E. S. Weatherly, 210 First Natl. Bank Bldg.
Finishing Farnam Asphalt—Much to the delight of the merchants of lower Farnam street, the asphalt workers have started out with the top layer. The main thoroughfare of the city has been in a state of space for some time.
Protocols to Taxpayers Ready—City and County Treasurer Furray has postal card replies to taxpayers all made and addressed to his office. They will be mailed Monday, calling attention to the fact that taxes are now due and the treasury open to receive them.
Two Winnebagoes Missing—The police are looking for Andrew Starback and his wife, Winnebago Indians from Fender, Guy Graves, district judge at Fender, who were taken that they are wanted for debt. The police have not found the Indians.
Republican Committee Meeting—A meeting of the republican city committee has been called for Saturday afternoon at 2:30, on the sixth floor of the Bee building. The object of the meeting is to promote the candidacy of the republican school board ticket and the republican police judge.
Settle Appeals His Case—B. Edward Zeiss has appealed to district court from the decision of Der Shudge Alstad in the matter of a $2 award to August Meyers. Meyers left an old hat in the Zeiss store when he bought a new one and came back for it thirty days later, when the hat could not be found. The justice court suit followed.

Duelist Up for Murder Soon—Gus Shivers, who fought a spectacular duel with Charles Johnson, another neuro. over a white woman, and killed her man, will be put on trial in the district court next week for first degree murder. The duel took place at the rear of the Brown flats Twelfth and Chicago streets, a scene of other bloody affairs.
Madellin Goes to Cross Bankrupt—Deputy United States Marshal G. W. McCullum went up to Madison a day or two ago to close up the bankrupt establishment of Edward H. F. Kane, an involuntary bankrupt. Kane conducted a harness establishment. The referee in bankruptcy, J. P. Weatherly, asked that the concern be closed pending the appointment of a trustee in bankruptcy for the concern.
Maid is Afraid of Chauffeur—Clara Eckhart and "Dick" Sealey are employed by the George Hoagland household at Forty-eighth and Dodge streets. Clara is a maid and Dick is the chauffeur. The maid appeared before a justice of the peace and swore out a warrant, purporting to protect her from the chauffeur, as she alleged that she considered her life in danger. She asserts that Sealey has repeatedly insulted her and abused her and that she feared violence from him.
Carload of St. Joe Grain Men Coming—St. Joseph will send a carload of grain men to Omaha December 15, grain dealers' day at the National Corn exposition. This is the word brought back from there by Will A. Campbell of the Commercial club. Kansas City has already promised two carloads with Congressman Ellis and Governor Hadley. Governor Hadley, while here, will be entertained by a number of former students of Northwestern university of which he is a graduate.
New Apartment House—A new apartment building is to be erected at the corner of Twentieth and Jones streets by Florence B. McArthur, who has just bought the two lots on the southeast corner of the intersection through the D. V. Sholes company. The consideration for the lots was $1,000. The plans for the building have not been decided on yet, but it is said it will be a three-apartment flat. The site is a part of the Milton Rogers addition that was recently graded to street level.
A. N. Davis Wants to be a Bankrupt—A. N. Davis, a South Omaha merchant, is having trouble with certain of his creditors who have asked that he may be declared bankrupt. The petition was filed in the United States court Friday, the petitioning creditors being the H. J. Hughes company, Armour and company, and the Iken Biscuit company, all of Omaha. The petition alleges that Davis has given chattel mortgages and other preferences to creditors to the sacrifice of the interests of the petitioners.

Dahlman Roasts the Governor
Accuses Democratic Chief Executive of Being a Wolf in Sheep's Clothing.
Defeat the prohibition move was the issue for discussion last night at a meeting of democrats at the John A. Crighton club on Twenty-third and Leavenworth streets last night.
Mayor Dahlman was the principal speaker. He told the history of the fight against the contest in the state and accused Governor Shallenberger of being a wolf in sheep's clothing. The mayor claims that to take away the privilege of making, buying or selling liquor in any form was a denial of personal liberty and should not be permitted. He urged every democrat to work for the success of the county ticket on next Tuesday.
Other speakers were: James O'Hara, W. S. Shoemaker, candidate for police judge; Edward Lawler, for register of deeds; Albert Kaplan, for justice of the peace, and John E. Heagan, chairman of the county democratic committee.
Darkey Remembers Friends and Foes
Once Figured in Lawsuit with Lawyer, but Was on the Other Side.
W. H. Coffey, janitor of the Board of Trade building, has a long memory for a friend and also for a foe.
Coffey, who is a colored man, was being quizzed as to jury eligibility before Judge Sutton.
"Do you know W. H. Cooper, attorney for defendant?" asked L. J. Flatt, who is prosecuting a "stick-up" case.
"Yes, sir; I know him," said Coffey. "Had business dealings with him?"
"I don't want to answer that, please."
"Did he represent you in a law suit?"
Coffey began to grin. The smile spread expansively from ear to ear and a few of the other veterans who thought they were "on" also smiled.
"No, sir," Coffey finally said "He was on the other side."
Further inquiry developed that the case occurred fifteen years ago. Coffey was a large for cause.
NEW RECORDS BY SIXTEENTH
Troops at Fort Crook Set New Mark with Machine Gun and at Wall Scalloping.
Two world's army records, one for fast machine gun firing and the other for wall scalloping, were broken yesterday by the Sixteenth United States Infantry, which is at target practice at Fort Crook. The machine gun platoon, under command of Lieutenant Michael, made a record of 463 rounds, against 504 seconds, its own former world's record, made at Des Moines a month ago, for packing, unpacking, running 100 yards, firing and running back 100 yards.
The other record, that for wall scalloping, was made by the eight-man team of the same regiment by running twenty-five yards, scaling a ten-foot wall and fifteen yards beyond and firing. The record was reduced from 26 to 13 seconds.
SQUARE DEAL CLUB IS DEAD
For That Reason C. E. Fields Says It Could Not Have Held a Meeting.
"An alleged meeting said to have been held by the Square Deal Republican club to denounce Sheriff Bradley was a pure fake," said Judge C. E. Fields, secretary of the club up to the time it quit business.
"There could not have been a meeting of the Square Deal Republican club, for the reason that the club was dissolved formally and forever two and half months ago. The action dissolving the club was taken formally by the club itself and I have the records. Anyone claiming that the club is still in existence and holding meetings is deceiving himself and everybody else. The club is out of existence, hence cannot endorse or denounce anybody."

First Omaha Showing of the Solo Apollo Player Piano

It's triumphant! Absolute realism in music! A marvelous 88-note player piano that embodies all the experience of Melville Clark, the man who made 88-note players 8 years before any other builder. Almost a thing of life!

The "Solo Apollo" is priced at from $650 to $1100, and we will make most liberal allowances for your present piano or piano player. A half dozen styles of cases—in all wanted finishes—are here awaiting inspection by the most critical of critics, by the admirers of realism in music.

A few—a very few—points, wherein Melville Clark has captured fame.

SOLO APOLLO accents all of the delicate "lights and shadows," strong tones, medium tones and almost imperceptible tones automatically—there's no need to resort to some complicated contrivance in front of the piano—the modulations are already accentuated in the music.
SOLO APOLLO plays any make, 88, 65 or 88 note music—plays any piece in any one of six to nine keys—plays the accompaniment without the melody if you wish—plays any number in an operatic score without playing the preceding ones. Truly, it is well nigh human.
SOLO APOLLO music is arranged and cut right in the Melville Clark Co. piano factory—new selections are brought out weekly. It's the only player that may be operated by novices who know nothing of accents and modulations.

Don't stop and think of the player pianos and piano players you have heard—for you haven't yet heard the marvelous "Solo Apollo."

PURITY WORKERS GIVE IDEAS TO MOTHERS AND TEACHERS
Plead with Them to Lay Proper Foundations in the Children's Lives.
MOTHERS AND TEACHERS gathered at the First Presbyterian church Thursday morning and afternoon to listen to the advice and experiences of those engaged in purity work. The conference was held under the direction of Mrs. Rose Woodallen Chapman of Brooklyn, daughter of Mrs. Mary Woodallen, president of the women's purity work begun by the mother and is president of the purity department of the Woman's Christian Temperance union.
Mrs. Sena Harzall Wallace, national organizer and lecturer for the Woman's Christian Temperance union, suggested that the best way to reach the children in the purity work was to instruct the mothers and fathers on the subjects of the origin of life. She pleaded for a father who would put his arm around his son and talk to him rather than scold him from a distance.
Mrs. L. B. Smith, national superintendent of recruit work for the Woman's Christian Temperance union, led the discussion of the purity work as she came in touch with it from her work of rescue.
Dr. Carolyn E. Geisel, from the surgical staff of the Battle Creek Sanitarium, who has been an operator for twenty years and who has been a chautauqua lecturer for fourteen years, was moved forward on the program, as she had to leave early to catch a boat at New York for England.
"Poor food, lack of physical exercise, wrong clothing, are some of the foundations of the cause of social unrest which makes for impurity," said Dr. Geisel, who also spoke of the possibilities of legislation to supply the demands for physical education, where the play of children would have some guidance.
"Mothers too often shy when they hear we are to deliver a lecture on the subject of purity," said Mrs. Chapman, who is also a lecturer for the American Society of Sanitary and Moral Prophylaxis. "The principal trouble we have is in getting mothers to our meetings, but when we interest them there it is an easy matter to interest them in the work we have in hand."
Mrs. Chapman tries to make mothers realize the moral dangers which threaten their children in the public schools and explains to them the physical effects of immorality, and points out what mothers can do to protect their children from these dangers. She tells in simple words the story of the origin of life as a mother may explain it to her child.

At the Theaters
The Red Moon at the Krug.
A most colorful production in "The Red Moon" at the Krug for the rest of the week. Brilliant costumes and many melodramatic scenes far in making the success of this musical comedy. The music is fast and the action of the fitful plot rapid.
There is enough of story in the production to lace together a series of vivacious songs, accompanied by some real dancing. The chorus is well trained.
The hand of Minnehaha, represented by Tootsie Allen, a young woman with a delightful voice, is sought by many suitors. Meanwhile her heart is torn by her affection for her Indian father, John Lowdog—Arthur Talbot—the old chieftain, who calls her back to the wilds. There are glimpses of tragedy, but the audience is not allowed to be serious long.
Bob Cole, in the role of Slim Brown, the masquerading crook, is an agile dancer and something of a comedian. Henry Grant, as Bill Gibson, saloon keeper, delivers himself of his lines with telling effect. He has about the most joyous toga extant. The opening night of the performance drew a packed house.
Fearful Slaughter

OFFICIAL MAKES STATEMENT
Treasurer Furray Explains Few Things About County Tax Books.
Commenting on statements being published that County Clerk Haverly has not attended to the duty of getting the tax books into the hands of the city treasurer, Treasurer Furray says:
"The fact of the matter is, the law provides that the county clerk shall turn the tax books over to the treasurer on the first day of November, and the treasurer is then required to give notice to all taxpayers. The books will be here in time, and the proper notice will be given. Such barefaced misrepresentation is inexcusable."
