's Cough Remedy given as soon as the child becomes hoarse, or even after the croupy cough appears, will prevent the attack, and by its use.

OCTOBER TERM OF DISTRICT COURT OPENS WITH A RUSH

Great Array of Civil Cases Awaiting Trial, with Few Big Criminal Cases.

The October term of district court opened Monday with a great array of civil cases awaiting trial. On the criminal side there will not be such sensational cases nor so many as at the same term last year when the Rustin murder trial was up and Van Wilson Goodell and others were tried. The total number of murder cases this year is four, with Frank Henry, the slayer of his wife, as the most prominent. All the judges were occupied going over the call except Judge Sutton, who listened to the usual excuses for being let off jury
