HILL SEEKS COAST OUTLET

Rumor Says Burlington Will Buy Moffat Line to Salt Lake.

operation: P. O. Melchior, general manager; H. S. Cable, general superintendent; J. H. Berry, chief engineer. The party has been making a slow tour of Iowa, inspecting work which is in progress in that state, and is headed for the west.

The Burlington is arranging to run two through trains from Chicago to Seattle each day through St. Paul, instead of the one which has been in service for some time. The business has become too heavy for one train to handle. The Burlington will also quicken the time of its Chicago-Denver train two hours and the Colorado Limited will leave Chicago at 9:45 a. m., arrive in Omaha at 11:30, and Denver at 2:15 p. m. the next day, two hours faster than at present.

WESTERN PACIFIC IN THE TIEUP

Connections at Present is with Rio Grande, Which Loses Business to Burlington Because Route to Coast Too Circuitous.

Some big railroad moves are expected to materialize in the far west, but what they will be no one will positively say. The latest rumor has it that the Burlington is about to tie up in some way with the Western Pacific for an outlet to the Pacific coast. This move has been given a fresh impetus by the trip of President Harris of the Burlington and Vice President D. Miller and D. Willard, who are now in Colorado looking over the ground.

The contemplated deal is for the Burlington to get control of the Moffat line from Denver to Salt Lake City and the Western Pacific from Salt Lake City to the coast. The Western Pacific has a splendid low grade line over which the heaviest trains may be moved with speed, but it is over 100 miles longer than the Southern Pacific between Salt Lake City and San Francisco. While the Burlington has an excellent line between Chicago and Denver, it loses a large amount of coast business because of its connection with the Rio Grande, which is a most circuitous route to Salt Lake City. The Moffat line is almost straight across the mountains and should give the Burlington splendid connections for the coast business.

Jimocrats Sore at Shally Again

Kick Because He Comes to Town on Political Mission and Ignores Them and Mayor.

This matter of dishing out money for the hungry pie eaters is not the only thing disturbing the Jimocrats these days. They are particularly hurt by Governor Shallenberger's treatment of Mayor Dahlman on these visits, and as a recognized leader of his party the mayor is entitled to this mark of respect. Let the governor hold his private conferences here with his particular friends, but in doing so need not slight the mayor and his friends. We'll treat him sociably, and won't even attempt to hit him.

CADET TAYLOR NAILS FAKE

At Peace with G. O. P. and All World Except World-Herald.

SAYS SO ON HIS ANNIVERSARY

Celebrates Fortieth Wedding Natal Day by Giving the Lie to Reports in the Democratic Organ.

"This is my fortieth wedding anniversary and so far as I know, I am at peace with all the world, except politically with the World-Herald," says Cadet Taylor.

"Forty years ago today, I pulled an old Washington hand press, working off the weekly edition of my newspaper, the Index, at Wenona, Ill., and my roller boy was Charles S. Diehl, now Colonel Charles S. Diehl, assistant general manager of the Associated Press. I may become reminiscent enough to say that the old Washington hand press was a good one, and when press day was over we didn't need to play golf, for additional exercise. Charles S. Diehl was a mighty bright boy, and I can see him yet with his face and arms well covered with ink, in his big paper apron, industriously keeping out of the way of the flying frisket. He made good as a printer's devil, as he has in his profession as a reporter, correspondent and assistant general manager of the Associated Press.

"After the day's work was done, I took a train to LaSalle, Ill., where our wedding took place, forty years ago this evening. Of the large number present, I think but six are now living.

"But I didn't mean to indulge in reminiscences. What I wished to say was that the World-Herald has put me in the wrong pew. I am a republican, straight and simple, because I believe in its principles. I think President Taft's administration will go down in history as one of the best and most conservative we have ever had and the Bee is doing the right thing in giving it a hearty support, as are both Senators Burkett and Brown. I have lived long enough to see numerous attempts made to sidetrack the Grand Old Party along the lines of liberal republicanism, greenbackism, free silverism and now some of our good but misguided political associates are being patted on the back by our democratic friends and called progressive republicans or insurgents. If a man is a republican, he stands for well-known principles, and he doesn't need to tie up with any 'issues' to better define his political standing.

"I am for Bratley for sheriff. I served on the executive committee in the city campaign last spring with him and he was loyal to the ticket and worked hard for it day and night. He has made a good sheriff, is entitled to a re-election and I believe will be re-elected notwithstanding the World-Herald's attempt to create a division in the party. But Bratley will be stronger than his party, as will Judge Leslie, for county judge, for the people realize that both are square, honest, capable and accommodating public officials, who have made good, and are both entitled to a re-election."

ALLEGED TRAIN ROBBERS GO ON TRIAL NEXT MONDAY

Grigware's Father Comes to Furnish Money for His Son's Defense.

The trial of the alleged Overland Limited mail robbers has been definitely fixed for Monday next at 2 p. m.

The trial will be conducted by United States District Attorney Charles A. Goss, assisted by Assistant District Attorney A. W. Lane of Lincoln. The alleged bandits will be defended by J. M. MacFarland and H. B. Fleharty. The former has been retained as the special attorney for Woods, Torgerson, Grigware and Shelton. Mr. Fleharty will look after the particular defense of Bill Matthews.

About eighty witnesses have already been summoned in the case. The accused men will be tried collectively, separate trials having been denied them recently by Judge T. C. Munger, who will preside during the trial.

Grigware's father is here from Spokane, and will furnish the means for the defense of his son. A strong effort will be made in Grigware's defense on the ground of his former good character.

PERMIT FOR FOREST SCHOOL

Right to Build Issued by Withnell, Subject to Revised Plans to Be Approved.

A permit has been issued for the new Forest school building, to be erected at Phelps and Thirteenth streets. It is described as a fireproof brick building, two stories and attic, to cost $20,000.

When application for a permit was first made for this building the city building inspector refused to issue it and the permit now issued bears the notation at the bottom: "This permit is issued subject to revised plans and specifications to be submitted to and approved by the building inspector."

The school board now expects to get possession of the new wing of the high school about March 1. January 1 was the date originally set, but the later date is now considered the earliest at which the rooms will be ready. When the new wing is put into use there will still be four or five of the rooms in the old high school building in use, so that structure is likely to stand for several years yet.

Both boys saved.

Louis Boon, a leading merchant of Norway, Mich., writes: "Three bottles of Foley's Honey and Tar absolutely cured my boy of a severe cough, and a neighbor's boy, who was so ill with a cold that the doctors gave him up, was cured by taking Foley's Honey and Tar." Nothing else is as safe and certain in results. Sold by all druggists.

MAINS INSPECTS THE HOTELS

State Food Commissioner Visits Kitchens of Eating Houses with Deputy Murray.

State Food and Dairy Commissioner Mains, who has been in Omaha the last few days attending the Master Bakers' convention, has combined business with his visit to some extent. His deputy, B. L. Murray, and Mrs. Harriet McMurphy, have been making a round of the hotels and restaurants of the city to see that the provisions of the state law are complied with. Under the law as amended last winter, the state food commissioner and his deputies now have the power to go into hotels and inspect kitchens and storerooms. It is understood that but little was found in the local establishments to be complained of.

She Was Pleasantly Surprised.

Miss H. E. Bell, Wausau, Wis., writes: "Before I commenced to take Foley's Kidney Pills I had severe pains in my back, could not sleep, and was greatly troubled with headache. The first few doses of Foley's Kidney Pills gave me relief, and two bottles cured me. The quick results surprised me, and I can honestly recommend them." Sold by all druggists.

PREFERS DEATH TO POVERTY

Milo D. Frey, Young Husband, Takes Life with Poison.

WIFE'S HIRING AS COOK CUTS HIM

He Gazes at Commodious Dwelling Where She Works and Contemplates His Death, Which Soon Follows.

Milo D. Frey, dejected in his poverty, stood silent a moment in talking leave of his wife Wednesday night. He looked up at the handsome home of George Barker on South Thirty-seventh street, where his wife was working as a cook to add her earnings to his small wages. Up and down the street there, to the happy homes and the splendor of wealth.

"Good-bye," he said. Then, holding out a tiny vial, "This will do the work—end it all."

Thursday morning Mrs. Frey learned that the body of a man who had given his name as Frey shortly before he had fallen dead on the street, was held at Heafey's undertaking room. She identified the body there and told the story of their family griefs to Concor Heafey.

Misfortune and poverty came upon the Freys. The wife took up her share of the family burdens and sought employment as a servant. Her child, a little babe 1 year of age, went to the home of her mother in Iowa. Frey, a farmer, 26 years of age, got employment with an art store in a position paying but small wages.

Six days ago Frey sought to draw his wage and was unable to collect. This disappointment, together with the depression of his circumstances, completely broke him down. He at that time told his wife that he contemplated suicide. His parents live on a farm near Mankato, Kan.

Frey was arrested while wandering about on the street near Thirty-first and Farnam streets early Thursday morning by L. R. Johnson, a watchman, who believed his prisoner drunk. On his way to a call box, where the watchman intended to call a patrol wagon, Frey sank to the pavement and died.

The coroner and Assistant City Physician Dunn are positive that Frey took a poison, but no trace of it is evident on the body. A post mortem examination will be held to determine the nature of the drug and a chemical analysis may be necessary. An inquest will be held at 10 o'clock this morning.

Cute Bunco Game Fails to Work

Smooth Stranger Almost Gets Away with Little Easy Money from C. N. Dietz Company.

A new scheme to get a little easy money was tried on the C. N. Dietz Lumber company, but failed.

All Omaha is now looking for cement and there is quite a contest to get all possible to supply the trade, as the cement situation is the worst that it has been in years. Hence cement sacks are also in demand.

A man appeared at the Dietz yards and wanted to sell some empty sacks for which 10 cents apiece is allowed by the jobbers. The sacks were counted out and the man given an order for the uptown office for fifty-six sacks, or $5.60.

After he had gone theorman thought he recognized the sacks and on looking over a big lot which the company had piled up to return to the mills it was found that one pile was missing and that the industrious stranger had simply shoveled one of the piles from the warehouse to the sidewalk outside, during the noon hour. The order was headed off.

English Accepts Henry's Plea of Guilty for Life

County Attorney Agrees to Wife Slayer's Plan—Alleged Bigamist May Also Confess.

Frank Henry is ready to plead guilty and take a life sentence in punishment for the murder of his wife. This has been forecast, but it is now added that County Attorney English is willing to accept the offer of the defense and sentence will be imposed Saturday.

Another offender, Fred Hicks, an alleged bigamist, is also expected to plead guilty that day. Hicks is the man whose New York wife heard he had married a woman in South Dakota and inserted blind ads in a trade paper saying that his mother was ill. Hicks fell into the trap and wrote from here, though he did not sign his name. Along came Mrs. Hicks and ran him down in Omaha.

He is to plead to a charge of adultery and will receive a jail sentence because the Nebraska statute does not permit of a prosecution for bigamy here when the offense was committed in another state.

The plea of guilty by Henry is at least unusual in this. His attorneys are willing to sacrifice the advertising they might get out of the trial for the benefit of their client. They feel that he might get worse and probably not less than life, while the county attorney on the other hand thinks it uncertain that a heavier sentence would result from a trial.

Lucile Eaves to Lecture

University Professor Will Open Social Workers' Course at the Y. M. C. A.

Lucile Eaves, assistant professor of sociology in the University of Nebraska, will deliver the first lecture in the series for social workers on the evening of November 8 at the Young Men's Christian association rooms.

This is the course that Miss Jontz of the Associated Charities has planned, with the assistance of the religious secretary of the Young Men's Christian association, My Crossman. It will be designed especially for those proposing to make a study of social help, or to take it up as a profession. The demand for trained workers is such that the promoters of the course expect to see it carried forward to success, in spite of the fact that it is a new thing in Omaha and Nebraska. Other competent lecturers will be announced later.

Man Who Bled to Death Arrested

Alleged Fake Prize, Harry Forbes and Brother, in the Mabray Net.

Harry Forbes and his brother, Clarence Forbes, were arrested in Chicago, Wednesday, on a capias issued from Omaha, for complicity in the Mabray swindle.

Harry Forbes was indicted at the recent session of the federal grand jury, both in Omaha and Council Bluffs. He was indicted at Omaha under the name of Harry Forbes, No. "99", while his brother Clarence bore the number "85."

Capitases for the arrest of both men were sent out from Omaha and each gave bond before the United States commissioner in Chicago, in the sum of $1,000 each for their appearance in Omaha for trial.

Harry Forbes is a former bantam weight prize fighter and it is he who is alleged to be the prize fighter who worked the fake bleeding game in the stunts pulled off by the "millionaire club," of which Mabray was the head. He is further alleged to be the prize wrestler and foot racer that the "club" carried with them to work off their fake wrestling matches and races to the sorrow of the victims of the "club."

KUGEL SEES GOOD RESULTS FLOWING FROM THE STRIKE

Says Trouble Brought to Public Attention Many Grievances that Will Be Redressed.

Councilman Kugel, chairman of the committee appointed to investigate the street car strike, ascertain the causes leading up to it and offer suggestions for preventing similar strikes in the future, has not been able to get the committee together as yet.

"I have made three attempts to have a meeting of the committee," said the councilman from the Tenth ward, "but have not been able to get more than three of the five members together at any one time. Before we begin investigating or taking testimony we must meet and agree on a plan of procedure. That done, we can ask all interested parties to come forward with any evidence they may have, or any suggestions for action by the council or the legislature. I believe that a properly conducted investigation will result in good to all concerned, and that it would indicate mistakes to be avoided in the future."

"There is another phase of the present agitation that should be kept in mind," said Councilman Kugel. "It always takes something drastic to wake up the public. It was only after the Irrogals fire that careful watch of theaters was instituted along preventive lines. The Collinwood holocaust, in which a game of the present children lost their lives brought us all up standing in the matter of protecting schools
