FRIDAY—Meeting of Junior Bridge club; Mrs. Charles Trimble and Mrs. J. O. Yeiser, the secretary of bridge luncheon at Happy Hollow.

SATURDAY—Spens-Keelins wedding, in Council Bluffs; reception; closing table d'hote dinner and dance at Happy Hollow.

The last of the clubs to close for the summer will be Happy Hollow. The closing is scheduled for next Saturday evening, when there will be a table d'hote dinner and dance. Until then there will be many parties given during the week. The directors will give a dinner party Thursday evening in compliment to the base ball nine, who have won so many victories for the club this season. All base ball enthusiasts of the club will also be present. Last evening was the closing of the Country club, although the table d'hote affairs stopped several weeks ago. Everything superfluous at the club, whether edibles or extra furnishings, were auctioned off, affording much amusement and some profit to the club.

There were roast turkeys, apples, doughnuts, window curtains and everything, in fact, that would not be needed by the club this winter. A large number of parties were given at the Harvest Home dinner, some of the guests appearing in robe attire and others who merely watched the fun.

The elect and elite are having a new trouble. It was bad enough when some of their husbands were not invited to the Taft dinner, it was vexatious when Madame de Modiste broke her many pledges that that gown would be done in time for the coronation ball; it was simply distressing when the bachelor officer failed to show up at a dinner because ill; and there are all the ordinary crosses which perturb those who try so hard to have a good time and to queen it socially.

A cowardly but clever anonymous writer has been peddling missives on daily note paper to ten or a dozen of the very proudest performers in the social arena, and the letters are, of course, unsigned.

All of them are personal—intimately personal—in their subject matter and rumor bath it that they are most obnoxious. Partly so, perhaps, on the one hand, because that "nothing hurts like the truth." The fact is, however, that truth and fiction are so interwoven by this versatile and venomous writer, who is supposed to be of the sex feminine, that while the statements made are not really true they approach the truth in such a way that the recipient has the unpleasant feeling that if the statements were made to someone else—why someone else might believe it. These stinging statements are all attributed to one woman who is the last woman in Omaha who would either think these things, or, if thinking them, would let them be formulated in spoken or written words.

The matter is not without its humorous side—for the people who have not been honored with one of the anonymous communications.

Society came out with all its enthusiasm and colors flying for the foot ball game Saturday afternoon, and then took scores of little dinner parties home with it. The great majority of the local young people attending the University of Nebraska came up for the game and many of these entertained or were entertained for during the evening.

Many of the foot ball parties were composed of fraternal men, who received their prizes together. The Michigan alumni was also well represented and the girls from Brownell Hall also attended in a body. The members of the Eta Gamma Delta made up a dinner party at the Rame hotel, the Delta Tau Delta had a dinner at the Schiller hotel, the Phi Delta Thetas at the Henshaw hotel and most of the other fraternities dined together some place.

During the winter there will be a decided change in army circles. Captain and Mrs. John L. Hines, who have been residing in Omaha for two years, will probably sail some time in December for their new station at Nagasaki, Japan. Captain and Mrs. Fred E. Boehm expect to go to Fort D. A. Russell, near Cheyenne, Wyo., some time after the holidays. Some time during the late winter or early spring, rumor has it that the Sixteenth Infantry, now stationed at Fort Crook, may go to Alaska, relieving the Twenty-second Infantry, now stationed at the Alaskan posts.

At the Country Club.

The harvest home dinner, which will close the season at the Country club, took many parties out Benson way Saturday evening.

Miss Miriam Patterson entertained one of the larger parties in honor of her brother, Mr. David C. Patterson, Jr., who is a junior officer in the United States navy. Those present were: Miss Brownie Beas Baum, Miss Mary Donaldson of Minneapolis, Miss Jean Cudahy, Miss Miriam Patterson, Captain and Mrs. Martin Crimmins, Mr. Jack Baum, Captain Baum, Mr. Frank Wilhelm, Lieutenant Nielson and Lieutenant Brown of Fort Crook and Mr. David C. Patterson.

Mr. and Mrs. J. M. Daugherty and Mr. and Mrs. F. A. Nash gave another of the dinner parties. Covers were placed for Judge and Mrs. W. A. Redick, Mr. and Mrs. E. Cudahy, Mr. and Mrs. J. H. Baldrin, Mr. and Mrs. C. W. Hull, Mr. and Mrs. Daugherty and Mr. and Mrs. Nash.

Mr. Joseph Baldrin had as his guests Mr. and Mrs. W. S. Poppelson, Mr. and Mrs. George Prince, Mr. and Mrs. Gould, Mrs. and Mrs. Edward C. Crane of Kansas City, Mrs. William Clarke of Magnolia, P. I.; Mrs. Eva Wallace and Mr. Edward George.

Mr. Ross Towle was host at one of the dinner parties, his guests including Mr. and Mrs. S. S. Caldwell, Dr. and Mrs. Frederick Lake, Lieutenant and Mrs. William Haskell of Fort Omaha, Miss Frances Weasie, Miss Warrell of Albany, N. Y.; and Mr. Elmer Cope.

Dining with Mrs. Ben Gallagher were: Mr. and Mrs. W. A. Paxton, Jr.; Mrs. Randall of Galveston, Tex.; Mr. and Mrs. Scofield of Cleveland, O.; Mr. and Mrs. John A. McShane, Mr. Frank Keogh, Mr. Ben Gallagher and Mr. Paul Gallagher.

Mr. and Mrs. N. P. Dodge had as their dinner guests General and Mrs. John C. Cowin, General and Mrs. C. F. Manderson, Mr. and Mrs. T. J. Mahoney, Mr. and Mrs. Francis Gaine and Mr. and Mrs. L. F. Crofoot.

Dining with Mr. and Mrs. F. A. Brogan were: Miss Mae Hamilton, Mrs. Pauline Wheeler, Mrs. Parley of Emporia, Kan.; Mr. F. R. McKee, Mr. Arthur Gou, Mr. and Mrs. Frank Hamilton, Mr. and Mrs. Isaac Coles, Mr. and Mrs. Harry Cummings and Dr. and Mrs. C. A. Hull.

Dining together were: Mr. and Mrs. John S. Brady, Mr. and Mrs. G. W. Wattles, Miss Bryant of Kansas City, Mr. and Mrs. T. L. Davis and Mr. and Mrs. Glenn Wattles.

One of the larger Dutch treat parties included several members of the Raquet club, including: Mr. and Mrs. T. F. Kennedy, Mr. and Mrs. Samuel Burns, Jr., Mr. and Mrs. Harry Tukey, Mr. and Mrs. B. W. Cotton, Mr. and Mrs. Mosher Collette, Mr. and Mrs. Jerome Magee, Miss Ruth Moorhead, Mr. Frank Holland and Mr. Frank Haskell.

Weddings and Engagements.

One of the larger weddings of the week will be that of Miss Keelins of Council Bluffs and Mr. Conrad E. Spens of Omaha, which will take place Saturday evening. An unusually fine wedding trip is in store for the young people. They will go to San Francisco in a luxurious private car and then sail for Honolulu, H. I.

The wedding of Miss Grace Conant, daughter of Mrs. M. H. Conant, to Mr. Arthur Rogers, will take place Wednesday evening at 8:30 o'clock at the First Christian church. Rev. F. L. Loveland will officiate. The bride's only attendant will be her sister, Mrs. Franklin W. Harwood, who will be maid-of-honor. Mr. Edward B. Boyer will be best man and the ushers will include: Mr. Jack Sharp, Mr. William Robert Wood, Mr. George Later and Mr. Ray Beselin.

The wedding of Miss Aurora Kortlang to Mr. Roland H. Springer will take place Wednesday evening, October 27, at the Memorial church. Rev. John E. Hammon, officiating. The bride will be attended by Miss Florence Brewitt as maid-of-honor, and six bridesmaids: Misses Beatrice Cole, Mable Munson, Helga Rasmussen, Irene Tetard, Ines Bloom and Alma Waltemath. The groom will be attended by Mr. E. B. Conant as best man, and there will be six ushers: Messrs. George Rasmussen, Walter Springer, Will Kortlang, Carl Kornmesser, Alvin Bloom and August Rasmussen. The wedding takes place at 8 o'clock, and will be followed by a reception in the church parlors immediately after the ceremony.

The bridal party at the wedding of Miss Lorraine Comstock and Mr. Harold Everts, which takes place Tuesday evening, will include: Miss Lee Comstock, maid-of-honor; Mrs. Ruth Bryan-Leavitt, matron-of-honor; Mr. B. W. Capon and Mr. Frank Morrison will be the ushers, and Rev. E. B. Jones of Logan, Utah, will officiate. Mrs. Leroy C. Everts of Providence, R. I., mother of Mr. Harold Everts, is the guest of Mr. and Mrs. A. P. Tukey. Mrs. Wingham of Boston and Miss Hinckley of Hinchley, Me., aunts of the groom, have also arrived for the wedding.

A small home wedding of the week will be that of Miss Helen Ribbel, daughter of Mr. and Mrs. George M. Ribbel, and Lieutenant John Pullman of the Second cavalry, stationed at Fort Des Moines, Ia., to take place Wednesday evening at the home of the bride's parents. It will be a quiet wedding, only the immediate friends and relatives to be present. Miss Marion Haller will be maid-of-honor and Mr. Ralph West will be best man. Little Misses Margery Ribbel and Ida Smith will be the ribbon-bearers. Miss Ribbel is a graduate of the college, and was one of last season's popular debutantes. Lieutenant Pullman lived in Omaha six years ago, when his father, Colonel Pullman, was stationed here with the Department of the Missouri.

Sir Thomas Lipton Wants Fourth Race

Game Sportsman Still Covets American Cup He Has Tried So Hard to Capture.

LONDON, Oct. 16.—Sir Thomas Lipton, who will sail for New York tomorrow, talked rather encouragingly today of his prospect of securing another race for the America's cup.

"I am going to New York," he said, "in the hope of arranging another race. I realize that there are many difficulties in the way, but I am convinced that they can be overcome, because I know that the New York Yacht club is composed of good sportsmen, who, rather than have the race die a natural death, will do their utmost to meet me. Neither country wishes the race to become a dead letter. Fighting enthusiasts here are anxious to see whether American designers are still superior."

"I have made three attempts to lift the cup, but always have been licked fairly and squarely, and am anxious to make another try under conditions favorable to all. If both boats start on even terms at Sandy Hook it is bound to be one of the best races the world has ever seen."

Many Entries for Annual Horse Show

Kansas City Firm Enters Valuable Stock at Madison Square National Exhibition.

NEW YORK, Oct. 16.—One of the longest lists of entries ever received for the annual National horse show to be held at Madison Square garden November 1-12, was on file tonight. Two hundred Clydesdales, Percherons and other valuable work horses, worth in the aggregate more than $1,000,000, will be shown by Edward Morris of Chicago, the McLaughlins of Kansas City and others.

Among the exceptional candidates for honors this year will be a string of Irish bred hunters, the first hunters ever sent to the show from abroad.

Impelled by politeness.

The man whose sense of politeness was not entirely calloused looked up from his seat in the crowded car at the stout woman who swayed in front of him. Finally he struggled to his feet and offered her the place.

The stout woman hesitated.

"Before I take your seat," she said, "I want you to assure me that you're yielding it in a cheerful frame of mind."

"I really can't do that, ma'am," the man hastily answered, "I'm offering you the place merely because you ask."

And with a sigh of relief he slipped back into the seat.—Cleveland Plain Dealer.

88 Notes

Now that practically all player piano manufacturers have come out with 88 note instruments, it is important that you distinguish between the Apollo and the imitations. The Apollo was the first to play the entire keyboard of 88 notes. For seven years it was the only player piano that did.

Single handed and alone the wonderful superiority of this magnificent instrument forced all other manufacturers to admit the decided inferiority of their incomplete 66-note players.

Is it not fair to assume that the Apollo, after having been on the market for 8 years, is a better 88 note player piano than others that have been out only a few months?

You are cordially invited to attend the daily complimentary demonstrations of the Apollo. A liberal allowance for your piano in trade; convenient payments for the difference.
