ATHLETE BARRED FROM CORNELL

Lee J. Talbot, Champion Hammer Thrower, Denied Registration. ITHACA, N. Y., Oct. 12.—Lee J. Talbot, the intercollegiate champion hammer thrower and wrestier, has been refused permission to re-enter Cornell because failed to pass upon one subject in which was conditioned from his freshman year.

IOWA CITY, Ia., Oct. 11.—(Special.)—Plans for the organization of an athletic union for the University of Iowa are under way and a meeting of the class presidents has been called to consider the prelimi-nary details. The organization will be similar to those in other leading western institutions. Five years ago the University of Iowa had such an association, but it was abolished because it attreed up too much electioneering and politics. The promoters of the new union have plans which they plaim will do away with the unfair methods of previous years.

Track Meet in October. IOWA CITY, Ia., Oct. 12.—(Special.)—October 23 is the date set for the first annual track meet of the University of Iowa. Already freshmen track men and the upper class athletes who are not playing foot ball have been training on the track in pre-otal.

The downfall of Wagner apparently disheartened his team mates, for they were as as cay in the hands of Pitcher Mullin during the remainder of the battle. In the fourth Wilson singled to left-after two were out, but Gibson was easy. Pittsburg was again retired in order in the seventi Gibson litt-safety to right when two were out, but Philipi struck out a bunt between Mortarity and Mulim. Abstein and Wilson, however, could not advance him.

Detroit broke Leifeld's defear. The weather was cold and the track debtedness against it, at the date of default and all premiums in arrears with compound interest at the rate of 6 per cent per annum; or, by paying the annual premium or premiums first in default with ompound interest at the above rate have the benefit of the same number of years and days of extended insurance, counting from the date of the premium longest in default, as if said premium or premiums had been paid when due. The notice referred to in the paragraph on extended insurance is to the effect that Walnut Hall farm cup, $1,000 and silver if the insured does not wish the company trophy, presented by L. V. Harkness; 2:15 trotting, two in five:

From the Bale to You

Every man who touches the leaf we use in Contract Cigars is a specialist-a master of his work.

Even in so simple a thing as dampening the tobacco for the strippers, we must have men of long experience-men who know exactly how much to wet the leaf.

For too much or too little water spoils the fine flavor of the choice Havana filler we use.

Enjoy the Contract's delicious flavor today.
