Council Bluffs

Think Council Should Take Positive

Action on Street Car Franchise.

Assert that if Suburban Franchise is Valid Company Has Rights in Streets of City for Thirty-

The failure of the Council Bluffs city ouncil to take some action looking toward terminating what rights, if any, the Omaha & Council Bluffs Street Rallway company had under the franchise granted the Council Bluffs, Lake Manawa & East Omaha Construction company in 1897 is not at all pleasing to the residents of the western part of the city, who were esponsible for Attorney General Byers and City Solicitor Kimball investigating the matter of the status of the company's charter rights on the streets of Council

The instructions given to City Solicitor Kimbali and the judiciary committee to "take up" the matter of this particular franchise, they contend, is entirely too indefinite. They insist that explicit directions should have been given the city attorney and the committee take the necessary steps to have the courts determine whether or not this franchise was still in force. Attorney General Byers gave it as his opinion that the street railway company had long ago forfeited any rights under this charter, which is commonly known as the Suburban franchise. and under which it is generally supposed the street railway company is now operat ing in Council Bluffs.

No Use to Delay Action. There is no use in delaying matters,' aid one of the officers of the West Council luffs Improvement club yesterday. "In he face of the opinion of the attorney general that the 1897 franchise, better nown as the Suburban charter, is null nd void, and has been for a number of ears, it behooves the city council to dermine by action in the courts if necesary just what rights the company has on he streets of the city, and how long these ights will continue

Mr. Kimball gave it as his opinion that ne question of the validity of this 1897 ranchise could alone be determined by he courts, and if this is the case what is he use of delaying matters. It is not likely that the street railway company will oncede that this franchise is of no acount, and if the city council desires to have this question settled before the exsiration of the 1886 franchise, in October, 1911, it ought to get busy at once and have its legal representative take the necessary steps to have the question settled by the

The failure of the council to instruct the city solicitor to take the matter into court, t is understood, will result in the organiza tion of citizens of the western part of the city who are determined to employ counsel and bring suit to have the 1897 franchise declared invalid. Until this franthise is declared by the courts to be in valid the street railway company can, they contend, claim rights on the streets of the t was decided to try the larceny charge is this is regarded as the stronger of the wo.

As Dobbins will be the first of the Mabray gang to be brought to trial the case will naturally be somewhat of a test one and the outcome will be watched with considerable interest. Dobbins' trial in the district court is set for November 15, while that of J. C. Mabray in the federal court will not be held until December 7. The state has served notice on the defense that it intends to introduce the testimony of several witnesses who have already been subposnaed by which it is expected to show that Dobbins secured part of the $30,000 out of which Banker Ballew claimed he was robbed or swindled. Dobbins is said to have received $7,500 as his share of the plunder in the Ballew case. It was the rule of the "big store syndicate," as shown by the memoranda found in Mabray's trunk after the latter's arrest in Little Rock, Ark., to give the "steerer" who brought the victim into the clutches or the gang, 50 per cent of what the Mike was fleeced out of. W. H. Martin is said to have also acted as "steerer" in the Ballew case and the $15,000 which represented the steerer's share of the banker's money was

by His Son. Emelay Clinkenbeard, who had a grading contract in Rohrer's park addition where considerable work is being done at present, dropped dead yesterday afternoo from heart trouble while loosening the dirt in a high bank. He was alone at the time, but it was only a short while after that his dead body was found by his son, who was driving one of the wagons in which the dirt from the bank was being hauled to fill a low place nearby.

Clinkenbeard's sudden death occurred during the interval between the departure of one wagon and the arrival of the one on which his son was. He had assisted in loading one wagon and while awaiwing the arrival of that on which his son was, Clinkenbeard started to shovel the dirt down from the top of the bank, when at-
