

HENRY GOES UP FOR LIFE

Young Man Who Kills Wife Contrite When Sentenced.

EXPRESSES SORROW FOR CRIME

Judge Sutton Tells Him It May Be Friends Will Intercede in His Behalf and Cut Imprisonment Short.

Frank Henry has received a sentence of imprisonment for life in punishment of the murder of his wife, Maude Galloway Henry, at the home of her mother July 3 of this year.

Sentence was imposed by Judge Sutton in district court. A little group of people heard Henry say a few words, then remarks by his attorneys and by County Attorney English and a few more by the court. Mrs. Henry sat in a chair behind her son; Will Henry, a brother, was also present, but neither Mrs. Nichols, mother of the murdered girl, nor her brother, Edward Galloway, attended the imposition of sentence.

"I had a good wife," said Henry, when the court asked him if he wished to be heard. "I am sorry she is dead and I am sorry that I was the cause of her death."

"I have not been a criminal. I have known nothing but hard work, and when I came home from work, I wanted to find my wife at once. I think our troubles were due to outside interference."

"I wish to thank the court for appointing my attorneys, and I want to thank them for their work in my behalf. I also wish to thank you, the county attorney and court. That is all."

Lawyers in Court Speak.

E. F. Morearty of counsel for Henry then said: "Whatever a curious public may fancy because this man shot and kills his wife, he is not a hardened criminal. His record otherwise is clear. What brought him here is, I think, neglect of his mother's wish that he should not neglect religious influences and had he kept in touch with such influences he would not be in his plight."

T. H. Matters, Henry's other lawyer, then spoke briefly, saying that after working on the case for three months, it had seemed wise to Morearty and himself to make the offer of a plea of guilty to the county attorney with a life penalty.

"You can be a gentleman, even in the penitentiary," said Judge Sutton, "because you are sorry that you killed your wife. I shall not order that on the anniversary of the murder you stay in solitary confinement, as is customary."

"You are young and because this is the only charge against you, you may hope that some day friends may intercede for you and may be successful. This is no promise and even to hope you must so live that you will be an example to the other prisoners."

Henry will not go to Lincoln until Monday or Tuesday.

Governor's Speech No Hit With Jims

Shallenberger Fails to Please Dahlemites in His Welcome Address to W. C. T. U.

Governor Shallenberger's speech at the Auditorium in welcoming the Women's Christian Temperance union delegates doesn't make a hit with very many of the local democrats.

"He was here to make a welcoming address for the state of Nebraska," said one, "and had a splendid opportunity to deliver his famous peroration to the flag. Instead he shot directly into the political end and assumed to pledge the Nebraska democracy, by implication, to the straight anti-liquor campaign. Maybe he can deliver the goods, but we seriously doubt it. And his illustration of home rule was neither happy nor apt. There are homes and houses, and many a home where there is no sentiment at all for prohibition is of vastly greater benefit to the community and the nation than the childless homes where only money is worshiped and sumptuary laws idolized, to the exclusion of common sense and a fair degree of respect for others' opinions."

FORMAL TRANSFER OF GOULD SUBSIDIARY LINES IS MADE

They Are Absorbed by the Missouri Pacific Without Changing Management.

The transfer of the subsidiary line of the Missouri Pacific in Nebraska to the new consolidated Missouri Pacific corporation took place in Omaha Saturday morning at a meeting of the stockholders of the minor lines. The transfer is part of the general plan of consolidation of the separate lines into one system which has been going on for several weeks. The lines conveyed are Omaha, Ber, and the Nebraska Southern railway. The Omaha Southern railway, The Pacific Railway in Nebraska.

The meeting of the stockholders was held at the local Missouri Pacific offices and brought to Omaha a number of prominent Missouri Pacific officials. James W. Orr, assistant attorney for the Missouri Pacific at Atchison stated that the transfer did not involve any change in the management of the line nor in the officials or employees at present. "The roads have practically been owned by the Missouri Pacific and the change is largely technical. It is impossible to say what changes may be made in the offices of the road eventually, but there will be none at present."

Among the officials present at the meeting were E. B. Schuyler, general auditor; E. G. Marham, assistant general solicitor; E. M. Curtis, secretary; Frank W. Ireland, secretary, Missouri Pacific, all of St. Louis; James W. Orr and J. M. Chatters, assistant attorneys, Atchison; A. R. Talbot, attorney, Lincoln.

... GIFTS ...

A gift is, or should be, an expression of affection or sincere regard. As such it is not the cost but the appropriateness that counts. A small gift which shows care in selecting and thought for the needs or desires of the recipient is often more acceptable than one which shows merely the expenditure of money. Our experience in gift selection is always at your service, and our immense stock of jewelry, silverware, cut glass, precious stones, etc. gives you a choice unexcelled in the city. We also do exceptionally good jewelry repairing.

The Royal Acorn
It is certainly the best hard coal stove on the market. This statement alone would perhaps be of little value. The same might be said about any stove made. But we are prepared to prove our statement with regard to the Royal Acorn, to your satisfaction. We will show you why and wherein it is better than any stove you ever saw.
The Powerful Double Heater is the greatest improvement ever put into a stove. Adds fully one-third to the heating power of the stove and does not add a penny to the fuel bill. We do not ask you to take our word for the value of the Acorn. We offer you the written testimony of more than three thousand Omaha users. Every stove bears the manufacturer's name and guarantee. You surely cannot afford to buy a base burner until you investigate. Acorn Base Burners from $25.00 upward. Cash or easy payments. Open evenings until 8 o'clock.

YOU may have an idea that our store and our clothes are not very different from other stores and other clothes; that it doesn't make very much difference where you buy your suit or overcoat; nor very much difference what you buy. When you come here and ask for Hart, Schaffner & Marx clothes, you'll realize that such an idea is a mistake. These clothes are different; they're all-wool, and that's unlike most clothes offered you. They're perfectly tailored, correct in every detail of style, and they fit.
It's such clothes as these that make this store different; you can't buy them elsewhere. You'll see the difference when you come in.
