THERE is a fascination about life at sea which last year caused 55 per cent of the nen with good records to re-enlist. Besides the material advantages offered, good pay, steady employment, they find navy life more attractive than routine jobs ashore, because of variety of scene. The condi-tions on board a spick-and-span battleship are ideal for young men who are fond of the sea, and desire to travel. Navy train-ing broadens them. Their games and rec-reation, healthy exercise and regular drills, develop quickness, sound health and seif-

The first four months after enlistment The first four months after enlistment you get the benefit of free instruction at a navy training station.
