CORPORATION TAX HOLDS
 Democratic Candidate for Supreme Judge Fails to Break Law.
ANCE IN STATE TREASURY
 Comes in to Take Up War- Registered the Day Before Cause of Lack of Funds to Pay Them.

From a Staff Correspondent.
 LIN, Oct. 8.—(Special.)—Judge J. J. Ryan, democratic candidate for the bench of Nebraska, has been unsuccessful in his attempt to prevent the issue of a tax on corporations under act introduced by Senator King and passed by the 1905 legislature. The case involving the constitutionality of this law was decided today by Judge Frost of the eastern county district court, holding it to be a valid enactment and sustaining the demurrer of Secretary of State Jun- in, against whom the proceeding was directed by the two corporations which brought it.

The suit was commenced by the Mercantile Incorporating company of Omaha, which had paid a tax of $15 to the secretary of state under protest, the purpose of the action being to recover the money. J. W. Burtin and W. W. Slabaugh of Omaha were its attorneys. Later, the Erie Iron Works of Erie, Pa., intervened with Sullivan as its lawyer, also attacking the measure. There were no oral arguments and no testimony was taken, but the case was submitted before Judge Frost on a stipulation of facts and the briefs of the counsel.

Judge Sullivan and his legal conferees will not stop with this decision, but will take the case to the supreme court in their endeavor to have the corporation tax knocked out.

Deficit is Wiped Out.
 State Treasurer Brian yesterday evening reported that the state had been plunged into debt to the extent of $1,000, but this morning when he opened his mail he found $10,000 to the "good." The money received goes to the general fund and the fund for the redemption of outstanding state warrants and will be used to take up warrants that are presented to the treasury for payment.

On the previous day the general fund and the redemption fund were exhausted and when warrants were presented for payment the treasurer was obliged to buy them with state school funds and other state trust funds. Such warrants are registered in the name of the trust funds and the 4 per cent interest, when paid, goes to the credit of the trust funds. Yet registered warrants, though they are owned by the state, are a state debt because the state must pay interest on all registered warrants. If county treasurers pay to the state all that is due it October 10, Treasurer Brian believes the state debt in the form of registered warrants will be kept down to little or nothing until December 1, when new taxes will begin to come in. The state taken up all state warrants and for several years has not permitted any individual holder to register any. No warrants were registered even in the name of state trust funds from June 24 to October 7 of this year.

Malone is Acquitted.
 At the afternoon session of the police investigation the excise board sustained motion of Attorney Strode to dismiss the charges against Detective Malone, on the ground that the evidence disclosed that all he had done in the matter was in obedience to instructions from his superior officer.

Testimony to show that Chief of Police Rickard and Detective Malone had issued strict orders to keep watch on the houses of ill-fame in the bottoms after the county attorney had closed them up, to report anything suspicious and to prevent the sale of intoxicants was given this morning by Policeman John W. Garrett and Adam L. etc., a plain clothes man, at the hearing before the excise board.

New Turn in Bonding Case.
 In order to meet the demurrer of Attorney General Thompson, the American Surety company has amended its pleadings in the federal court so as to allege that the rates fixed by the state bond board are confiscatory. The company is trying to secure a restraining order to set aside the law passed by the last legislature, under which the board has been acting. Its lawyers forgot to claim that the rates fixed were inadequate to the cost of insurance and Attorney General Thompson called attention to this omission while resisting the application, claiming that there was nothing before the court to show that the company was being injured.

Now that the lawyers for the corporation have supplied this defect, the attorney general will offer another line of defense. The company claims in its petition that it has obeyed all the laws and regulations of the state governing its line of business. It will be set forth by Thompson that this is not the case. He will inform the court that the surety concern has failed to obey a provision of the Junkin act which requires it to file reports of its business in its office. Because this has not been done, he will contend that the company does not come into court with clean hands and that it is entitled to no order of any kind.

Cash Needed for Campaign.
 "Hard up" expresses the condition of both the republican and democratic state committees in a financial way. The debt of $300 or $500 that the republican organization inherited from last year has not yet been squared, and the current expenses of the campaign are being held down to a small income. Meanwhile, Chairman Byrnes of the democratic state committee has sent out an urgent appeal from Columbus to party leaders over the state, asking financial assistance. His letter, written to a number of them, states that the committee must have money right away in order to carry on the campaign.

"The democratic committee doesn't need money any worse than we do," said Chairman Hayward of the republican state organization, when asked about its finances. "We are doing the best we can with the funds so far obtained, but are not in shape to do very much that calls for cash expenditure."

Official Assaulted When He Attempts to Enforce Quarantine Regulation.

HASTINGS, Neb., Oct. 8.—(Special Telegram.)—Peter Walthers, a member of the Board of Supervisors of Clay county, died in a sanitarium here at noon today as a result of injuries received in an encounter with John Karney, a farmer living near Glenville.

The trouble arose from Karney's refusal to permit his home to be quarantined for diphtheria by Dr. Bailey of Glenville. Dr. Bailey reported the incident to the supervisors on Wednesday, September 29, Mr. Walthers, accompanied Dr. Bailey to the home to enforce the quarantine. The farmer and the supervisor at once became involved in a dispute and blows were exchanged. The one that was most serious of all was landed on Mr. Walthers' chin, fracturing the jaw bone and causing internal injuries.

Monday Mr. Walthers was seized with paralysis and yesterday afternoon was brought to the sanitarium here. Three physicians last night performed a surgical operation on the man as a last means of saving his life. The doctors found a blood vessel broken near the brain.

Mr. Walthers was about 55 years old and had a family.

John Karney was arrested this afternoon and is in custody at Glenville.

News from Peru Normal.
 PERU, Neb., Oct. 8.—(Special.)—The judicial class elected officers last evening as follows: President, Joy E. Morgan of Up-are our particular hobby. They are of every conceivable color and style, and are sold with an absolute guarantee to save you $3 to $10 as compared to any similar garments shown in Omaha. We don't say you can't get $15, $20 or $25 suits in other stores but we do say, most emphatically, you can't get suits like ours at those prices—thousands to select from.

 $25

If you want something less expensive that is all the more reason why you should see us before parting with your money. We will show you worsteds, chevots, cassimeres and serges in such variety as to fairly stagger you. The same guarantee that we place on all our suits maintains at these prices—to promptly and cheerfully refund your money if you find any store in town able to even meet our prices—fair, isn't it?

$10.00 and $12.00 Suits

One-third of our great second is devoted to outside coats of every description—Toppers, Raincoats, Auto Coats and Overcoats—even boastful competitors do not challenge our claims to Overcoat supremacy. We could write pages of descriptions without exhausting the range of possibilities—we prefer to simplify matters by saying—if you have an overgarment need, we will make your visit both interesting and profitable.

About Over Garments
 Raincoats... $10.00 to $25.00
 Fall Coats... $10.00 to $35.00
 Auto Coats... $12.00 to $35.00
 Overcoats... $10.00 to $50.00

No matter what you desire your boy should wear for what you think you should pay we can perfectly satisfy you at $1.50 to $15.00, but we are extremely anxious to exploit the extraordinary values we offer at popular prices.

Nobby Knee Pants Suits
 We know you will appreciate them the minute you see them. With one or two exceptions, every person who has looked at them has bought. They are most unusual.

land; vice president, Ruth Brownell of Peru; secretary, Carmie Lamm of Gering; treasurer, L. W. Dicks of Johnson. The class is one of the largest in the history of the school.

Prof. Rouse, superintendent of the Model School department, says he is constantly receiving requests for teachers to fill vacancies which are occurring throughout the state. These requests come from all parts of the state and indicate a uniform demand for Peru teachers in the public schools.

The senior class is arranging to hold its first reception in the gymnasium next Saturday evening. The class will elect officers early next week.

 Jury in Judge Hostetter's Court Holds Him Blemishless.
 BROKEN BOW, Neb., Oct. 8.—(Special.)—An interesting liquor case that has twice been heard here within ten days shows a marked difference of opinion existing between two courts. Dan Buckley, who runs the only saloon in the county at Oconto, was brought over here last week at the instigation of County Attorney Gadd charged with selling liquor to a minor through a mail order from another town. The county attorney admitted Buckley ran one of the quietest and least offensive liquor places he had ever seen, but at the same time declared he was going to press the charge strenuously and make a test case of it. The case was first heard before Police Judge Shinn who is also a justice of the peace. After listening to a wordy war between the opposing legal forces, the justice decided that Buckley had overstepped the prescribed limits of the law and imposed a heavy fine with costs.

Buckley, through his attorneys, immediately made an appeal to the district court, which convened this week. The whole case was again threshed out yesterday before Judge Hostetter and a jury. It took a whole day to do it. A big portion of the male population of Oconto—and some from Callaway—warmed over, all eager to testify as to Buckley's excellent standing in the community. Attorney Gadd, on the other hand, tried to convince the jury that the defendant had violated the law and should receive everything that was coming to him. The jury retired long enough to take a single ballot, then returned to the court room with a verdict of not guilty.

London Wise Men Reject Views of Dr. Chas. Wallace

Unveil Tablet on Site of Shakespeare's Globe Theater in Spite of Nebraskan's Discovery.

LONDON, Oct. 8.—A tablet marking the supposed site of Shakespeare's Globe theater was unveiled this afternoon by Sir Herbert Beerbohm-Tree, in the Barclay & Perkins brewery, on the south side of the Thames, in the presence of a large gathering of Shakespeare enthusiasts.

Prof. Charles Wallace of Nebraska nearly spoiled the ceremony by the fierce controversy regarding the actual site of the theater which he stirred up several years ago by publishing two articles in the Times. Literary circles were much interested and a great many letters have been written to the papers. Prof. Wallace contended, on the authority of ancient deeds he had unearthed, that the Globe theater occupied another location nearby. Dr. W. M. Martin, Sidney Lee, the Shakespeare authority, and Sir Herbert Beerbohm-Tree have given a great deal of their time for a week to investigating Prof. Wallace's contention and in a speech today Sir Herbert said the deeds which Messrs. Barclay and Perkins produced proved that "the sage of Nebraska" had made a mistake.

Chamberlain's Colic, Cholera and Diarrhoea Remedy is today the best known medicine in use for the relief and cure of bowel complaints. All Who Would Enjoy good health, with its blessings, must understand, quite clearly, that it involves the question of right living with all the term implies. With proper knowledge of what is best, each hour of recreation, of enjoyment, of contemplation and of effort may be made to contribute to living aright. Then the use of medicines may be dispensed with to advantage, but under ordinary conditions in many instances a simple, wholesome remedy may be invaluable if taken at the proper time and the California Fig Syrup Co. holds that it is alike important to present the subject truthfully and to supply the one perfect laxative to those desiring it.

Consequently, the Company's Syrup of Figs and Elixir of Senna gives general satisfaction. To get its beneficial effects buy the genuine, manufactured by the California Fig Syrup Co. only, and for sale by all leading druggists.
