Council Bluffs

HARD DISCUSSES FRANCHISE

Thinks Attorney General Byers Wrote from Imperfect Information.

HELD GOOD BY GREAT LAWYERS

Calls Attention to One Great of Authority Which Mr. Byers Has Evidently Overlooked in His Search.

Charles H. Harl, senior member of the firm of Harl & Finley, local attorneys for the Omaha & Council Bluffs Street Railway company, said yesterday in giving the company's side of the franchise question that in his opinion Attorney General Byers had an imperfect and inaccurate knowledge of the facts, otherwise he did not believe that the attorney general would have made the statements that he is reported to have made relative to the question of the status of the company's charter rights in Council Bluffs.

"We have no knowledge of the opinions of Attorney General Byers and City Solicitor Kimball other than as they are given in the newspapers. It would be perhaps unfair to judge of them from the brief synopsis they presented. It would likewise seem that the discussion in largely academic views of the statement of Attorney General Byers that 'street railways are a public convenience. No one desires to have them ousted.' It is perfectly evident from the reported opinion of Mr. Byers that he has had but an imperfect and inaccurate statement of the facts. Knowing his ability as we do, we feel assured that with full knowledge of the facts he would never have given the opinion with which he is credited. As an example, there were two franchisees to the East Omaha Construction company and Mr. Byers seems to have given attention to but one and that the least important.

"Thinks Information Imperfect. That he should be misled by inaccurate information and assumption of fact is not at all strange. In view of the fact that his time and that of his office is completely taken up by the discharge of his public duties. This is a matter of purely local concern which he, as attorney general, has nothing to do. He evidently made his investigation and gave his opinion simply out of courtesy to the few citizens by whom his opinion was requested. While the newspapers state that Mr. Kimball agrees with Attorney General Byers' those two exceptions would seem to cover the whole question of the validity of the street railway franchise. It is not at all strange that Mr. Kimball, with his better knowledge of local conditions and history, should have a more accurate knowledge of the facts than Mr. Byers.

"These franchisees and the rights of the street railway company have been investigated and passed upon by Parker, Sheehan & Collins of New York, the firm of which Judge Alton B. Parker is the head; by Strong & Cadwallader of New York, the firm of which Mr. Wickersham, the present attorney general of the United States, was then a member, and by Guernsey, Parker & Miller of Des Moines.

"All of these gentlemen investigated the validity of the street railway franchise for clients not then interested in the property, but who desired an investigation made of the validity of the franchise in order to determine whether or not they would invest large sums of money in its bonds.

"Likewise, John L. Webster of Omaha, the general counsel of the street railway company, made careful investigation of the validity of these franchisees in order to advise his clients whether or not to acquire the Council Bluffs properties. Each of these eminent lawyers made this investigation from an absolutely impartial standpoint, and in order that they might give an opinion to clients upon matters of great importance.

"It would be impossible to find east or west lawyers of greater eminence or upon whose legal judgment more implicit reliance is placed by great business interests.

"Not Inviting Controversy. The street railway company is not an entertaining or inviting controversy, but will continue in the future, as it has in the past, to endeavor to merit the confidence and good will of the people of this city. It has given to our citizens a street railway system which is looked upon by experts as a model and unsurpassed in its equipment and service by any street railway line in the United States. It has introduced methods tending to the comfort and protection of the lives of its passengers, employees and the public that have been copied by the street railway lines of metropolitan cities.

"When the question of the removal of the institution for the deaf was being agitated our Commercial club, the city council, relying upon the provisions of a franchise which had been granted to the Council Bluffs, Taber & Northern Railway company, pledged the honor of the city to the construction of a street railway line to the institution if it was not removed.

"When the failure of the Taber line to materialize left our city without any means of carrying out its promise it appeared to the street railway company. That company, without the shadow of legal obligation therefor, but purely as a matter of public spirit and to enable the citizens of Council Bluffs to comply with their pledge to the state, invested many thousands of dollars in the construction of a line to the institution, with the absolute certainty that it was entirely unjustified as a business proposition and done only as a matter of public spirit, and to meet the request of our city. Only a few weeks ago the advent of the first car over that line was received at the institution with the claim as a redemption of the pledged faith of the city.

"Every committee of the city council, of the Commercial club or of citizens who have gone to the officers or directors of the street railway company with a request have been received with courtesy and their request considered in a spirit of broad liberality. No request has been made upon the company to aid in any public enterprise of Council Bluffs where the request has been refused. This action has taken from the Commercial club the demand of a few people not backed up by the majority sentiment of the city for a 5-cent temperance worker at high school. Mrs. Edith Smith Davis, national and world's superintendent of scientific temperance instruction, will speak at the Council Bluffs high school assembly Friday morning at 9 o'clock. She will be accompanied across the river from Omaha, where she is attending the national Women's Christian Temperance union convention, by Miss Josie Sullivan of University Place, Neb., Nebraska, the superintendent of the same department.

Boys Accused of Forgery. Trying their hands at a little finance is responsible for three young lads. Howard Bundy, aged 12; Lawrence Perry, aged 12; and Harry Rablin, aged 15, being taken into custody yesterday, charged with passing a forged check. They were released later in the custody of their parents and will, if the case is prosecuted, be brought before Judge Snyder in the juvenile court. The boys are charged with forging the name of Perry's father to a check for $5, which they succeeded in cashing at a Broadway grocery, where the Perry family traded. Bundy and Perry declared to the officers that they had been put up to writing out the check and passing it by the Rablin lad.

MATTERS IN THE DISTRICT COURT

John Scherer Dismisses His Damage Case Without Prejudice.

Following a motion on the part of the defense to take the case from the jury and direct a verdict, John Scherer, in district court yesterday, dismissed a damage suit against the Alifair's Meat company, the trial of which was begun Wednesday. Scherer sued for $2,000 for injuries alleged to have been received while in the employ of the defendant company.

Judge Woodruff yesterday decided the suit of J. P. Matthews, guardian, against Bert E. Nash and others in favor of the plaintiff. The suit was brought to set aside the purchase of Texas land by Mrs. Matthews, who, shortly after the transaction, was adjudged to be of unsound mind and was committed to an asylum. The decision sets aside the full amount paid and interest. Nash, at the time of the transaction, lived in Chicago, but is now a resident of Des Moines. The Western Land company of Chicago was a party defendant.

A decree of divorce was granted Mrs. Marjette Perrine of this city. Charles L. Perrine, and she was also awarded the custody of the minor children. Because, as he alleges, his wife refused to cook his meals and otherwise treated him in a cruel and inhuman manner, August Land sued a divorce from Mrs. Perrine, in whom he was married July 2, 1908, and from whom he separated only a day ago.

Mrs. Florence L. Kelley asks for a divorce from James E. Kelley, to whom she was married December 4, 1895, in Plattsmouth, Neb. Mrs. Kelley charges her husband with cruel and inhuman treatment, failure to provide and habitual drunkenness. The plaintiff, who resides at 1711 Avenue E, asks the court to issue an injunction restraining her husband from disposing of his property.

Because, as he alleges, they permitted cockleburrs to grow on the farm which they rented from him, Ernest Eysberg has brought suit for $200 against George L. and Robert McLean. The farm on which the cockleburrs are alleged to have thrived is located in Washington township.

SWITCHMAN LOSES BOTH FEET Falls in Front of Moving Car While in Act of Setting Brake.

J. B. Sullivan, a switchman in the employ of the Chicago Great Western railroad, while at work in the local yards early yesterday morning fell under a passenger coach on which he was attempting to set the brake and had both feet cut off about the ankle. Sullivan was employed in "cutting out" the passenger coach and was on the platform attempting to set the brake when the wheel is said to have come off in his hand and he was precipitated head foremost in front of the moving car. It is said the accident was due to the fact that the burr of the brake wheel was missing.

Sullivan, it is said, had only been at work here a few days. He is 28 years old, single and his home is in Elkhardt, Ind. He was taken to the hospital, where he is being attended by Drs. Macrae and Lacey. He was said to be resting easily last evening and indications are that he would survive his injuries.

TAKEN BEST MAN SHE CAN FIND The Groom Happens to Be Her Divorced Husband.

"I've tried hard to get a better man for two years and could not, so I've decided to give him another trial," said Mrs. Minnie Simmons as she and David P. Simmons, from whom she has been divorced on March 12 of last year, applied for a marriage license last evening to Harry M. Brown, clerk of the district court. The license was issued and Justice E. B. Gardner, who had been called to the court house to perform the marriage ceremony, officiated at the wedding which took place in Mr. Brown's private office.

Mr. and Mrs. Simmons appeared at the court house some time after the office had been closed, but Mr. Brown in response to a telephone call returned and issued the license.

Accused for Wife Desertion. Isaac Newton Ryehman was arrested yesterday under an indictment charging him with wife desertion. He gave bond and was later released pending his trial. Last April, according to the story of Mrs. Ryehman, the house which they occupied was sold and they were forced to seek quarters elsewhere. Her husband, she said, left home, saying he would seek another house. Mrs. Ryehman did not hear anything from her husband for about three weeks and she was forced to sell part of the furniture to obtain food. Subsequently she caused her husband's arrest on the charge of desertion, but at the hearing before Justice Cooper the case was dismissed on Ryehman's agreeing to contribute to his wife's support. This he failed to do, so Mrs. Ryehman said, and she caused an indictment to be returned against him at the present term of court.

Man Falls on Another's Head and Kills Him

Peculiar Accident Happens to Workman and Man Who is Passing New Building.

(From a Staff Correspondent.) DES MOINES, Ia., Oct. 21.—(Special.)—While walking during famous times, which is in course of construction, W. J. Kennedy of St. Louis, a workman, fell from the second story to the ground, striking John Holmquist, a tailor, Holmquist was killed, Kennedy was but slightly injured. Holmquist was passing by on his way home to dinner.

Minority stockholders of the Mutual Telephone company will start action again in court to have the lease of the Mutual to the Iowa set aside as soon as the lease is made. This action will be taken before an appeal is taken to the supreme court.

Governor Carroll today appointed Dr. J. A. West of Des Moines, and Dr. T. F. Cook of Burlington to the two vacancies on the State Board of Dental Examiners.

John M. Terry, aged 75 years, a grandson of Zachary Taylor, twelfth president of the United States, was married here to Mrs. Mary M. Terry, aged 63 years. In the $20,000 libel suit brought against the Daily News here by W. H. Slingerland, superintendent of the Iowa Children's Home, for statements in the News concerning the home, Mrs. L. D. Robard of Omaha testified she had visited the home and found the babies so poor and ill-kept that she complained to the Humane society.

Councilman Hamery of Des Moines testified he made an investigation of the home and found the children emaciated and poor. He said they looked like pictures of a band with cruel and inhuman treatment. Elizabeth Baird, secretary of the Humane society, testified substantially the same. Etta Bartrug, once employed as a nurse, testified that because of short milk supply many of the children were fed on barley water which they couldn't retain on their stomachs and that one boy wasted away on the diet until he died.

NEW LIBRARY FOR MORNINGSIDES Additional Are Also to Be Made to Present Buildings.

SIoux CITY, Ia., Oct. 21.—(Special Telegram.)—The trustees of Morningside college today decided to erect a new $100,000 library building and additions to the present buildings. It was decided also to add an agricultural course to the present curriculum. The meeting was held at the Young Men's Christian association building and was attended by many citizens who had been invited to meet the new president, Dr. Luther Freeman, who came here recently from Kansas City.

Friction Over Discipline. SIoux CITY, Ia., Oct. 21.—(Special.)—Friction over questions of discipline is said to be the reason for the resignation of Dean L. G. Wald of the college of liberal arts in the University of Iowa. The resignation was accepted by the Board of Education at Des Moines early this month, according to an announcement made here yesterday by Chairman W. R. Boyd of the finance committee.

Prof. Wald will continue as head of the department of mathematics. No successor has been named, but it is understood that the new dean will be one of the present members of the liberal arts faculty. Among the names that have been mentioned are Prof. Benjamin F. Shambaugh, head of the department of political science; Prof. W. C. Wilcox, head of the department of history, and Prof. I. A. Loom, head of the department of political economy. Loom is at present on a year's leave of absence in the west. Prof. Charles B. Wilson, head of the department of German, is probably the most popular member of the faculty in the estimation of the other professors, but it is doubtful if he would accept the position.

A new department was installed in the university at the same meeting, that of mechanics. Prof. A. G. Smith is the head of the new department. Provision was also made for the granting of scholarships for the Okoboji laboratory, at Lake Okoboji, during the summer.

Triangular Debating League. IOWA CITY, Ia., Oct. 21.—(Special.)—After withdrawing from the State High School debating league, the Iowa City High school has entered into a triangular league with Marshalltown and Grinnell. The same question adopted by the state organization will be debated. The strain of the championship debates on the high school boys is given as the reason for the change.

The longer cold hangs on, the more it weakens the system. Cure it promptly by using Chamberlain's Cough Remedy.

Triangular Debating League. IOWA CITY, Ia., Oct. 21.—(Special.)—After withdrawing from the State High School debating league, the Iowa City High school has entered into a triangular league with Marshalltown and Grinnell. The same question adopted by the state organization will be debated. The strain of the championship debates on the high school boys is given as the reason for the change.

The longer cold hangs on, the more it weakens the system. Cure it promptly by using Chamberlain's Cough Remedy.
