Hallow'en, with its lack of lanterns, its pranks and all its weird traditions, introduced a note of variety into the week that afforded a refreshing change from the conventionalities that extend with but occasional interruption through the winter.

The Hallow'en hop at Fort Crook was the conspicuous affair of all and a number of Omaha people went down for the occasion.

October has become a real rival of June, the profert month of weddings. The latter part of the month there have been scores of marriages and a large number of these have been church weddings, followed by large receptions.

Mrs. Carter Likes Little Omahan. Ruth Thompson, Aged 11, Who Played Small Part Here, Made Permanent Offer by Actress.

According to Mrs. Leslie Carter one little Omahan girl has a really bright future on the stage. Little girls with such bright futures are rather numerous and sometimes rather tiresome, but the statement of the actress, which was not made with an eye to publication, is a true one, as those who saw the child will testify.

Mr. and Mrs. E. B. Ferris will celebrate their twelfth wedding anniversary Monday evening at their home.

The Temple Israel will hold its regular monthly entertainment Monday afternoon at the parlors of Temple Israel.

The current topics department of the Omaha Women's club will give a luncheon Wednesday afternoon at the home of Mrs. Edward Phelan, 620 North Forsyth street.

Mr. Leonard has prepared attractive year books for the members of the Tuesday Morning Musical club. The cover has the usual wreath design, the wreath being significant of artistic success and the following quotation is used: "And music, dear music, that can touch beyond all else the soul that lives it much."—Lalla Rock.

will be Mr. Albert Boroff the well known baritone of Chicago, who will give an unusually artistic program. Following the musicale there will be a tea, when the guests will be received by Mrs. Mary Learned, president of the club, Mr. Boroff, and Miss Corinne Paulson, who will be the accompanist.

Mr. and Mrs. C. M. Wilhelm, who left last evening for New York, where they will sail for a trip abroad, have been much entertained this week by their many friends. Besides the affairs given the first of the week, Mr. and Mrs. J. E. Baum entertained at dinner last night at their home in honor of Mr. and Mrs. C. M. Wilhelm. Those present were: Mr. and Mrs. Wilhelm, Mr. and Mrs. E. A. Cudahy, Mr. and Mrs. Victor Caldwell, Mr. and Mrs. Clement Chase, Mr. and Mrs. Joseph Cudahy, Mr. and Mrs. G. W. Wattles, Mr. and Mrs. E. W. Dixon and Mr. and Mrs. J. E. Baum.

Miss Eleanor McElton gave a Hallow'en dinner party Saturday evening at her home, when twelve guests were present. The evening was spent in playing games and doing various "stunts." Those present were: Miss Grace Slabough, Miss Harriet Sherman, Miss Lois Robbins, Miss Anna Clark, Miss Virginia O'Fall, Miss Eleanor McElton, Miss Jarvis O'Fall, Jaben Caldwell, Philip Chase, Charlie Hall, Edward Marples and Fred Bucholz.

One of the elaborate Hallow'en dinner parties of the week was given by Colonel and Mrs. Hester in one of the private dining rooms at the Millard hotel. The table was especially attractive with a large pumpkin on a brass tray for the centerpiece. The pumpkin was filled with American Beauty roses surrounded by bright autumn leaves and fruits.

Miss Sadie Kirschbraun entertained at an enjoyable Hallow'en party Wednesday evening at her home. The rooms were appropriately decorated in Jack-o'-lantern and autumn leaves. Games were played, following which a fortune teller revealed the futures of the guests.

The ideal club in South Omaha, opened the winter season with a dancing party at the Home hotel Friday evening. A few original stunts were introduced into a very enjoyable program of dances, and a dainty two-course luncheon was served during the intermission at a long table stretched the entire length of the main dining room. The following members were present: Mr. and Mrs. W. B. Tagg, Mr. and Mrs. H. P. Trumble, Mr. and Mrs. E. A. Rose, Mr. and Mrs. H. P. Cote, Mr. and Mrs. J. G. Kelly, Mr. and Mrs. E. A. Maher, Mr. and Mrs. W. B. Homey, Mr. and Mrs. J. B. Watkins, Mr. and Mrs. J. R. Hughes, Mr. and Mrs. C. H. Van Alstine, Mr. and Mrs. W. E. Reed, Mr. and Mrs. W. H. Heyman, Mr. and Mrs. J. M. Meyers, Mr. and Mrs. E. L. Melvin, Mr. and Mrs. J. M. Mullin, Mr. and Mrs. H. H. Roberts, Mr. and Mrs. C. A. Melcher, Mr. and Mrs. T. O. Thilston, Mr. and Mrs. W. W. Fisher, Misses Helen Blum, Francis Willard, Marion Ansd, Hortense Eads, Vita Brewer, Georgia Trimble, Mayme Laughlin, Stella Heustle, Buchanan, Minah Webber, Helena Trimble, Mrs. Chatman, Mrs. Moore of Sioux City and Messrs. C. H. Marling, B. C. Shoutwell, James Trimble, W. W. Buchanan, Andrew Clark, Harry Cheek, C. E. Parks, C. J. Bulla, W. A. Cox, A. A. Fricke, Joe Peschek and Joe Tanner.

Mrs. S. J. Leddy, assisted by her daughter, Miss Adams, entertained the Pictus club Thursday afternoon. Members present were: Messdames William Clark, B. Woolstencroft, J. J. Muller, M. Stewart, J. Stewart, J. W. Welch, M. C. Mitchell, A. F. Leermakers, H. A. Pearce, H. Sawyer.

Fort Crook with his son for several years. The funeral is to be held from the residence this afternoon at 2 o'clock. Burial will be in Bellevue cemetery.

Mary C. George. Mary C. George, the infant daughter of Mr. and Mrs. C. B. George, 47 South Twenty-first street, died from diphtheria Friday. The funeral was held Saturday afternoon at 2 o'clock. Burial was in Holy Sepulcher cemetery.

Frances McGrew. Frances McGrew, 1 year of age, daughter of Mr. and Mrs. C. M. McGrew, 2004 Pinkney street, died Saturday morning. The funeral will be held from the home this afternoon at 2 o'clock. Burial will be in Forest Lawn cemetery.

Mrs. Carter Likes Little Omahan. Ruth Thompson, Aged 11, Who Played Small Part Here, Made Permanent Offer by Actress.

According to Mrs. Leslie Carter one little Omahan girl has a really bright future on the stage. Little girls with such bright futures are rather numerous and sometimes rather tiresome, but the statement of the actress, which was not made with an eye to publication, is a true one, as those who saw the child will testify.

The girl mentioned is Ruth Thompson, the 11-year-old offspring of Mr. and Mrs. E. A. Thompson of 228 North Sixteenth street. The little girl appeared as a boy of five or six in the drama "Kassa." Mrs. Carter liked her better in the part than any whom she has and urged her parents to let her go on the road with the Carter company. Her parents declined because the girl is studying music and her education otherwise would suffer also.

Mr. and Mrs. E. B. Ferris will celebrate their twelfth wedding anniversary Monday evening at their home.

The Temple Israel will hold its regular monthly entertainment Monday afternoon at the parlors of Temple Israel.

The current topics department of the Omaha Women's club will give a luncheon Wednesday afternoon at the home of Mrs. Edward Phelan, 620 North Forsyth street.

Court Unable to Reduce Sentence

Indeterminate Sentence Law Places Sole Power in Board of Parole.

(From a Staff Correspondent.) DES MOINES, Oct. 30.—(Special.)—In the William McPursley case, the supreme court today held that it has no authority to cut down a sentence since the indeterminate sentence law took effect. Joe Brown, attorney for McPursley, argued that it did. McPursley was sentenced for a crime the maximum term of which is life imprisonment. The supreme court today, in a supplemental opinion, says there are circumstances which indicate that he should have been punished for a lesser crime, but it has no authority to change the sentence, so recommends that the State Board of Parole give his case early consideration. McPursley and the woman against whom he committed the crime were, both negroes, and McPursley was a preacher.

H. E. Wright, state food and dairy commissioner, has caused information to be filed against E. B. Hammer of Kelly, Ia., for falsely manipulating and overloading the Babcock test of butter fat in milk. Hammer was agent for the Fairmont Creamery company. Senator and Mrs. Cummins will leave for Chicago next week, Friday, and the senator will speak before the Marquette club there November 8. They will visit Senator Cummins' brother some days, and then go on to Washington for the opening of congress. Senator Cummins finished today the manuscript for his Marquette speech.
