Hundred Volunteer Workers to Take the Field, Under Direction of Pastors.

"resident Omaha is to have its religious census taken a week from next Saturday. On that day 100 or more volunteer census takers will scour the city and will ask pertinent questions of every family in regard to church affiliations and beliefs and the statistics thus gathered will be complled for the use of the churches in their extension work, Each census taker will be given one or more blocks to canvass and the work will be under the direction of the pastors in the various districts. This is the first part of a concerted religious movement among churches of all denominations. The following Sunday the pastors of the forty federated churches will change pulpits none of them speaking in a church of his own denomination. Sunday, November 7, a two weeks' series of evangelistic meetings will begin in each of fourteen districts in the city. One church in each district will be designated as the meeting place and pastors from other distrigts will be in charge of those places,
