AFFAIRS AT SOUTH OMAHA

Country Club Finally Decides Upon a Bond Issue.

MONEY TO PURCHASE GROUNDS

Debt to Be Paid and Some Needed Improvements to Be Made Before the Opening of Another Season.

The South Omaha Country club met at the offices of T. J. O'Neil last night and took final action on the bond issue. The question has been up for discussion for some weeks and has appeared to the membership the only feasible method of perpetuating the club. A resolution was adopted authorizing the board of directors to issue bonds to the amount of $25,000 in denominations of $100 and $500. These bonds are to run twenty years and bear five per cent interest. They will be secured by a first mortgage lien on the club property, which is valued by appraisal at $25,000. The bonds will be optional at any interest bearing period but if retired before five years a premium of two per cent is to be paid. The meeting was characterized by entire harmony and a feeling of confidence in the proposed plan of action.

The chair appointed eleven men to act as collectors to secure subscriptions to the bonds. All cash paid in will be deposited and held in trust by the club and the interest arising from this source will be paid to the party who pays in his bonds. It is felt by the membership that the increase in the value of the property will easily pay for the issue of bonds before the twenty years shall have passed.

The money raised by this process is to be applied to the purchase of the grounds under the optional price and for the payment of present obligations and to improve the pavilion. It is estimated that $1,000 will complete all plans now contemplated.

The result of the meeting last night has greatly relieved the board of directors, who have been personally responsible for the obligations of the club.

Clarinda Man Arrested.

Detective P. H. Shields arrested Louis Hagus of Clarinda, Ia., last night at the request of the Iowa authorities. A deputy sheriff was in the city last night and gave notice that the young man was in town. Detective Shields found him at the home of his uncle. The charges against him at Clarinda is burglary. He and another young man, it is alleged, robbed a store. It is believed that the young man will consent to go to Iowa without resistance.

Funeral of William Anderson.

The funeral of William S. Anderson was held at 3 p. m. yesterday at Lester Memorial church. The Odd Fellows and the Grand Army of the Republic were out in uniform, and the church was filled with a large number of Mr. Anderson's friends. Dr. R. L. Wheeler preached the sermon. It was a discourse full of touching personal references, as Mr. Anderson was an old soldier and a friend of Dr. Wheeler and a member of his congregation. It is not the doctor's custom to dwell on the personal traits of the departed, but this time the remarks were especially apt and appropriate. The music was furnished by Mrs. G. H. Brewer, Mrs. George Carley, Messrs. Richards, Kellogg and Pascoe. The orders marched from the church to the cemetery.

A. H. Miller, E. H. Roberts, James Carlin, J. McIntire, J. O. Eastman and J. D. Bennett, sr., were the pallbearers. The burial rites of both orders were pronounced.

The Mark Still There.

We have said it so often, it may be getting threadbare to some, but to us it is always new. No other expression fits the place of "Comparison." It is all John Flynn & Co. asks, compare our offerings when and where you please. Rub up against any man wearing one of Hart-Schaffner & Marx suits. It's new, it's beautiful, it's old, it's like "the Hat my father wore"; the mark of its former goodness is still there.

We like good goods, we like to buy them, we like to sell them, we like to meet the fellow we have served along these lines. There are plenty of them in South Omaha and we are adding a lot of new ones this fall. This grand line of H. S. & M. Suits is doing it daily. Then there is our Stately underwear, Interwoven Socks (guaranteed to outwear any other kind), New fangled pants, Viking Clothing for Boys, Red Seal work clothes and shirts, Royal Blue Shoes, Tiger Hats, etc. In what other store can you find such an array of good things. It's not in the territory. Compare and you will see. JOHN FLYNN & CO.

Magie City Gossip.

Mrs. L. C. Marsh, 315 V street, is seriously ill at the South Omaha hospital. The Hema-way club was entertained by Miss Ella Peterson Wednesday evening. Carl Hleko died at St. Louis, Mo., last week. He was formerly a resident of South Omaha. Mrs. Cook of Fort Byron, Ill., is visiting with her sister, Mrs. G. C. Smith, 418 North Fifteenth street. Mrs. Guy Wilber of Wayne, who has been visiting Mrs. G. H. Brewer, has returned to her home. Wanted—Dining room girl and kitchen

DR. COOK FACES HIS GUIDES

Dramatic Scene on Lecture Platform at Hamilton, Mont.

EXPLORER MAKES AFFIDAVIT

Says He Ascended Mount McKinley and that Barrill Was with Him

—Townsmen Stand by Guides.

HAMILTON, Mont., Oct. 29.—After a stormy session lasting till after midnight a large meeting addressed by Dr. Frederick A. Cook tonight adopted a resolution expressing confidence in the veracity of Barrill and Eripts, the guides who made affidavits that Cook did not climb Mount McKinley. The meeting started with an address by Dr. Cook in which he attacked his enemies for disputing his claims to having climbed Mount McKinley, and declared he would prove they had sent money corruptly to obtain the affidavits against him. Attorney Crutchfield, attorney for the guides, questioned Cook after his address, and then the excitement broke forth. Crutchfield challenged Cook's statements. This brought on a discussion, the fellow townsmen of the guides taking sides. J. H. Durston, editor of the Amazonda Standard, offered a resolution at this point asking that the meeting declare a lack of faith on the part of the entire people of Montana in all matters about which Dr. Cook made claims.

Attorney Rolland White of San Francisco, who happened to be in the audience, arose and as a citizen made a plea for fair play. Senator Joseph M. Dixon of Montana also took the floor and urged that fair play be accorded all parties to the controversy. Neither those who were opposed to Dr. Cook nor his friends would accept the Durston resolution and it was withdrawn by its author.

LURE OF THE FAR EAST

Growing Liking Among Soldiers for Service in the Philippine Islands.

Contrary to popular information, American soldiers find service in the Philippines so much to their liking that soon after they have revisited "home" they wish they were back east. It is true of officers, and it is true of men. So far is it true of enlisted men that General Leonard Wood, in command of the Department of the East, has recommended restrictions on re-enlistment. He would have privates separated into two classes—the second class, because of lower efficiency, to be refused re-enlistment and returned to civil life.

Intimation of the changed attitude of the army toward Philippine service first came when, the other day, General Wood, bumped with his automobile a peddler. The general was hurrying to the reviewing stand of a Hudson-Fulton parade with the representative of a foreign government. Having stopped to take the peddler into his car, a policeman came up, saluted, and said, "I served under you, general, in Mindanao."

"When he told me where he had served," said General Wood, "I answered, 'Well, wouldn't we all enjoy being there again?'"

"That is a feeling that now pervades the service. You know the east. It has its all. But to our soldiers it means doing a soldier's active work. It is in the field, the trial, the 'hike.' There is nothing humdrum. Open camp, open air, the possibility for the enlisted man of something much more satisfactory than a few hours' leave from routine to go to town and participate in town amusements—for instance, a march that may have danger in it, and fight. You know, perhaps, that the records of health there differ but one-third of 1 per cent from the record at home."

"Then there is the circumstance—I don't know how far influential—of the 20 per cent increased pay, and the double time for Philippine service. I know a sergeant who, at 43 years of age, is now entitled to retire at $90 a month for the rest of his life. Besides, money goes further out there."—New York American.

Forest Fire in Texas.

EL PASO, Tex., Oct. 29.—A forest fire is raging in the Hanchuca forest reserve, and troops from Fort Huachuca have been ordered out to fight the flames. Much valuable timber has been destroyed. It is believed the fire was started by sheep herders in revenge for having their flocks driven from the range by government rangers.

Ten Business Commandments.

Here is a set which a well known Liverpool house has placed on the desk of each of its clerks:

- First—Thou shalt not wait for something to turn up, but pull off thy coat and set to work.
- Second—Thou shalt not go about thy business looking like a "guy," for thy personal appearance is thy best letter of recommendation.
- Third—Thou shalt not try to make excuses and rebuke those who criticize thee.
- Fourth—Thou shalt not wait to be told what to do.
- Fifth—Thou shalt not fail to maintain thine own integrity, or do anything which will lessen thine own self-respect.
- Sixth—Thou shalt not covet another fellow's job, nor his salary, nor the position which he has got through hard work.
- Seventh—Thou shalt not fail to live within thine own income.
- Eighth—Thou shalt not fail to blow thine own trumpet on the proper occasion.
- Ninth—Thou shalt not hesitate to say "No" when thou meanest "No."
- Tenth—Thou shalt give every man a square deal. This is the last and greatest commandment, and there is none like unto it. Upon it hangs both the law and the profits of business.—London Exchange.
