Right of Syrians and Turks to Naturalization Questioned.

QUESTION FOR THE COURTS

Consults Officials of State Department in Interest of Syrlans.

WASHINGTON, Oct. 30.-The Syrians in the United States who believe that they are threatened with being forced by the bureau of immigration and naturalisation of into the position of an inferior race on a par with the Chinese, have brought their appeal to Washington and are at the point of submitting their case as one of international importance to the State department Dr. Justin S. Kirreh of New York is in Washington in this behalf and has succeeded in enlisting the interest of Acting Secretary Huntington Wilson, assistant Secretary Adee and Counsellor Henry M. Hoyt of the State department, whom he saw today.

An important development in the matter was the production tonight of a letter written en October 27 by Richard K. Campbell, chief of the division of naturaliza tion, to United States Attorney Charles R. Beattle, at New Orleans, suggesting to him that he refrain from bringing naturalization cases affecting Syrans "before courts, etc., whose policy indicates its probable decision, contrary to that entertained by this office, especially in view to the fact that I have been unable to satisfy you, who would have to represent the government in these cases, that the construction contended for is the true one."

School Issue Premier Briand Says Nation Will Never Take Orders from the Outside.

France on the

PARIS, Oct. 31 .- M. Briand, the premier n an eloquent discourse last night at the dedication of the home of the Educational league, at which President Fallieres and several of the ministers were present, an-nounced that one of the government's principal occupations would be the protection of the public schools, whose enemies were the real enemies of the republic.

He counselled the people to be calm under attacks, as he will convinced that the country's enemies were setting a trap and hoped to win over public opinion through excesses of passion and anger at the defenders of the public schools. Pointing out that the last struggle with the church. but against those who pretended to direct the church, M. Briand declared that France will never obey orders from the outside, and that Cathelie France, which does not view religion as the instrument of a political propaganda, never will permit the exercise of brutal force against public institutions to which the nation is dedicated. "The public schools," he continued, "are the hope of the future security of France.
