

Nebraska TROUBLE WAITS GOVERNOR Superintendent of Lincoln Asylum Discharges More Men. BOHEMIANS ARE UP IN ARMS

Felix Newton Kept a Diary of Daily Doings at the Asylum Which May Get Him a Job in Another Place.

(From a Staff Correspondent.)
LINCOLN, Oct. 30.—(Special.)—When Governor Shallenbarger returns home he will be confronted by a crowd of Bohemians, who will demand of him an explanation of the discharge of Felix Newton, a year ago a faithful baker at the Lincoln insane asylum.
Mr. Storkan, who was placed at work as a baker in the institution by former Superintendent Greene at the request of many Bohemians in Wilbur and Omaha and who was retained in his position at the request of the same people, was let out of his job by Dr. Woodard without any cause. Mr. Storkan's son was a druggist at the asylum, and he was the first to be discharged and then the father was discharged because his friends say he was displeased with the discharge and they are displeased with the discharge of his father. Senator Barton and Representative Hodopodsky asked for the selection of Storkan as baker at the institution and they are reported indignant at the action of the governor's superintendent in letting him go.
Storkan is a cripple and has a large family. Some time ago his sore leg became worse and he quit work temporarily. When he was ready to resume his duty, Dr. Woodard informed him there was nothing for him to do, so he has gone back to Wilbur. Senator Barton and Representative Hodopodsky and others from Wilbur intend to demand an explanation of the governor immediately upon his return.

Newton Kept a Record.
Felix Newton, the bookkeeper at the Lincoln asylum, who was discharged by Superintendent Woodard without the aid or consent of Governor Shallenbarger, is still at the institution and there is little doubt but what he will be transferred. It is also not an impossibility that Felix Newton may be sent to Norfolk. The democratic leaders fear Felix is too much of a live wire to turn him loose with no job.

Other Employees Let Out.
The following persons employed at the Lincoln asylum have either been discharged or have voluntarily quit the services of the state during the month of October: Max Storkan, Lou Brown, Luella Reynolds, George Reynolds, Mary I. Goetz, W. J. Hicks, Cella Block, Alice McGaw, W. A. Philip, E. B. Storey, E. E. Keil, Ida Keil. The pay roll filed with the secretary of state today does not show why these persons have been separated from it.

Street Railway Case Postponed.
The Omaha street railway case has been postponed by the state railway commission from Monday until November 23. At that time the demurrer filed by John L. Webster, to the petition of L. I. Abbott asking for a ruling of the valuation of the street railway company will be heard.

More Time on Water Project.
Through Project Engineer Weiss, the government has allowed for and received an extension of time for the construction of what is known as the North Platte project, for five years and also five years extension of the time the water shall be turned on the lands. The government informed the state engineer that $3,000,000 is being spent annually in the reclamation service and there is available for expenditure in Nebraska next year, $200,000. Already $275,000 has been spent in Wyoming on this project and this expenditure is essential to the success of the Nebraska project.

Holdup Men Hit the Wrong Party
Trainmen Turn on Them with Shovel, a Brick and the Hot Water Hose.
GRAND ISLAND, Neb., Oct. 30.—(Special Telegram.)—Detective Gorman of the Union Pacific late this afternoon arrested Charles Buffa and James Craddock, whom he found in the Stock Yards hotel, on the charge of holding up a freight train crew last night. The two and a third crook, Ed S. Knappner, tackled the men as their train came to a standstill two miles east of the city, and ordered them to throw up their hands. The trainmen resisted, one using a scap shovel, the other a hose with a stream of hot water, and the third a brickbat.

Buffa shows the result of the brickbat operations and Craddock was scalded in spots. Both men admit their participation in the attempted holdup of the crew and are lodged in the county jail. None of the trainmen was injured.
D. A. H. Closes Session.
BEATRICE, Neb., Oct. 30.—(Special.)—The annual state conference of the Daughters of the American Revolution closed yesterday morning after one of the most successful sessions held by the order in Nebraska. Reports read at the closing session by the various regents in attendance showed the order to be in a thrifty condition.
"An enthusiastic discussion arose from 'The Oregon Trail,' which was read by Mrs. Charles O. Norton. A resolution having for its purpose the levying of a per capita tax in order to erect four monuments similar to the 'Sante Fe Trail,' one of which would have been located in the southern part of Gege county, was lost by a close vote. The chief objection raised was that the state chapter has already pledged $250 towards furnishing a national home of the order in Colorado at Washington, D. C. The proposition was taken up and considered at the next annual meeting.
Invitations of thanks were offered to Elizabeth Mortague chapter of Beatrice and to Mrs. H. J. Schaeffer for their generous display of hospitality while the conference was assembled here.

Nebraska Hastings College Being Inspected Commission to Decide What Institution is to Have Support of the Church.

HASTINGS, Neb., Oct. 30.—(Special.)—The Presbyterian synodical commission recently named to investigate Bellevue and Hastings colleges with a view to determining upon one of them for exclusive support by the synod in this state, completed its inspection of the local institution yesterday afternoon and next week will begin the consideration of reports from both colleges.
Ten members of the commission came to Hastings from Bellevue, the only absentees being two members who live in Lincoln. They were addressed by President Turner on behalf of the college, by J. N. Clarke for the trustees and by W. A. Taylor for the citizens' committee. They made a thorough examination of the financial accounts of the college and spent considerable time on the campus. A stenographer made a verbatim report of every statement and proposal and copies will be sent at once to all members.
The commissioners were unanimously as to their findings and nobody ventured an opinion as to what the decision would be. A report will be prepared for submission to the synod at Kearney on December 7 and probably the decision of the commission will not be published until that time.
Hastings college has an endowment of $100,000 and an investment in college buildings and campus of nearly $200,000. It has been well supported by the citizens of Hastings, who just now are raising a fund of $25,000 to pay off a deficit of long standing.

NO DECREE IN GOINGS CASE
Judge Dungan Refuses to Release Parties to Marriage Contract.
MINNEN, Neb., Oct. 30.—(Special.)—The most important case tried during the recent session of the district court was the divorce suit of Ida Goings against Joseph G. Goings. It was bitterly fought on both sides, something like thirty witnesses being examined. It was the most sensational case of its kind, probably, ever tried in Nebraska and took three and one-half days for trial. This morning Judge Dungan decided neither of the parties were entitled to a decree.
Another case was tried today, from Wilcox, in which Henry Ackerman was granted a liquor license by the village board. The remonstrators appeared to the district court. Judge Dungan decided for the remonstrators on the ground that the applicant having treated during the past year and having been intoxicated was not a man of such character and standing as would entitle him to a license. Ex-district Judge Ed L. Adams presided for the applicant and C. P. Anderson for the remonstrators. This is the second effort to get a license in Wilcox this year.

EVERY MAN HAS GOOD CHANCE
Judge Fawcett Addresses Students of Peru Normal School.
PERU, Neb., Oct. 30.—(Special.)—Judge Fawcett of the supreme bench delivered an address to the students of the Normal Friday morning at convocation. He was introduced by President Crabtree and spoke in part as follows:
"We are living in the greatest time the world has known. Our government is the greatest that man has ever evolved. We are wholly justified in manifesting great enthusiasm for our times and for our state. I am glad I came to Nebraska, which is not only the center of our country geographically, but which is destined to become its center educationally. We are living in an age which demands educators who have high moral standard. Good and strong character is a primary essential in any vocation. You who are here being educated as teachers will, in a short time, be out in this great state exerting a wonderful influence over thousands of our youth. May the training which you receive here make that influence stand for the ideals which Americans hold dear.
"You must not only become men and women of character, you must develop sound judgment. The citizens of this country demand men of judgment to carry on their institutions. In our country honor comes not by accident of birth, but to him who earns and deserves it. It is a greater honor to be elected to the presidency by the free act of the voters of this country than to gain a kingdom of inheritance. You are here to get education not alone for your own benefit, but to prepare yourselves as missionaries of knowledge, carrying it to the remotest bounds of civilization. What a wonderful work the state calls you to perform. My God give you long lives that you may spend those lives for the benefit for the country under which you live. There is a mistaken idea that the world owes every man a living. A greater life was never uttered."

Judge Fawcett was received cordially by the students, many remaining to meet him after his address.
Barbecue at Sargent.
SARGENT, Neb., Oct. 30.—(Special.)—A large crowd assembled in the city today and did justice to two fine roasts of beef. A dozen automobiles brought the people from over the county. Breza and Miller of Custer, by exchanging platforms, gave the two audiences the same talks. The foot ball game between Loup City and Sargent was a great attraction, Sargent winning, 11 to 6. Brega gave some interesting and convincing statistics at the opera house in the evening.

Aged Woman Finds Land Claim After Hope is Gone
ABERDEEN, S. D., Oct. 30.—Turning away tearfully and broken hearted from the final day of the drawing of names of winners in the Cheyenne River and Standing Rock reservations, Mrs. Sylvia R. Gillard of Sandusky, O., a widow, aged 61 years glanced idly at the printed list of winners upon the wall, hope gone, she faced the bitter disappointment of her life, but decided to take just one more look, for all day long and day after day she had spent hours at the drawing in the vain hope that she would hear her name. Slowly turning the pages, she was thrilled to see her own name opposite 438, as the winner of that choice of claim.
"Thank God," she screamed, "my prayer has been answered."
With tears streaming down her face, she rushed back to the platform to know if it were really true. Shaking hands with Judge Witten and all his deputies, she sang to pay her way to Aberdeen. She sat up days to hear her name, but when it was called she had dozed asleep.
The drawing of the 30,000 names ended today, S. Corrine Clark City, Ia., being the last. Interest had waned until there were less than a score of people attending.

The task of tabulating the names will continue here for a month.
In further answer to the attack of Louis Hill, president of the Great Northern railway, Judge Witten has made preliminary preparations to furnish Mr. Hill with the names of all persons who registered at Kalispell if the Great Northern wants to refund their money for fares to that place. Judge James W. Witten, speaking of the attack made on the method of these openings by Louis W. Hill, president of the Great Northern railway, at the Billings Dry Farming congress, remarked that Mr. Hill was misquoted or misinformed, as he would not have made such "grossly extravagant statements" had he known the facts.
Mr. Hill is reported as having called the recent Flathead, Coeur d'Alene and Spokane registration a "swindle" and said: "It is estimated that 30,000 people went out there. We received our portion of the money, but we do not want that kind of money."
"These figures are grossly misleading," said Judge Witten. "The combined registration for all three was but 285,848, and one-third of that number, or 95,282, represents the number of applicants if each had registered three times."
